

Newlyweds Living in California

Etna, Calif. — Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Lee Lanham, who were married November 10 in the IOOF hall, Fort Jones, Calif., are now making their home near Etna. The bride is the former Carol Grace White, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland G. Harkins, Etna, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan W. Lanham, Gold Hill, Ore.

The double-ring ceremony was read at eight o'clock in the evening by J. W. Lehmann, Rogge River, Ore., a cousin of the bridegroom and a minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, Gold Hill.

The bride wore a wedding gown of Chantilly lace and net over satin with full long skirt with train. She wore a three-strand necklace of pearls and her fingertip length veil was held in place by a crown of tiny pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and gardenias.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Alice Hanni, wore a blue ballerina length dress of lace and net, and the bridesmaid, Miss Joyce Marshall, wore a ballerina length dress of pink lace and net. Both carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by the father of the bridegroom and given in marriage by her foster father, Mrs. Dorothy Harrison was soloist and Mrs. Branson played the piano.

The bride's foster mother wore a black dress with rhinestone trim and the bridegroom's mother wore brown with avocado accessories. Both had corsages of gardenias.

Ray Lanham, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Miss Kathy Kilpatrick took charge of the guest book.

Two tall baskets of pink stocks and white chrysanthemums and an arch of greenery and white
