Bathers Injured When Hand Grenade Explodes

Algiers, Algeria — (U.P.) — A Nationalist rebel threw a hand grenade across the tiled dressing room of a Turkish bath in Oran Friday night, police said Saturday. The explosion injured seven bathers.

Attendants captured the extremist when he attempted to run.

French forces killed at least 65 Algerian rebels in a quick series of attacks Friday. The rebels took their worst beating in the Tablat region southeast of Algiers, where French forces killed 27 Moslem nationalists.
