Yugoslavia Contacted On Visit by Tito

Washington— (U.P.) —Administration officials said Friday some contacts have been made with the Yugoslav government about a visit by President Tito to the United States.

However, they said the invitation is still under "consideration and development" here.

President Eisenhower is expected to issue an invitation to Tito early next year if the plans develop.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said he knew nothing about reports from Belgrade that Tito already had been invited "in principle" to visit the United States.

News and Notes From Camp White

By A. W. RIBERDY

Camp White Domicilary has been the scene of festive activties for the past two weeks. Beginning Dec. 10 for three days decorations were made. A total of 375 wreaths, 90 table pieces for the main dining room, 100 feet of garlands and 50 swags were turned out.

Participating in this work were Mrs. L. C. McCay and Mrs. G. C. Stagg, Howard Garden club; Mrs. E. G. Taylor, Mrs. C. O. Long, Mrs. John Baldwin and Miss Bertha Hayman, Talent Garden club; Mrs. C. C. Hoover, Mrs. Chandler Drew and Mrs. Clark Ballard, Roxy Gardeners; Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Mrs. Addie Smets, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Krebs Jacksonville Garden club; and Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. R. D. Kay, Mrs. Mylo Land, Mrs. Walter Hickson and Mrs. E. E. Reames, Central Point Garden club. The greens, cones, and other items used in making the decorations were furnished by the Eagle Point, Shady Cove and Prospect Garden clubs.

Decorations Strung

After completion, the decorations were strung throughout the station by Mrs. A. O. Floyd, Mrs. Ida D. Fitzgerald and Mrs. E. L. Crain. Members of the Camp White Garden club assisted in both the making and hanging decorations.

Eighty-five spruce trees were cut near Prospect and trucked to the camp by the engineering department. These have been placed in conspicuous locations throughout the Domiciliary and decorated by ladies of volunteer organizations.

Several days were required by volunteers, directed by Mrs. Thelma Williams, and assisted by Mrs. Ruth Freed, to gift-wrap and address gift packages to each veteran of the domiciliary. Each package contained several cartons of cigarettes and canteen script books, all of which were donated by various Veteran and volunteer organizations.

Acknowledgment with thanks to the Astoria Garden club for the generous check contributed to the Camp White Garden club.

Gift Shop Open

On Dec. 14 a "Gift Shop" was opened on the station for those veterans with no income. These were permitted to select as many "give-away" gifts as they chose for mailing to friends and relatives. After selection, the gifts were wrapped, addressed and stamped ready for mailing at no cost to the veteran. The shop was sponsored by the Veteran and volunteer organizations.

At 8:15 p.m. Dec. 14 the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary 4944 of Dorris, Calif., presented a variety show in the camp theatre. The organization has been making this pilgrimage during the Christmas season for the past several years.

Several dances have been given for members, with dancing partners made available by the sponsoring organizations.

Assigned Areas

At 6:30 p.m. Dec. 19 the ladies of the following organizations met in the camp theatre for a final round-up and assignment of areas for the distribution of Christmas gifts, to present the gifts and visit each individual veteran in his living quarters: Blue Star Mothers, Grants Pass; World War I auxiliaries of Medford and Grants Pass; United Spanish War Veterans auxiliary; Navy Mothers of Medford and Central Point; American Red Cross; the American Legion auxiliaries of Ashland, Grants Pass, Central Point, Cave Junction and the department of Oregon; Veterans of Foreign Wars, department of Oregan; Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, department of Oregon; Disabled American Veterans of Medford and Klamath Falls, and auxiliaries of Grants Pass and the department of Oregon; Military Order of Lady Bugs of Medford; Military Order of Cooties; National Order of Trench Rats; American Gold Star Mothers, and the BPOE Elks of Medford and Ashland.

Members of the organizations formed into groups some of which were accompained by a Santa, and proceeded to assigned areas for the gift distribution. Prior to and during distribution, Caesar Muzzioli and a group of about 40 accordionists, toured corridors and dormitories playing Christmas carols.

Several groups of children have been present each day for the past several days walking through corridors singing Christmas carols.

Groups Listed

Last Sunday and Monday, the Methodist youth choir of Medford, and the Eagle Point grammar school choir, each comprised of approximately 50 children of various ages, visited the Domiciliary. On Wednesday evening another group from the Seventh Day Adventists came from Medford, and on Thursday the Cub Scouts of Central Point. Scheduled for Saturday and Sunday respectively are the Apostolic Faith Carol Group and the Lutheran church choir of Medford.

Survey of Retail Stores In Three Counties Planned

Corvallis — Retail grocery stores in three Oregon counties are being surveyed this winter to aid the marketing of Oregon's $84 million fruit and vegetable crop.

Oregon State college home economists are cooperating with workers from the 11 western states in the three-year study.

A sampling of stores representative of rural, urban, coast and mountain communities will be taken in Lane, Multnomah and Umatilla counties where about half the food sales in Oregon are made each year.

About 400 grocers will be interviewed to obtain information about the type of shopping area in which stores are located, kinds of goods carried, location and sources of fresh fruits and vegetables, store management practices and special services offered customers. Results of the survey will be tabulated into a market report.

Later Study

In a later study, consumers will be interviewed to learn their reasons for buying selected fresh, frozen and processed fruits and vegetables. Data will be collected on family characteristics, food preparation and preservation equipment in homes, and ways foods are prepared for the table.

According to home economists, family size, income, home storage facilities, amount of waste that occurs in food preparation and quality of the prepared produce are factors which influence consumer choices. They indicated availability and price information on fresh and processed fruits and vegetables should benefit producers, shippers, retailers and consumers.

The regional study, supported by state and federal funds, is the first extensive survey to be made in Oregon involving consumer wants and retailers needs, according to Andrea Mackey, OSC home economist who is heading the project. Research assistants Joy Stockman and Ida Cecil are conducting the tri-county survey.

Washington— (U.P.) —The cost of living climbed to a new record high last month, bringing pay hikes of one to three cents an hour for almost 900,000 workers.
