Post and Auxiliary Plan Yule Party; Order Sets Session

Crater Lake Post and auxiliary will hold a Christmas program Sunday, December 23 at 1 p.m.

Special guests for the party will be Girl Scout Troop 158, which is sponsored by the auxiliary. Children of members will also be treated by Santa Claus at the Christmas tree.

Members of the organization will also assist with the Christmas program at Camp White. At the meeting held December 4 at the VFW hall Mrs. Lera Bell was initiated into the auxiliary and the post initiated two members.

Mrs. J. D. Brommond, chairman of the annual essay contest, has provided high schools with material for the 1957 essay. Roguette Circle 4 Military order of Lady Bids, will hold a business meeting Tuesday, December 11, at 6 p.m. at the VFW hall. The meeting will start with a chili supper.

Traveler to Speak For UN Chapter; Drive Announced

Mrs. Joseph Crick, Grants Pass, will speak for a meeting of Medford chapter, Oregon United Nations association, to be held Thursday, December 13, at 8 p.m. at St. Mark's parish house. Election of officers will be held according to Lawrence Solin, chapter president.

Mrs. Crick will speak concerning United States Foreign policy and world leadership. Mrs. Crick and her husband have traveled extensively in recent years, and have been able to observe conditions abroad at first hand. Last summer they visited in Copenhagen, Germany, Austria, Switzerland and other European nations.

In Geneva they spent some time in the office of the European UN headquarters and lunched with the UN high commission for refugees. They interviewed many persons, including UN workers and officials and workers with the YMCA and YWCA throughout Europe.

Mrs. Crick is a former president of the Grants Pass Council of Church Women, has long worked with the American Friends Service committee and has been a civic leader in many fields.

Members of the chapter are asked to take bedding and clothing to the meeting for the Hungarian relief drive now underway throughout the nation.

Camp, Auxiliary Announce Session, Christmas Party

The annual Christmas party and meeting of Colonel Sargent camp and auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, will be held at Redman hall Sunday, December 16, at 1 p.m.

Mrs. James Cech, president, will preside at the business meeting. Plans will be made for installation of officers to be held the third Sunday in January.

There will be a gift exchange and tree followed by refreshments. Members are asked to telephone Mrs. Josephine Widner at 2-2225 concerning the arrangements for refreshments.

Pioneer Spirit Said Necessary To Bring Peace

"A pioneer spirit that will excel any pioneer spirit ever demonstrated to date is needed to meet the new frontier which faces the world today; this new frontier is world peace through the brotherhood of man," said Mrs. Wayne Stauffer in her keynote address to the workshop on world understanding held Wednesday, December 5, in the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Stauffer, Eugene, is the Oregon conference secretary of Christian social relations of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. She attended the original session in Kansas City, Mo., in the fall of 1955, when plans were made to itinerate an international team of Christian women throughout the United States for one year.

Mrs. Stauffer also said, "We in America have a large part in this venture toward world peace because we have wealth, leadership, freedom and a high standard of living of which we are justly proud. But if we would keep our standards, it is imperative that we share our goods with the world."

Mrs. C. R. Adamson, Medford, Eugene district secretary of the Wesleyan Service guild, explained to the delegates the purpose of having this workshop which had as its theme "Every citizen is responsible for world peace." She stressed the need for the understanding, by each individual, of needs and culture of the various races in the world today.

At the close of the workshop, which was attended by delegates from southwestern Oregon, plans were made for local workshops

Installation Set For Two Bodies

Ole Skoog, excellent high priest of Crater Lake chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and deputy master of Table Rock council, Royal and Select Masons, announces that the annual installation of officers in both bodies will be held Tuesday, December 11.

A covered dish dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. under the supervision of the Royal Arch Widows. A short business meeting of the council for the election of officers will be held at 7:30 p.m. and the installation will follow.

Gerald A. Cottingham is to be installed as high priest by Glenn Smith, grand orator of the grand council of Oregon, installing officer; M. E. BPWC to Hold Yuletide Party Thursday Night

A Christmas party will be held by the Medford Business and Professional Women's club at Roxy Anne Grange hall, corner of Spring and Valley View drive, Thursday, December 13 at 7:30 o'clock. Because the regular December meeting time fell on Thursday, December 20, too close to Christmas, the date was changed to the second Thursday, one week ahead of schedule.

Two committees, safety and health and arts and music, have combined their forces to furnish a program and refreshments which promise a party with both old and new Christmas flavor. A gift exchange between members, holiday games and Christmas carols are planned. The music and arts committee, headed by Mrs. Beulah Nathan, and assisted by Mrs. Iva Murray, Mrs. Betty Hamilton and Mrs. Muriel Burns, will provide a special treat. A program of songs by the boys' choral group from St. Mary's academy.

Mrs. Beulah Osborne and Miss Grace Stuhler, co-chairman of the safety and health committee, plan to highlight some of the hazards of the holiday season which in the past have often turned a joyous Christmas into tragedy. Their committee members are Miss Connie Payant and Miss Clara Moll.

A Christmas dessert will be served at 7:30 o'clock. Reservations should be given to the committees by Tuesday evening, December 11. Guests are welcome.

Window Treatment Is Program Topic

Mrs. William A. O'Mara spoke on "Window Treatment" at a meeting of Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. K. A. Hayes, 1201 Mt. Pitt avenue. Mrs. O'Mara displayed samples of the new materials and explained their uses. She gave many suggestions on how to curtain windows.
