Woman 'Gets Even' For Telephone Calls

Portland — (UP) — A Portland woman who doesn't like telephone solicitors calling her, decided to do something about it.

For two days she retaliated by calling a downtown photographic studio that solicits a great deal of business by phone.

Finally driven to desperation, the studio called police. They traced the call.

When officers called at her home, the woman said "I just wanted those people to know how it feels to constantly get unwanted telephone calls."

She agreed to quit making the calls, though, saying she already felt better.
