Catholic Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Marylyn Jean Paup became the bride of Richard Keith Morehead in a ceremony held Saturday, December 15, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John Hig officiated at the double ring rites attended by immediate families of the couple.

Miss Paup is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Paup, 721 South Holly street. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morehead, Lebanon, Ore.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white embroidered satin ballerina length dress styled on princess lines. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried white carnations and a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Judy Paup attended her sister. She wore a blue velvet princess style dress with short sleeves and matching pumps and hat. The hat was trimmed with white wheat pearls and she carried blue pompon chrysanthemums with blue ribbon streamers.

Richard Paup, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Wedding music was played by Bruno Pelligrini.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Paup wore a rose shooting suit with black accessories. Mrs. Morehead chose a dress of red silk and cotton with white accessories. Both wore white chrysanthemum corsages.

Following the ceremony a dinner was held at the Dardanelle by the parents of the newlywed couple. After a wedding trip to Portland the couple will make their home in Norfolk, Va., where the bridegroom is serving aboard the USS F. D. Roosevelt as an aviation storekeeper second class in the United States Navy.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's High school and Providence College of Nursing. She was a registered nurse on the staff at Sacred Heart hospital. The bridegroom was graduated from High school in Lebanon.

Festivities To Welcome The New Year

The New Year will be welcomed in traditional fashion in the Rogue Valley with gala parties in homes and clubs. Some will be given Monday evening, and others Tuesday, New Year's day.

For many years Colony club members have observed New Year's day with a party, and the traditional event will be held Tuesday at the club house. About 100 members and guests are expected; cocktails and supper will be served.

Mrs. George Roberts is chairman in charge, with Mrs. Frank Preston assisting. Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter is president of the club.

One of the largest parties will be at Rogue Valley Country club where the annual New Year's eve formal dance is planned for Monday night. Hours are from 9 until two o'clock.

The committee on arrangements is Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Stram and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Koblik.

Another large party on New Year's eve will be the annual Elk's lodge dance to be held at the temple. Favors and noisemakers will provide a festive air for the party, and an hour's program will feature two professional entertainers from Hollywood. They will be Don Marlowe, comedian, and Doris Powers, singer and night club star.

Bill Crocker Here For Holiday Visit

Bill Crocker has arrived in Medford after being discharged from the United States Army. His most recent assignment was with the atomic small arms department at Killen base, Killen, Tex.

Mr. Crocker, who is spending the holidays with his cousin, Mrs. Lorraine Babcock, Coker Butte road, will leave January 2 to enroll at Oregon State college.

Football Fans To Attend Game

Medford residents planning to see the Rose parade and football game New Year's day in Pasadena, include Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Hibbs, 190 White Oak drive, who will leave today for California and remain in Pasadena after the New Year for a short vacation.

Traveling together by train to the game are Mr. and Mrs. William Leever, 2069 Springbrook road, Mr. Leever's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leever, Phoenix, Ariz., who have been houseguests here, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Whalin, 128 Valley View road.

The Earl Leever's will continue on to their home in Arizona after the game while the other couples will vacation in San Francisco before returning to Medford.

Also attending the parade and game will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jewett, 921 Winchester avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chipman, Highland drive. Mr. Jewett is sports editor for The Medford Mail Tribune and Mr. Chipman, sports enthusiast, is wire editor for the paper.

Daughter Casey

Mrs. Gerald Casey and her three children, Kathleen, Kevin and Monica, recently came to Medford from Managua, Nicaragua, to spend the winter months with Mrs. Casey's mother, Mrs. C. Reese Braley, and Mr. Braley, 245 Valley View drive.

Also entertaining at a holiday open house today are Mr. and Mrs. J. Bolton. The Boltons have invited friends to their home, 527 Spencer avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore M. Garhart will be hosts today for an informal New Year party at their home, 1017 Reddy avenue. The event will provide an opportunity for the guests to meet Mrs. Garhart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Meloth, Los Angeles. The Meloths are en route to Europe where they plan to spend the next two years traveling.

Guests will be received between three and six o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. John L. Welch have planned a small holiday open house party at their home, 2618 Jackson drive. It will be held Tuesday, New Year's day, in Medford for the party are Dr. Welch's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Welch, Los Gatos, Calif. They will return south later this week.

Many parties are planned to precede traditional New Year's eve dances. One of these is to be given by Mr. and Mrs. James S. Cummins at their home, 2671 Hillcrest road. Cocktails will be served from 6:30 to 8:30 o'clock and many of the guests will continue on to the dance at Rogue Valley Country club later.

A no host party will be given New Year's eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith, 102 Black Oak drive. Attending will be about 12 couples who traditionally spend New Year's eve together.

Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cotton and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lombard of Ashland held open house for friends. The party was held at the Cotton home on Prospect avenue.

Walker-McKinstry Ceremony Held at St. Mark's Church

One of the holiday season's largest weddings was that of Miss Nancy Lee McKinstry to Robert V. Walker on Sunday, December 23. The double ring marriage ceremony was read at St. Mark's Episcopal church at four o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward N. McKinstry, 744 Dakota avenue and the bridegroom is a son of Veri G. Walker, 2642 Merriman road.

