

Bradshaw-Bohnert Ceremony Held

First Christian church here was the scene of the holiday season wedding of Miss Jonnie Doreen Bohnert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bohnert, Route 1, Central Point, to Donald Keith Bradshaw, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bradshaw, Shedd, Ore. The marriage ceremony took place Thursday, December 27, at eight o'clock in the evening with the Rev. Mr. Jean M. Shelley of Central Point Church of Christ officiating for the double-ring rites. About 200 guests witnessed the exchange of wedding vows.

The church sanctuary was decorated with baskets of holly and white chrysanthemums, the color theme of the wedding being green and white. Preceding the rites Miss Mary Keasi, Portland, Azalea house sister of the bride from Oregon State college, sang "Whither Thou Goest" and other numbers. Mrs. Henry Huenergardt was accompanist, and played the wedding marches and prelude music.

The bride's gown was a Cahilla original of white crystal taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, low waistline and billowing skirt ending in a brush train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held by a satin pillbox hat trimmed with lace, sequins and seed pearls and made by the bride. She carried a shower bouquet of garnet roses on a white Bible. The bouquet was caught by Miss Linda Mallory during the reception.

Mrs. James F. Rice, the former Marilyn Bohnert, came from Triangle, Va., to be her sister's honor attendant. She wore a gown of deep emerald green peau de soie, similar in style to the bride's gown but ballerina length. Her pillbox hat matched the gown and she carried a muff of silver lame ornamented with a garland of red chrysanthemums and sprigs of holly.

Mr. Bohnert gave his daughter in marriage, and Robin McKinley, Gervais, Ore., was best man for the bridegroom. Gary Bradshaw, Shedd, brother of the bridegroom, Robert Fisher, Medford, David Woolfolk, Eagle Point, and Lt. James F. Rice, USMC, brother-in-law of the bride, served as ushers.

The reception was held in the church parlors, and decorations of evergreens, mistletoe and holly were in the Christmas spirit. One arrangement, prepared by the bride herself, included a red and silver replica of an old-fashioned street lamp, a souvenir table decoration from an awards breakfast at the 4H club congress in Chicago which the bride attended. Under the lamp stood the figurines of the carolers made for the occasion by Miss Hildred Daly, Portland, Azalea house sister of the bride.

The bride's cake was made and decorated by Mrs. C. W. Anhorn, Central Point, who also arranged the bride's table. The newlyweds cut the first slice of wedding cake using a knife in the bride's silver pattern which was a gift from members of the Azalea house to the bride, the retiring president. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Arnold Bohnert and Mrs. Harry

Among the many couples who held open house last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore M. Garhart, 1017 Reddy avenue. Here the hosts and Mrs. Garhart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Meloth, Los Angeles, prepare to sample the punch in preparation for the arrival of the first guests. The Meloths left last week for the east coast from where they will go to Europe for an extended stay.

Luncheon Planned By Society Guild

Philharmonic Society guild will hold a luncheon meeting Thursday, January 10, at 12:30 p.m. in the upstairs dining room of the Rogue Valley Country club. Election of officers will be held.

The guild will formulate plans for a music appreciation hour to be held previous to the day of a concert on Sunday, January 27, in Medford High school auditorium.

Mrs. Tom Popham, guild president, said plans also are underway for the tryouts for a feminine soloist to appear with the orchestra in the spring concert.
