

OK WITH HER—Universal actress Luana Patten is taking full advantage of unusual November weather in Southern California for a little sunbathing. Hollywood weather bureau records that this is the third rainless month of November since 1876.

Debbie Reynolds, Tony Curtis Honored

Hollywood — (UPI) — Debbie Reynolds and Tony Curtis were honored by Motion Picture magazine Saturday night as the most popular screen stars of the year.

The two stars were presented with silver cups at a party which was telecast on Ed Sullivan's show. They were singled out in a poll conducted by the magazine.

Kirk Douglas was cited for the "best performance of the year for an actor" for his picture "Lust For Life." Audrey Hepburn won the award for the "best performance of the year for an actress" for "War and Peace."

Other awards and winners included "most popular new stars," Natalia Wood and Elvis Presley; "most popular cover girl of 1956," Janet Leigh and "most promising newcomers," Victoria Shaw and Tony Perkins.

Producer-director George Stevens accepted an award for "Giant" as the "best picture of the year."

Jail Inmate Said Burglary Suspect

Pringville — (UPI) — State police said here Saturday that an escaped inmate of the Crook county jail is suspected of committing a number of burglaries in this area during the two months he was confined before his escape Nov. 4.

Investigation last week disclosed that Roy Stinehart carried two keys to the jail. He spent his days behind bars—then when jailers were absent at night, let himself out.

Police said that an inmate of the jail at the time Stinehart was confined, was picked up in Baker last week for questioning after he had been released. The man told officers that Stinehart had freed himself each night after the jailer went off duty at 5 p.m. and then returned to his cell before 8 a.m. when the jailer was back on duty. He recalled that Stinehart had returned to his cell with money most of the time, police said.

King Henry III Not Proud of Birthplace

Winchester, England — (UPI) — Winchester city officials said today they have abandoned a plan to erect a statue of King Henry III, who was born here.

A historian searched the records to find out what the King thought of his birthplace. Plans for the statue were dropped when a document turned up in which Henry III wrote: "The city and the district stink."
