

Miss Rosalie Ellen Mole Wed to Richard Van Allen

An event of Saturday, December 1, was the marriage of Miss Rosalie Ellen Mole to Richard Kenneth Van Allen at First Presbyterian church in Medford. Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated for the double rite ceremony, held at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Richard Mole, Route 1, Box 209H, Central Point, and the late Mr. Mole and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Van Allen, Baker, Ore. The newlyweds left after the ceremony for Texas where the bridegroom will report for duty December 21 at Lackland Air Force base as a second lieutenant.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Charles Champlin sang and Mrs. H. E. Marsh was at the organ. Bouquets of white stock and chrysanthemums with greenery decorated the church.

The bride's wedding gown was of porcelain, designed princess style with lace bodice, full length skirt and sweep train. Seed pearls outlined the neckline of the bodice. She carried a large noisemaker with three orchids, and her veil fell from a cloche-type cap of lace and silk which matched her gown.

Miss Joan Mole, San Francisco, was her sister's honor attendant. The four bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Sauvignier, Portland, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Carol Lee Wyatt, Central Point, cousin of the bride; Miss Mary Rae Bergeron, Portland, and Miss Sandra Williams, Minneapolis, Minn.

The attendants wore gowns of light pink chiffon with rose chif-fon cummerbunds. They carried pale pink carnations and their headresses were pale pink veils held by bands of rose color.

Richard M. Mole gave his sister in marriage and Kenneth Bond, Eugene, was best man for his cousin.

Ushers were Orten Burgen, Baker, Ore., James Duncan, John Schaffer and Charles Kaye, all Portland.

Christine Mole and Dennis Pearson, both 7 years old, lighted the candles. Christine wore a pink satin frock.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mole wore a navy blue frock with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a brown dress with gold colored hat and coat and brown orchid corsage.

The reception which followed the ceremony was held at the church. Miss Margaret Tyler, Eugene, took charge of the guest book. Miss Mardie Meyers served punch and Mrs. Richard M. Mole, sister-in-law of the bride, poured coffee. Miss Meta Jean Frink and Miss Edna Humiston, Rainier, Ore., cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Ruby Wyatt took charge of the gifts.

About 150 guests were present for the marriage ceremony, and
