

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Maddox
(Landis-Shangle photo)

Maddox-Dudley Ceremony Held in Catholic Church

Phoenix—Miss Shirley Dudley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dudley, Phoenix, became the bride of Terry Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Maddox, Jacksonville, in a ceremony held Thursday, December 27, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the Sacred Heart Catholic church in Medford.

The Rev. John Igo officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 100 friends and relatives.

White chrysanthemums decorated the church for the wedding and Bruno Pellegrini played the traditional wedding music.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white lace waltz length dress loaned by her sister, Mrs. John Caulkins. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Zeta Maddox, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant.

Mrs. William Coles, Talent, and Mrs. Don Avery, Klamath Falls, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of blue crystalettes in waltz length and headresses made of feathers in matching blue. They carried pink roses.

Dace Maddox served as best man for his brother and Curt Holzgang, Eugene, and Fred Sandgren, Molalla, Ore., Theta Chi fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, acted as groomsmen.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Rague room of the Medford hotel. Mrs. Tom Tenney, Klamath Falls, cut and served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Dale Newton. Mrs. John Caulkins, sister of the bride, poured the coffee, and Miss Wanda Oden, Ashland, and Mrs. Nicholas Wrede presided at the punch bowls. The silver service was loaned by Mrs. Fred Hallgren.

Mrs. Burton Skinner was at the gift table and Miss Diane Maddox was in charge of the guest book.

For her traveling attire, the bride wore a grey wool dress with pink coat and black accessories. After a wedding trip to Portland and Seattle the newlyweds are making their home at 434 East Thirteenth street, Eugene.

The bride attended Phoenix High school, Willamette University, and is now a senior at Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Eugene. The bridegroom attended Medford High school and is a senior at the University of Oregon majoring in geology.

Mr. Maddox is a two-year letterman baseball player at the University of Oregon, pitching and playing in the outfield and being named to the Pacific Coast conference Northern division all-star team. He was the division's leading pitcher in 1935. He was a baseball star also at Medford High school and has played summer semi-professional ball for the Medford Cheney Studs.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Tom Tenney and Don Avery, Klamath Falls, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Staples, Eugene, and Fred Sandgren, Molalla.

Cave Junction Ceremony Weds Couple

Cave Junction—In a candlelight service at the Selma church, Thursday evening, December 27, Miss Sarah Wolverton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wolverton, became the bride of William Broeffle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Broeffle of Cave Junction.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Don Brown, acting minister at the Selma church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over taffeta with a fingertip length veil. She carried a white Bible with white orchid and pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were her sister, Miss Becky Wolverton, and a friend, Miss Barbara Prewitt. They chose blue ballerina length frocks with corsages of pink rosebuds.

James Broeffle served his brother as best man. Ushers were Paul Siens of Grants Pass and Kenneth Krauss of Selma.

Mrs. Maggie Shippey of Grants Pass played the wedding music.

The bride's mother wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds on her brown dress. A navy blue dress with a yellow rosebud corsage was chosen by the mother of the bridegroom.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church annex where the young couple cut their tiered wedding cake. The cake and punch were served by Mrs. Jim Shippey and Mrs. William Wolverton.

After a wedding trip to California the newlyweds returned to make their home in Grants Pass, where Mr. Broeffle is employed at Kelly-Miller Tractor and Implement company.

Former Resident Wed in Denver

Miss Dona L. Verley formerly of Medford now living in Denver, Colo., became the bride of James L. Kappers in a ceremony held Friday, December 21, at the United States Army Post chapel at Fitzsimons Army hospital in Denver. Lieutenant Colonel Floyd W. Shiry, chaplain, performed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Stella A. Craig, Omaha, Neb., and James E. Verley, Klamath Falls. While making her home in Medford she was employed by the Stevens Corporation as a bookkeeper. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kappers, Jennings, Kan., and is serving with the United States Army at Fitzsimons Army hospital.

The newlyweds are making their home at 1330 Monroe street, Denver.

Mrs. Larry Owen Mollahan
(Kennell-Ellis photo)

Bengtson-Mollahan Ceremony Performed in Eugene Church

News of interest here is the wedding of Miss Brenda Bengtson and Larry Owen Mollahan which was celebrated at nuptial mass Saturday, December 29, at St. Mary's Catholic church in Eugene. The bride, a former Medford resident, is a daughter of Mrs. Benge Bengtson, Eugene, and O. H. Bengtson, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Mollahan, Heppner. The 10 o'clock morning rites were performed by the Rev. Harold J. McKennett. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a Chantilly type lace gown and the full tiered skirt was trimmed with ruffles and designed with back detail. A matching lace tiara held her veil and she carried a bouquet of eucharis lilies and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Miss Diana Getchell, Medford, maid of honor, and Miss Patricia Sloan and Miss Leota Brown, both of Eugene, bridesmaids. Their gowns were of light blue nylon and their nosegays were of paper white narcissus and gardenias. The attendants wore floral headpieces.

Hilda Bengtson, young sister of the bride, was flower girl. Her gown was also of light blue nylon.

John F. Mollahan, Heppner, was best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Brent Bengtson, Eugene, brother of the bride, and James Nirschl, Pendleton. White and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the church.

At the reception, held in the Persian room of the Eugene hotel, the guests were registered by Miss Sue Gray and Miss Jane Barker, both of Medford. The bride's godmother, Mrs. O. Carter Boggs, Portland, was in the receiving line.

Aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Rose Garrett, Portland, and Mrs. Eva Robinson, served the cake, and Mrs. Don McClure, sister of the bridegroom, poured coffee. Miss Janice Tift, Eugene, served the punch.

