Armstrong-Booth Ceremony Held at Foursquare Church

White poinsettias, red roses and white candles decorated Medford Foursquare church Friday, December 21, for the 8 o'clock evening wedding of Miss Patsy Ann Booth and James Dean Armstrong. The Rev. R. H. Mathewson officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 200 friends and relatives.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don G. Booth, 910 Grant avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Armstrong, Glennway, Central Point.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace and tulle floor length dress made by her mother. It was fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves and full skirt. Her veil was held by a headband of flowers cut from lace and also made by her mother. She wore two strands of pearls and for something borrowed, her mother's diamond earrings. She carried a white orchid encircled by white carnations on a white Bible.

Miss Pauline Booth was maid of honor for her sister and Miss Naomi Burham was bridesmaid. Carol Booth, another sister of the bride, and Doris Felkner were candlelighters. All wore ballerina length dresses of red taffeta styled with fitted bodice and trimmed with seed pearls. The maid of honor and bridesmaid carried heart shaped bouquets of white carnations tied with red ribbon.

Flowergirl was three-year-old Billie Sue Felkner, who was dressed as a miniature bride. Ring bearer was Perry Rasmussen.

Donald Hayes, cousin of the bride, served as best man. Perry and Rolly Armstrong, brothers of the bridegroom, seated the guests. Miss Lana Felkner played the

Parties Precede Holiday Wedding; Parents Entertain

Central Point—A number of parties preceded the wedding of Miss Doreen Bohnert and Donald Bradshaw, held December 27 at First Christian church.

Mrs. L. C. Lisenbee was hostess for a dessert luncheon and shower December 18. During the afternoon, the guests wrote favorite recipes for the recipe file of the bride.

Guests, all relatives of Miss Bohnert, included Mrs. P. A. Tracy, her grandmother, Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, Mrs. Otto Bohnert, Mrs. Mel Williams, Mrs. Fred Coffman, Mrs. Harry Dunn, Mrs. Roger vonder Hellen, Mrs. Edward Inman, Mrs. Donald Bohnert, Mrs. Richard Krupp, Mrs. Dexter Benston, Mrs. Robert Dunn, Mrs. Richard Dunn, Mrs. Ronald vonder Hellen and Mrs. John Bohnert, mother of the guest of honor.

Mrs. Robert Fisher and Miss Linda Mallory were hostesses for a surprise shower honoring Miss Bohnert. It was given at the Fisher home on Biddle road December 20. Miss Bohnert arrived at the Fishers expecting to help her bridesmaids make the hats they were to wear for her wedding, but found the house looking festive with Christmas decorations and filled with guests.

Among those invited were Mrs. Edyth Jones, Mrs. Wilfred Davies, Mrs. Ed Meyers, Mrs. E. A. Mallory, Mrs. Wallace Ragsdale, Mrs. Ray Ragsdale, Mrs. Earle Jossy, Mrs. Chan Stokes, Mrs. Stanford Dew and Mrs. John Bohnert.

Also the Misses Joanne and Carol vonder Hellen, Sharon and Marlena Coffman, Beverly Beck, Lucyle and Diana Gardner, Marjo and Nyla Murray, Karen Jossy, Jo Anna Mallory and Judy Bradshaw.

As Miss Bohnert opened her gifts, her comments were written down, unobtrusively, by Mrs. Stokes. Later these were read to the group and then presented to the bride-elect for her memory book.

Refreshments were served.

Following the wedding rehearsal, a buffet supper was held at the home of the bride's parents for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Assisting with the supper were Mrs. Jossy, Mrs. Mallory, Mrs. Wallace Ragsdale, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Lisenbee.

In New Zealand Dr. and Mrs. Durno will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Brian Stringer of Christchurch.

Students Wedded in Home Rites

Miss Ruth Ann Pedersen became the bride of William Mathewson Vandever in a ceremony held on the afternoon of December 28 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Pedersen Jr., 78 Perrydale avenue, Medford. The Rev. John O. Reynolds of First Presbyterian church officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a pale yellow ballerina length dress of frosted organdie and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds. The bridesmaid, Miss Bonnie Graves, Medford, wore a bouffant maroon gown.

Bill Pedersen, brother of the bride, arrived Sunday from St. Paul, Minn., to serve as best man. Another brother, Jim, was home from Oregon State college. Guests included the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pedersen of Medford.

A reception was followed by dinner at the Medford hotel. The bride is a senior in the College of Pharmacy at the University of Washington and a member of Rho Chi, pharmaceutical honorary society. She is a 1953 graduate of Medford High school.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Florence M. Vandever, Coatesville, Penn., and Charles R. Vandever Sr. of West Chester, Penn. He is also a student at the University of Washington and is working towards a degree in the speech department.

The couple will resume their studies after a honeymoon trip to British Columbia. They will live a short distance from the campus at 4548 1/2 Eighth street, North East, Seattle.

Students Plan Rites in Spring

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jamieson of Medford announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Jamieson to Ted Tenney, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Tenney, 633 Iowa street, Ashland. The wedding is planned for March.

Miss Jamieson was graduated from Medford Senior High school in 1956 and is now attending Southern Oregon college. Mr. Tenney, a graduate of Ashland High school, is a junior at the college. Miss Jamieson is a member of the college rally squad. Her fiancé plays football and basketball for SOC and is a member of the student council.

Travelers Return From Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prentice have returned to Medford after spending the past few weeks in Mexico City. The couple traveled by bus, arriving at Mexico City before Christmas at the time of the Guadalupe festival.

The Prentices attended performances at the theater and of Mexican opera, and were pleased to be present for the first full-scale accordion concert ever given in that city. Mrs. Prentice taught accordion here for many years. They also attended bull fights and other entertainment events.

Later the travelers were in Guadalajara, Mazatlan, Acapulco, Vera Cruz and other Mexican resorts.

While in Mexico City they were guests in the home of Capt. R. Vargas, a personal aide to the president of Mexico and also a narcotics agent for the government.

Medford's Finest Jewelers and Silversmiths

Don't Be Shy About
"Just Looking"

Your jeweler knows you don't buy sterling every day, so don't hesitate to come in and just "look" ...

Unlike the "fly-by-night" type of retailer who sells everything from TV sets to tubeless tires, sterling flatware is an important part of our business.

Here at Brophy's we have a large selection of the finest patterns, bearing the names of America's foremost silversmiths. Among them, you'll find one that you feel was created especially for you.

One of the newest patterns is SILVER MELODY in International Sterling. We'll show you pieces for both sides of the plate, so you can see the graceful "balanced place setting." We think you'll agree with us that it's an inspired idea in sterling design.