Red poinsettias decorated the church altar and baskets of white chrysanthemums combined with the poinsettias provided a setting for the bridal party.

Ernest Conrad played Gounod's "Marche Pontificale" for both the processional and recessional.

The bride's wedding gown of white satin in empire style was made by her mother and the bodice was trimmed with a design of pearls, the hand work of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Donna McKinstry, Grants Pass. The veil was borrowed from Mrs. Edward Gillooly, nee Patricia Hanson. She carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.

Miss Jane Phillips, Seattle, Wash., was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Isobel Carr and Miss Marcia Houghton. All three wore street-length frocks of red velvet fashioned princess style with full skirts and carried white fur muffs adorned with sprigs of holly.

Mr. McKinstry escorted his daughter to the church altar and gave her in marriage. Robert L. Cassebeer, Riddle, was best man for Mr. Walker and ushers were Ben Trowbridge Jr., and Richard Danielson, the latter a fraternity brother of the bridegroom from Junction City, Ore.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McKinstry wore a frock of champagne beige color faille with hat and purse of fuchsia velvet. Her corsage was a brown orchid. Mrs. Veri Walker wore a dark silk frock fashioned with panels of paisley print in multiple colors alternating with panels of blue and black. Her hat and gloves were white and her corsage was a lavender orchid.

The reception, held in the parish hall, was attended by about 175 guests. Cutting the wedding cake were Mrs. Ray Alder and Miss Selly Harris. Pouring were Mrs. George R. V. Bolster, Mrs. Shelby M. Tuttle, Mrs. Fred Carr and Mrs. Robert L. Cassebeer, Riddle, Ore. Miss Judy Alder took charge of the guest book and Miss Carolyn Carr passed small bags of rice. Mrs. Alder had made and decorated the cake.

Mr. Walker and his bride will live at 1344 Alder street, Apt. 1, Eugene. The bride will teach fourth grade for the Eugene school district and Mr. Walker is a student at the University of Oregon. A major in accounting, he attended Yale university and

Keeble Family To Leave Soon

Mr. and Mrs. James Keeble and two children, Hart and Carlotta, will leave January 4 after spending the holidays here with Mrs. Keeble's mother, Mrs. Floyd Hart, Grant road.

Hart Keeble will return to Harvard School at North Hollywood, Calif., and Miss Keeble to her classes at Katherine Branson school, Ross, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Keeble plan to spend the next several weeks on their Keitch, The Facesetter, and will cruise down the California and lower California coast.

Home Ceremony Weds Pair; Honeymoon Spent in Mexico

Dr. and Mrs. Johan Vilhelm Aubert, who were married in Medford earlier this month, are traveling in Mexico for their honeymoon. After the middle of January the couple will be at home in Palo Alto, Calif.

The bride is the former Miss Calista Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farrell, Siskiyou court, and Dr. Aubert is a son of Mrs. Karl Fearnley Aubert, Oslo, Norway, and the late Mr. Aubert.

The marriage ceremony took place at the Farrell home at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, December 15. The Rev. Elvin Tollefson of Ascension Lutheran church officiated, and Mr. Farrell gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer played the wedding music.

For the ceremony the bride wore a gown of sand colored satin fashioned with low cut bodice banded in a darker shade and a bouffant skirt. Her satin headband with brief veil and her slippers matched the gown. She carried a nosegay of violets with a talisman rose in the center.

Mrs. Alvin Zelter of Menlo Park, Calif., attended her sister as matron-of-honor. She wore a pink colored frock with full skirt of satin and matching wool bodice fashioned with low cut neckline and bracelet length sleeves. Her headress and slippers matched the frock and her flowers were a nosegay of golden colored pompon chrysanthemums centered with violets.

The bride's mother wore a gown of pink colored faille and brown orchid corsage.

Alvin Zelter served as best man for the bridegroom.

About 100 guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed. Miss Phyllis Tengwald cut the wedding cake.

Pouring and assisting were Miss Beatrice Challis, San Francisco; Miss Joan Elliott, Portland, and Mrs. Barney Orvitz, San Francisco.

The cake table, covered with antique lace, stood in an alcove window. The cake was encircled with gardenias. The buffet table was decorated in pink and white with a full-skirted cloth caught up in cascades with mauve pink roses. It was centered with an epergne arrangement of pink delight roses and white stephanotis.

The living room mantel held a stylized arrangement of white carnations and white stephanotis in two white chalice-shaped compotes.

For the wedding trip south the bride wore a princess type brown tweed dress with ivory colored Borgana coat.

The bride was graduated from the University of Oregon and later did advanced study at Stanford university. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Dr. Aubert holds a research fellowship at the Center for Advanced Study in Behavioral Sciences, Stanford, Calif. He is an associate professor of sociology of law at the University of Oslo in Norway. Dr. Aubert received his doctorate from the University of Oslo in 1954 and was granted membership in the Norwegian Academy of Science in 1955.
