

Catholic Rites In Medford Wed Couple

Large baskets of white, pink and orchid chrysanthemums decorated Sacred Heart Catholic church, Saturday, November 24, for the afternoon wedding of Miss Eleanor Ruth Miller and John Vince Lisac. The Rev. William McGee officiated at the double ring ceremony, attended by 65 relatives and friends.

Miss Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Miller, 3210 North Pacific highway, Medford. Mr. Lisac is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lisac, 1101 Leland street, Medford.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace dress over tulle with a full fitted bodice and fitted bodice with Peter Pan collar. Her finger tip length veil was held by a crown of pearls and satin and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and miniature pink roses.

Mrs. Don M. Hanlin, Klamath Falls, was honor attendant for her sister, Miss Sandra K. Renfrow, cousin of the bride, who was bridesmaid. They wore dresses of lace over tulle with flower headbands and carried bouquets of white carnations. Mrs. Hanlin wore blue while Miss Renfrow was in pink.

Miss Ann Higginbotham, five-year-old niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Duane S. Lisac served as best man for his brother, and Tony Schmalz, uncle of the bridegroom, and Don Hanlin seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Miller home. Mrs. Henry Renfrow cut and served the tiered cake while Miss Tom Miller presided at the punch bowl. Miss Renfrow was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Orland Higginbotham was at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Miller chose a blue knit suit with white and black accessories. Mrs. Lisac wore a lavender knit suit with white hat and black accessories. They both wore gardenia corsages.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a Nile green dress with black accessories. After a wedding trip to San Francisco they are making their home at Durrell Court, apartment 7, 329 North Holly street.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford

High school and attended Southern Oregon college. He is a partner with his father in the Medford Bargain House.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Don Hanlin, Klamath Falls, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gaunt, Tacoma, Wash.

Chapter To Hold Christmas Party

Central Point—Nevita chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will hold the annual Christmas party following a stated meeting Tuesday, December 11 at 8 p.m. in the Masonic temple, Central Point. Members are requested to bring an exchange gift.

Mrs. Melvin McGrew, worthy matron, will preside and decorations will be in charge of star points.

Mrs. Hensley Holt is chairman of refreshments.

Christmas Parties Planned

Traditional Christmas parties and others are planned for later this month.

One of the largest of the yuletide parties is being planned by a committee of Southern Pacific Railway company employees. Invited are all employees of the Southern Pacific, Pacific Motor Trucking company, the Railway Express company and all other staff members of railway firms in the valley.

The party will be held Friday, December 21, at the IOOF hall at 7:30 p.m. and will be a family event. It will begin with a potluck dinner, followed by entertainment and a visit from Santa Claus. Santa will bring treats for the children.

Ed Smith, general chairman in charge of arrangements, states that entertainment will be provided by those attending. Mr. Smith and his committee are planning to make the party a gala event, he states.

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold the chapter's traditional Christmas party Saturday, December 13, at the home of Mrs. T. J. Gifford, 219 South Oakdale avenue, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Gifford has been hostess for this annual event for many years past.

Mrs. V. J. Bolton will give a program on the stories of Christmas carols, and will lead singing of the carols. Members will exchange Christmas gifts.

Assisting Mrs. Gifford will be Mrs. Guy Garrett, Mrs. E. M. Wilson and Mrs. H. E. Marsh.

Women of Rotary have planned a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, 1 Eastwood drive. It will be held Wednesday, December 12, beginning at 12:30 p.m., and a gift exchange will be held.

Hostesses are Mrs. Martin Sands, Mrs. C. C. Leonard, Mrs. Weldon Kline, Mrs. Albert Whitman, Mrs. William Crowder, Mrs. William Caldwell and Mrs. James Finegan.

Reservations are to be made by calling Mrs. William Crowder, 2-9818.

Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club has planned a Christmas party to be held at Redman hall, Fourth and Apple street, Medford, Wednesday, December 12.

A potluck dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m., and a gift exchange will be held during the evening. Election of officers is on the agenda.

Medford Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold the annual Christmas party Monday, December 10 at 6:30 p.m. at the Moose hall, 11 Newtown street. Dinner will be served, and each member is asked to bring a gift for exchange.

A business meeting will follow the dinner. Mrs. Edith Devaney is chairman and Mrs. Buford Kight, co-chairman.

A Christmas tea, sponsored by the Medford branch, American Association of University Women, will be held on Saturday, December 15, from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Emerson Anderson, 2131 Hillcrest road. Mrs. C. E. Gordon is chairman for the event.

All study group members, regardless of AAUW membership, are invited, according to Mrs. Milo Kubalek, study group coordinator.

Mrs. Janice Long And Frank Lovett Married in Reno

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lovett, who were married November 17 in Reno, Nev., have returned from their wedding trip and are making their home at 1308 Queen Anne avenue. Mrs. Lovett is the former Mrs. Janice Long, Medford, and Mr. Lovett lived for many years in Phoenix.

The wedding ceremony took place in First Methodist church, Reno, with the Rev. Stephen Thomas officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mick, Klamath Falls, attended the couple.

The bride wore a champagne colored knit suit with black accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

The wedding trip was to California and there the newlyweds visited Mr. Lovett's daughter, Miss Maxine Lovett, Sacramento, a sister in Monterey, and friends in Berkeley and San Jose.
