

SEEK DOWNED CANADIAN PLANE—Newspaper spots Hope, British Columbia, last reported position of a four-engine Trans Canada Airlines plane with 59 passengers and a crew of three aboard. Bound from Vancouver for Montreal, the pilot of the tourist flight turned back at Princeton, B. C., with one engine out and facing snow and ice. Searchers are combing some 100 miles of rugged mountain country which surrounds the fertile Fraser River Valley between Hope and Vancouver.

Becks Purchase North Bend Bakery

Michael and Fred Beck, owners of Beck's Morning Fresh Bakery in Medford and Boise, Idaho, purchased Gamber Bakery in North Bend and will take over its operation Saturday, Dec. 15. The Beck's said the North Bend bakery, which employs 22, would be expanded in the near future and produce all Morning Fresh breads and bakery products produced here and distributed in nine counties in northern California and southern Oregon. Michael Beck has been in the bakery business since 1912, and in 1925 purchased the Peerless Bakery in Medford. His son, Fred, is co-owner of the bakery chain and manages local operations.

Three Students Die In Crash of Auto

Mequite, Nev. —UPI—Three Brigham Young university students were killed Wednesday and three others injured when their car rammied into the rear of a hay truck while they were en route home to Southern California for Christmas.

The dead were identified by Las Vegas Deputy Coroner H. H. Bishop as:

John Sperry, 20, Pomona, owner and driver of the car; Phillip Cluff, 19, Long Beach; and Robert Mayhem, 18. Larry Taylor, 19, Long Beach, was reported in serious condition with a possible broken back and internal injuries; Jack Reeves, 18, Long Beach, and Maurine Poehlein, 19, Seal Beach, suffered minor injuries.

Stolen Car Wrecked; Trusty Back in Jail

Klamath Falls —UPI—A 27-year-old trusty at the Klamath county jail who wanted to be home for Christmas, was awaiting return here today from Bend after he allegedly stole a car and fled north.

Police identified the man as Gary Lawrence McKercher. He was serving a six-months sentence for entering a motor vehicle with intent to steal.

After allegedly posing as a potential buyer at a Klamath Falls used car lot Tuesday, McKercher drove north on Highway 97 until the car was wrecked about 95 miles north of here. Sheriff Murray Britton said the man told state police officers who pulled him from the wrecked vehicle that he wanted to spend Christmas with his wife in Portland.

Puerto Rico Offers Haven for Refugees

San Juan, P. R. —UPI—Gov. Luis Munoz Marin has offered to open densely-populated Puerto Rico as a haven for Hungarian refugees.

In a letter to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles Wednesday the governor said, "We are one of the most overcrowded land areas in the world, but there are values all Puerto Ricans place above land or space or comforts. Among them are freedom and the love of it, and courage in the face of overwhelming odds."

Negro Singer Receives 'Hate' Letters from South

London —UPI—Singer Harry Belafonte said today he has received dozens of "hate" letters from the deep South because of a scene in the movie "Island in the Sun" in which he makes love to a white woman.

He said he turned the letters over to the FBI. One of them said "Nigger Commie, you have dove-stepped the mark. Your time has come."

Jonas Fontaine has the leading female role in the film, which is being completed in England.

11th Person Arrested For Fraudulent Sales

Portland —UPI—An 11th person was taken into custody yesterday in connection with indictments charging fraudulent sale of plywood co-operative stock. W. W. Lock, 71, Salem was the only person indicted that had not been taken into custody earlier. He surrendered to the U. S. marshal and posted $2,500 bond.
