Air Force Man Admits Unprovoked Shooting Of Two Motorists

San Jose, Calif.—UP—A 21-year-old Air Force veteran told authorities yesterday he shot down two motorists in an unprovoked outburst on a highway near here because he had been "feeling depressed" lately.

Elmo Junior Hatton, Campbell, Calif., killed a woman instantly and pumped five bullets into a man. He was surrendered to the sheriff's office by his father, a retired Army major, four hours after the shooting Tuesday.

The victims were Mrs. Dorothy Minkel, 56, San Jose, and Ferd Hansen, 42, San Jose tire salesman. Mrs. Minkel was shot through the head, while Hansen was in critical condition with wounds in the head and abdomen.

Sketchy Account

Hansen, although near death, was able to furnish a sketchy account of the incident. He said the young man sounded his horn to pass on a highway about 12 miles east of here. As he passed, he raised a .22 caliber pistol and fired a shot which struck Hansen in the head.

The salesman brought his car to a halt, and as he did so the assailant got out of his car and pumped four more bullets into Hansen's abdomen.

At that time, Mrs. Minkel drove up behind Hansen's stalled car, and the youth whirled and fired a single shot into her head, killing her instantly.

Sheriff Melvin T. Hawley said Hatton apparently fled directly home in his car after the shooting and blurted out a confession to his father, Maj. Elmo Hatton.

Story Disbelieved

The youth's father still disbelieved his son's story when he brought him to the sheriff's office. He was almost hysterical when he learned that the account of the shooting was true.

The elder Hatton could only say that his son had been subject to "certain disturbances" while in the Air Force.

The sheriff said the youth was sullen and silent as he was fingerprinted and booked on a straight charge of murder.

"He answers questions," Hawley said, "but he will not volunteer anything on his own."

TOO BUSY WORKING

Detroit — (UP) — Robert Harris, 32, has been placed on six months' probation for fradulently obtaining state unemployment compensation benefits. Police said Harris was so busy working he had to send a friend, Porter Isaac, 31, to pick up his compensation checks.
