Russia Signs Treaty Protecting Treasures
Paris — (U.P.) — Russia added its name Saturday to the list of United Nations countries bound by a treaty providing for protection of cultural treasures in time of war.

The accord, already ratified by eight countries, was adopted at the Hague in May, 1954. It binds contracting nations to safeguard artistic and cultural treasures located on their own soil or in other signing nations. It especially bars signatories from making off with treasures of occupied countries.

Truck Driver Killed In Portland Crash

Portland — (U.P.) — Charles W. Warner, 46-year-old truck driver, was fatally injured late Friday when his heavy truck crashed into a utility pole and he was pinned in the cab of his truck at the intersection of NE 82nd Ave. and Tillamook st.

Warner was pronounced dead on arrival at Providence hospital. It was Portland's first traffic fatality for 1957.

Witnesses said a pedestrian had pushed a signal to get a green light to cross the street. Warner apparently was unable to stop in time. When he slammed on his brakes, a tractor on the back of his truck smashed forward against the cab.

Warner was employed by the Mitchell Brothers Truck Lines.

Bend Resident Dies Of Crash Injuries

Portland — (U.P.) — Hubert W. Pickens, 67-year-old Bend resident, died in a Portland hospital Saturday as a result of an auto accident Thursday on Highway 26, three miles east of Government Camp.

Pickens suffered severe head injuries, exposure and shock when the car in which he was riding struck ice, skidded over an embankment and overturned in a shallow stream.

Both men nearly drowned before Dean A. Norton Sr., Bend, driver of the car, escaped and summoned help.

Marines Rushed to Indonesia Territory

Jakarta, Indonesia — (U.P.) — The worried Indonesia government rushed five plane loads of Marines to North Sumatra Saturday in an effort to recapture control of the territory from Army rebels.

A seven-day ultimatum to surrender or face charges of desertion, issued to Rebel Col. Maludin Simbolon and his followers, ticked off at midnight. The heavily-armed Marines were immediately rushed to Belawan, harbor of the North Sumatra provincial capital of Medan.

Median Radio said Simbolon refused to obey the summons unless it was issued directly by President Sukarno.

South Vietnamese Ship Sinks; 16 Dead
Saigon, Vietnam — (U.P.) — A refitted South Vietnamese transport ship sank on its maiden voyage with the apparent loss of 16 lives, it was reported Saturday.

The 50-ton Vo Van II, a former customs ship reconitioned as a coastal freighter, was making its first voyage along Vietnam's eastern coast when it ran into a sudden storm.

Giant waves pounded the small vessel off Phan Thiet lighthouse about 120 miles northeast of Saigon and the ship went down.

470,000 Mexicans May Work in U. S. This Year
Mexico City — (U.P.) — The office of migrant workers said Saturday between 460,000 and 470,000 Mexican "Braceros" will work on United States farms this year.

The 1956 total was 432,618, according to the latest figures of the migrant workers office, a bureau of the interior ministry.

The office did not say what was the basis for their increased estimate for 1957, but indicated that cotton farmers and others needing "Braceros" in the southwestern United States will probably increase land under cultivation.

Complaint Filed Against Italian Candy Company
Milan, Italy — (U.P.) — Lawyers for former Egyptian King Farouk filed a complaint here Saturday charging that a candy firm in nearby Melzo launched a new candy under the label "Farouk."

The lawyers asked for damages, to be fixed by the local tribunal, and for the immediate withdrawal of the candies on sale under that label.

Skelton Expresses Thanks for Sympathy

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Heart-broken Red Skelton Saturday thanked hundreds of people who offered sympathy and prayers for the comedian's leukemia-stricken son, Richard, 9.

The saddened comic was in seclusion at his home where he and his wife, Georgia, awaited Richard's release from UCLA Medical center. His thanks was expressed through his agent.

"Red is beside himself and so broken up he can't talk," agent Milton Weiss said.

Doctors at the center gave young Skelton less than a year to live after tests made in the last few days disclosed that he was suffering from a fatal type of leukemia.

Faced with the verdict, Weiss said the comedian still refused to give up hope for the eventual recovery of his son. He quoted Skelton as saying, "I'll never give up hope."
