Miss Shirley Thomas Wed To Charles Kenneth Oswald

Miss Shirley Kay Thomas became the bride of Charles Kenneth Oswald in a ceremony held Saturday, November 24, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist church. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. O. M. Lanham, Los Angeles, Calif., and R. N. Thomas, Scottsburg, Ore., and has been making her home at 723 West Thirtieth street. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Oswald, Grants Pass, and has been making his home in Prospect.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace and net over satin. Her veil was held by a headpiece trimmed in seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations encircling a white orchid. She was given in marriage by Dr. Lanham.

Mrs. Richard Gasho, Mount Shasta, Calif., was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a ballerina length blue satin gown and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Annette Coleman, North Bend, Ore., was bridesmaid for her cousin. Her dress was in pink tulle and she carried bronze chrysanthemums. They both wore flowers that matched their bouquets in their hair.

William Smith, Chico, Calif., was best man for his cousin, Wallace Smith, Chico, another cousin of the bridegroom, and Victor Oswald, uncle of the bridegroom, acted the guests.

For the ceremony the church was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums with white tapers on the altar. Mrs. Jerry Sherman played the traditional wedding organ music and Miss Beverly Nelson was soloist.

Following the wedding a reception was given by Dr. and Mrs. Lanham in the Pioneer room at the Jackson hotel. Mrs. Wallace J. Smith of Chico, Calif., cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Helena Long served the punch while Mrs. Milo Laherty and Mrs. Eldon Coleman poured the coffee. Mrs.

Victor Oswald was in charge of the guest book. For the reception the room was decorated with pink carnations and white chrysanthemums.

After a trip to Oregon Caves the newlyweds are at home at 723 West Thirtieth street, Medford. For her traveling attire the bride wore a charcoal suit with winter white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Reedsport High school and was a secretary to George R. Polski in Medford. The bridegroom attended Prospect High school and is employed by the Ross Lumber company.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Milo Laherty, Reedsport, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Nullet, North Bend, and aunts of the bride; Mrs. Dora McCoy, Roseburg; Mrs. Eldon Coleman, North Bend; and Mrs. Clara Pruit, Astoria, aunts of the bride; Dr. and Mrs. Wallace J. Smith, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom from Chico; Mrs. Long, the bridegroom's aunt, San Francisco; Mrs. N. H. Long, Chico, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hanline, Klamath Falls; Richard L. Gasho, and Mrs. Roy Gasho, Mount Shasta, Calif.

Miss Bailey Wed To James Speaks In Church Service

Miss Myra Carole Bailey became the bride of James McClain Speaks in a double-ring ceremony held December 6 at First Methodist church. The service was read by Dr. Raymond Balcomb at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bailey, 1120 West Ninth street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Fanny Ritchie, 401 East Twelfth street. Mrs. Dave McAnally attended the bride, and Don Marshall, Talent, was best man for the bridegroom. The bride, who wore a dark blue satin dress, was given in marriage by her father.

The newlyweds will live at 401 East Twelfth street. The bride is a graduate of Medford Senior high school and the bridegroom attended Gould High school. He is employed at the Kowloon restaurant.

Traditional Parties Planned By Extension Units This Week

Traditional Christmas parties will be held this week by several extension units, with members exchanging gifts.

A Christmas party is planned by Oak Grove Extension unit Tuesday, December 11 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Paul Larson, 3275 Hollywood ave. Mrs. Roy Elmgren is co-hostess. Each member is asked to take a home made gift of 50-cent value for exchange.

The committee serving luncheon will be Mrs. Ross Goodroad, Mrs. Martin Gates and Mrs. Jack Clark. Members are to take their own table service and those desiring child care call Mrs. S. B. Sandberg, phone 3-5617.

Rogue Elk Home Extension unit will hold the annual open meeting and Christmas party Wednesday, December 13, at the home of Mrs. Oscar Hansen, Elk Creek road.

The business meeting will start at 10:30 a.m. with a luncheon at noon served by Mrs. Hansen, Mrs. Howard Ash, and Mrs. Harry Casebeer.

Names were drawn at the November meeting for gift exchange and those who were absent for that meeting are asked to take a gift valued at $1.

Several new members will be introduced to the group.

Lone Pine unit has set the monthly meeting and Christmas party for Thursday, December 13, one week earlier than the scheduled meeting. It will be held at the home of Mrs. C. C. Hoover, 2095 Gregory road, at 10:30 a.m.

The December project will be the making of Della Robbia wreaths, with Mrs. Hoover as instructor. Members are to take a gift for the Christmas exchange.

Child care will be furnished at the home of Mrs. Harold Geigle, 1538 Springbrook road.

The annual Christmas party of the Medford unit will be in the Courthouse auditorium at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 12. Gift wrapping, corsage making, flower arrangements, place cards and table decorations will be demonstrated. The Christmas theme will predominate throughout the program, given by local leaders. All interested housewives are invited.

Luncheon is being planned; members who have not been asked to bring a meat casserole are to bring a hot vegetable dish or a salad. Coffee, rolls and butter will be furnished. Members are asked to bring table service for themselves and their guests. No charge is made for the luncheon, but members and visitors are expected to bring a gift, for exchange, not to exceed fifty cents in value.

Child care is provided. The Christmas meeting of Willow Springs Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Randall Kay, 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, December 11. The project, candle making, will be presented by Mrs. Everett Young and Mrs. Randall Kay. For the potluck luncheon members whose names start with A through K are asked to bring dessert; L through P bring relishes; R through T bring main dishes and U through Z bring salads.

Past Matrons club of Nevita chapter 38, OES, will meet Friday, December 14, at 1 p.m. for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ethel Freeman. Election of officers will be held and gifts will be exchanged.
