

HAVE YOU MAILED YOURS YET?—Chicago Postmaster Carl A. Schroeder (left) gets a helping hand from Maidell Cundiff, who is dressed for her role as Miss Santa Claus representing the scheduled airlines. Huge pile of packages is only part of 1,500,000 parcels that go through Chicago's main post office each day. With the Christmas rush on, the volume is expected to rise to three million parcels daily.

Paper money of 25 cent denomination was once issued by the U.S. government in the 1860s.

About 91 per cent of the nation's 150,000 grade schools have no gymnasiums, but the number is increasing.

Kind Judge, Record

Save Speedy Autoist

Irondequoit, N.Y.—UP—A kindly judge and 78 years without arrest combined to save Willie J. Taylor from paying a $25 speeding fine.

When Taylor was arraigned on a charge of driving 45 miles an hour in Lake Shore Boulevard, Judge Leo T. Minton advised him he was entitled to the services of a lawyer before he entered a plea.

But the elderly man, who admitted "I'm a bit hard of hearing," said, "I just came in to pay the $25."

Judge Minton suspended the sentence with the hope that "you can get another 78 years before you get arrested again. But slow down, now."

Boy and Horse Cause Stir When Banking

Columbus, O.—UP—Pete and Betsy cause a number of eyebrows to raise when they call each week at the drive-in window of a local bank.

Pete is a boy, 15, and Betsy is a horse of about the same age. The two got in line at the drive-in window built for the convenience of motorists.

Harold Thomas, Haberman, known as Pete, explained that he deposited two or three dollars a week. "Depends on how much I can spare."

He said he withdraws his money from time to time to buy hay and feed for his brown and white horse.

Pete lives with his father and has a part-time job in a restaurant. His mother died four years ago.
