ONE WAY TO PLUCK THE PELICANS—When the Medford high Black Tornado encounters the Klamath Falls basketball aggregation in a Southern Oregon conference series here, it will have to contend with a Pelican height advantage. The Tornado hoopers have come up with a possible solution, a triple piggy back play, which they are demonstrating above. Coach Frank Roelandt, scratching his head, looks on skeptically. Putting the ball over the rim is Tom Hamlin (32) and helping with arms outstretched are Larry Perkins (11) and Dick Puhl. In the "supporting cast" are Dick Copley (33), Neil Plumley (35) and Dick McLaughlin. Perhaps, they hope the referees will overlook a sixth man on the floor. The Black Tornado cagers oppose Klamath Falls tonight and Saturday at Hedrick Junior high. Varsity games will be at 8:15 p.m., following 6:30 p.m. jayvee preliminaries.

Pels, Tornado Mix In SO Loop Series

If basketball competition between Klamath Falls and Medford High schools this season follows the general pattern, then victories over the Pelican are virtual musts this week end for the Black Tornado of Medford for successful defense of its league and district titles. The two aggregations collide tonight and Saturday nights at Hedrick Junior High school gymnasium here. Varsity games at 8:15 p.m. will follow 6:30 p.m. JV openers.

If either club can sweep the week end series, it will be established as the favorite in the Southern Oregon conference. The Tornado, and Pels have been rated the clubs to beat in the circuit although serious challenge is anticipated from both Grants Pass and Ashland.

KF Tough at Home
Medford defeated the Pelicans both times on the Klamath court last year and split with the KF here. However, Tornado teams have generally found Pel quintets toughest to beat in Klamath Falls and the Bear Capital players will have that in mind in attempting to give a big boost this week to their current conference.

There is no direct comparison between Klamath and Medford but indirect judging rates the series here a toss-up with the possibility of a split looming high. Klamath has defeated Jefferson of Portland 69 to 43 and lost to Jeff 63 to 59 in its only contention so far with an Oregon club. Jeff has a 53 to 48 win over Cleveland in Portland loop play. Medford trimmed Cleveland 60 to 43 during the holidays.

The Pelicans with Glen Moore at 6-7 will carry a height advantage, although not an overwhelming one, into the series here. And the Tornado will aim to make up for the deficit with

OSC's President Thinks PCC Will Hold Together

Portland — (U.P.) — Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Oregon State college, believes the Pacific Coast conference will hold together.
"There's no place to go," Dr. Strand told a Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting here. The college official said the basic problem of athletic aid exists because "there just aren't enough hours in a week to permit an athlete to compete in sports, go to classes, study and work part time."
He said he believed the five northern schools in the PCC "with the help of a couple from the south, will help us formulate a new program."
PCC presidents last week gave tentative approval to a new athletic code permitting financial aid to athletes based on need. The code is expected to be worked out at the next PCC meeting in Spokane in May.

Ducks Open Play in PCC

The University of Oregon Ducks take their first dip in the Pacific Coast Conference basketball puddle tonight—and they'll be bumping up against some California Bears who don't care much for intruders.
The Bears have handled invaders before. They routed the Washington State Cougars twice and took the fight out of what was thought to be a very tough tribe of Stanford Indians.
And that won't be the only disturbance in the waterhole. Washington meets Idaho in a series that should cause some commotion. Oregon State tangles with Southern California, and UCLA plays Washington State. Stanford gets a badly-needed rest.

Chapter To Note 35th Anniversary Of Walton Group

Thirty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Izaak Walton League of America will be observed when the Jackson County chapter of the organization meets on Monday, Jan. 14. The session will be at 8 p.m. in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel.
Jackson County chapter was organized in 1945 with Dr. C. H. Paske, Medford dentist, as first president. He will be guest of honor at the meeting.
The meeting is open to the public.

HUNGARIANS OPEN TOUR

Prospect Spills St. Mary's In Jackson County B Tilt

Prospect — Prospect high was established as the team to watch in the Jackson County B Basketball league when the Cougars overcame defending champion St. Mary's of Medford here last night 50 to 46.

It was Prospect's second win against no defeats. The setback was St. Mary's first in two games.

Leo Daniels' 15 foot jumper goal with 20 seconds left and two free shots by Jim Davidson with three seconds to go provided the Cougar margin of triumph. Jack Daley of the Crusaders had tied up the fray at 46-all with 30 seconds to go.

It was a close game almost all the way but with Prospect having one eight-point edge of 30 to 22 in the third quarter. 36-All Tie

The clubs were tied 36-all going into the final panel. After 38-all deadlocks, Prospect went ahead and stayed until Daley's tying goal. The Cougars had 42 to 38 and 44 to 40 margins.

Prospect led after one quarter 14 to 12 and St. Mary's was in front 22 to 20 at the midway halt.

Free shots made the scoring difference with SM canning only four to Prospect's 10. The Crusaders put in 21 field goals to Prospect's 20. However, the long range firing of Dave Gardner and Jim Daniels gave the Cougars a big boost. Gardner hit seven in 10 tries and Daniels, who sat out until three minutes to go in the third quarter because of ankle sprain, made three for three. Daniels was the only Prospect substitution. St. Mary's went all the distance with its starting five.

Daley scored 16 points and Leo Daniels and Gardner each 14.
St. Mary's was junior varsity prelim winner by 36 to 30.
