

Eagle Point Church Scene Of Two Holiday Weddings

Eagle Point — Miss Hallie Bell Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gray, Eagle Point, became the bride of Carl Elmer Christian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Christian, Eagle Point, in a ceremony held Saturday, December 22, at the Eagle Point Community Bible church. The Rev. Joseph Munshaw officiated at the double ring evening ceremony, held at 8 o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white broad dress fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves. Her short veil fell from a headdress trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Edna Faye Gray, sister of the bride, was honor attendant. She wore a dress of blue net over taffeta with white lace bolero and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Bridesmatron was Mrs. Robert Stewart who wore a dress of yellow net over taffeta with lace bolero and carried white carnations. Candelighters were Miss Barbara Hopper and Jimmy Winton. Linda Thompson served as flower girl and Leslie Geren was ring bearer.

Wayne Christian served as best man for his brother and Errol Tresham and Dennis Boren seated the guests.

Greenery, white candles and white satin bows on the pew ends decorated the church. Mrs. Joseph Munshaw played the traditional organ wedding music and sang the wedding prayer.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Winton at the church. It was attended by 75 friends and relatives of the newlywed couple. Mrs. Stewart Hopper cut and served the cake assisted by Miss Carla Ragsdale. Mrs. Gene Hugo presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Frances Clave served the coffee assisted by Miss Suedene Christian. Miss Kay Dunford was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gray chose a lavender dress with matching shoes and white accessories. Mrs. Christian wore a grey suit with matching accessories. They both wore white carnation corsages.

Out of town guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. James Fortner, aunt and uncle of the bride, from Florida.

For her traveling attire the bride chose a tan wool dress with brown accessories. After a three day wedding trip to Grants Pass, Calif. with Mr. and Mrs. William Henson, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom, who were married December 21, Mr. Christian and Mr. Henson are privates in the United States Army and reported to duty at Fort Ord before being transferred to Germany for 18 months of duty.

Miss Gray is a graduate of Eagle Point High school and is employed by Columbia Utilities company as a telephone operator. Mr. Christian attended Eagle Point High school.

Eagle Point — Eagle Point Community Bible church was the setting Friday, December 21, for the 7 o'clock evening wedding of Miss Carlene Christian to William Henson. The Rev. Joseph Munshaw officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 40 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Christian, 133 East Main street, Eagle Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Henry E. Bohl, Hollywood orchard, Medford, and James Henson, White City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue sheath dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of baby pink brides.

Miss Sandra Caldwell attended the bride. She wore a beige sheath dress with blue accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Carl E. Christian, brother of the bride, served as best man and Wayne Christian, another brother of the bride and Larry Bohl, stepbrother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Carl E. Christian, home from the United States Army for the holidays, was married the following evening at the same church to Miss Hallie Bell Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gray of Eagle Point.

Mrs. Joseph Munshaw played the traditional organ wedding music. Holly, pine boughs, and white candles with white satin bows on the pew ends decorated the church.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. James Henson, step-mother of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Carl Behler served the punch. Miss Suedene Christian, sister of the bride, served the coffee.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Christian chose a green and gold dress with black accessories and green Christmas corsage. Mrs. Bohl wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories and pink Christmas corsage.

Following the ceremony the newlywed couple left on a wedding trip to Grants Pass. They returned to Medford and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Christian, the brother and sister-in-law of the bride, who were married December 22, to Fort Ord, Calif., where the two men, members of the United States Army, reported to duty.

The bride is a senior at Eagle Point High school. Mr. Henson attended Central Point and Eagle Point schools and is a private in the United States Army. He is scheduled to be transferred to Germany next month.

Chapter AA

Chapter AA, PEG sisterhood, will hold the first meeting of the new year Wednesday, January 9 at the home of Mrs. O. T. Heyerman, 123 Winema Way. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. R. J. Cunningham and Mrs. Myers Jones.

Mrs. Elizabeth McKay will read "From the Record." Mrs. Fred Lorish will give a talk on "Flower Arrangement."

Mrs. Julia Myers celebrated her 96th birthday anniversary December 31 by receiving relatives and friends, enjoying birthday cake and ice cream and looking at a large assortment of cards which she received. The elderly woman has lived in Jackson county 62 years, having come here in 1894 with her husband, the late Sidney Myers. The family lived in Rogue River for many years, but recently Mrs. Myers has made her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Myers, Table Rock road.

Long-Time Resident Observes Ninety-Sixth Birthday Monday

Sams Valley — Relatives and friends honored Mrs. Julia Myers Monday, December 31, on the 96th anniversary of her birth. Mrs. Myers, who has lived in Jackson county since 1894, now makes her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Myers, Table Rock road, Sams Valley.

Born in Beloit, Wis., Mrs. Myers later went to Stanley, Kan., with her family. She was married to Sidney Myers, and the couple came to Oregon in 1894 to live on a farm on Evans creek near Rogue River. Later the Myers built a home in Rogue River when only a few families lived in that town, and lived there for many years.

After her husband's death in 1926, Mrs. Myers lived alone in Rogue River and Monday praised her "wonderful neighbors" for their many kindnesses to her throughout the years.

An expert with knitting needles, Mrs. Myers made more than 50 sweaters during World War II and was cited for this by the Red Cross chapter of the county. She still spends much

45th Wedding Anniversary Observed by Phoenix Couple

Phoenix — More than 100 guests attended an open house Sunday, December 30, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cobleigh on their 45th wedding anniversary. The event was held at the Cobleigh's home in Phoenix.

The table was decorated for the reception with pink and white snapdragons and white tapers. Mrs. Cobleigh wore a navy blue afternoon dress and a white orchid corsage.

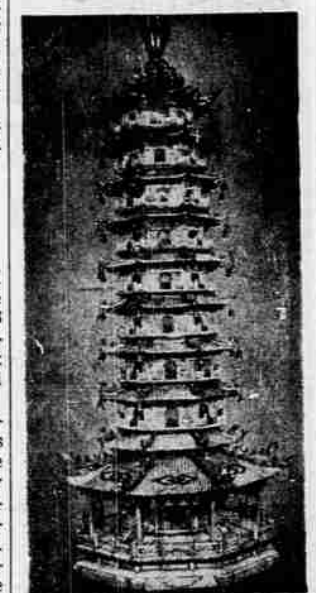

Mrs. Cobleigh is a native Oregonian and Mr. Cobleigh came to Oregon from Michigan as a boy. They were married in Medford on December 27, 1911 and have lived in or near Phoenix since that time.

Their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Coggins, and Miss Carol Gosard, bride-elect of their son Dale, were hostesses for the affair. Mrs. Harlan Glasscock, Mrs. Carmine Gigliotti, Mrs. Henry Dooks and Mrs. Etta Smith served refreshments and Mrs. Myrtle Coggins was in charge of the guest book.

Another daughter, Mrs. George Wehmann, Idaho Falls, Ida., was unable to attend but telephoned her best wishes during the party.

This jade Chinese pagoda, valued at $75,000, will be unveiled today at a special ceremony opening the University of Oregon's 1957 Festival of Arts. The nine foot pagoda is the largest and costliest of the Chinese Imperial pagodas in existence and will be shown for the first time at Sunday's unveiling. Made in 1706, the carving was meant as a votive offering to gain admittance to Buddhist heaven for Emperor Kang Hai's newly born grandson. The university's Festival of Arts, which continues through March 25, is built around an "East meets West" theme and features several oriental art exhibits.

Medford Toastmistress club will meet Tuesday, January 8, at 7:45 p.m. at Station KBOY. Mrs. Wallace Haskins will speak of her travels in Europe and will also show pictures.
