The double ring ceremony was solemnized in the afternoon by the father of the bride. Following the service the couple were presented with a Bible engraved with the names from the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hale of Lovington, N. Mex.

Mrs. Frank Tucker, Yreka, Calif., was organist for the wedding and two duets were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Petrie and Mrs. George Panton and Mrs. Petrie.

The bride was given in marriage by Ural Donnelly. She wore a white ballerina length gown of net and lace and a finger tip length veil.