The bride chose a dress of white wool with blue coat and white and black accessories for her traveling attire. After a wedding trip to the coast they are making their home at 1837 Mill street in Eugene where both are students.

Wedding Anniversary Observed by Dinner At Feltman Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Feltman, 637 Pennsylvania avenue, observed their 33rd wedding anniversary Wednesday, January 9, at a dinner party. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shaw, McCall, Ida., and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Nelson and daughter, Jean, Medford.

The Shaws are visiting the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Feltman and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson. Mr. Shaw is an uncle of Mrs. Nelson and they also are the parents of the Feltman's son-in-law, Tom Shaw, of Caldwell.

Former Residents Recent Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon H. Harper and children, James and Stanley, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Glenn, all of Turlock, Calif., were recent visitors in Medford. The Harpers lived at 29 Louis avenue before moving to California. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn, Mrs. Glenn is the former Jeanne Harper, were married December 22 at the Hope Community church in Los Angeles. James Harper is a private in the United States Army Signal Corps at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz.

Talent Couple To Be Honored

Talent—Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Conner will be honored at an open house Sunday, January 20, which will observe their golden wedding anniversary. The event, planned by the Conners sons and daughters, will be held at their home, 235 Gibson street, between two and five o'clock.

Friends are invited to call during those hours. The Conners have lived in Jackson county 30 years.

Missouri Teacher To Become Bride Of Edwin Gebhard

Mr. and Mrs. J. Madsen, St. Louis, Mo., announced the engagement of their daughter, Helen Maxine, to Edwin W. Gebhard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Gebhard of Central Point, at a buffet supper December 14.

Miss Madsen is a graduate of Southeast Missouri State college, Cape Girardeau, Mo., Washington university, St. Louis, Mo., and has a master's degree from Columbia University, New York. She is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma and The American Association of University Women. The bride-elect is a niece of the Jantzer families of Southern Oregon and at present is a member of the faculty of Normandy Senior High school of St. Louis as instructor of fine arts.

Mr. Gebhard is a graduate of Central Point schools, Anderson Diesel School of Los Angeles and Coyne Electrical School of Chicago. He was employed for 10 years as a chief engineer in the Maritime Service on the Mississippi River System. At present he is with Gebhard Orchards of Central Point.

An early February wedding is planned at St. Louis.

Radio Program To Feature Local Orchestra

A part of the rehearsals of the Southern Oregon Philharmonic Society Orchestra was taped Wednesday night for broadcast on the new program of classical music to be introduced by radio station KMED, Monday, January 14.

As scheduled now, residents of southern Oregon will be able to follow the progress of their civic symphony orchestra through its rehearsals as recorded by the station, up to the concert presentation.

This new program has been planned to cover local activity in classical music, according to John Williams, KMED's new program director. This will be done through interviews with local people participating in that field, interspersed with live talent recordings.

Mr. Williams indicated such a program has been well accepted in Eugene, where he has been affiliated with station KUGN. "However, the continuance of this program, will depend on the listener response," he said.

The program will be in a scheduled block of classical music programs to be heard each Monday evening from 6:30 until 10 p.m.

According to Mrs. Harold Cook, orchestra business manager, the next concert of the season will be given Sunday afternoon, January 27, in the Medford Senior High school auditorium. The orchestra will give a repeat performance in Grants Pass the same evening. Tickets are available at Purucker's.

Mrs. R. D. Hiatt, Publicity Chairman Southern Oregon Philharmonic Society Phone 3-3118

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Sims, 912 Beekman street, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Luci Mae, to Robert Lee Bowles, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bowles, Applegate. No wedding date has been set.

Garden Club To Meet Tuesday

Crater Garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Priesen, Table Rock road, Tuesday, January 15, at 7:30 p.m.

Roll call will be answered by naming a garden problem. Country of the month is Arabia.

The program will be given by Mrs. Arthur Straus on how to grow chrysanthemums.

Dessert Luncheon

Rogue River Garden club will meet Tuesday, January 15, at the home of Mrs. Larry Bassett. Dessert luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. Plans for the year will be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan T. Pierce

Shields-Pierce Ceremony Held in Castleford, Idaho

Mr. and Mrs. Alan T. Pierce are making their home in Oakland after their marriage December 9 in Castleford, Idaho, at the home of Mrs. Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Shields.

Mrs. Pierce is the former Miss Lisbeth Lu Shields. Mr. Pierce is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Pierce, 694 South Modoc avenue, Medford.

The Rev. S. C. Orr, Buhl, Idaho, retired Presbyterian minister, officiated at the double ring ceremony held in front of a large picture window and baskets of white chrysanthemums. Piano recordings by the bride were played at the wedding.

The bride has sung in musical groups in Medford and was on the staff of Purucker Piano House.

For her wedding the bride chose a street-length gown of white cotton lace, fashioned with empire waist, scooped neckline and full skirt. A blue velvet sash accented the waist and she carried an ivory fan laced with pink satin streamers and centered with a single white orchid encircled by pink rosebuds. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Marjorie Sandfort, Medford, was honor attendant. She wore a dress of light blue wool. Miss Arlene Ulrich, Portland, bridesmaid, chose a brown wool sheath. Both attendants wore corsages of pink carnations.

Jay Pierce, served his brother as best man.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shields east of Buhl, attended by 200 friends and relatives of the couple.

A silver cloth covered the bride's table which held a tiered wedding cake flanked by tall white candles in silver candelabra. Pink carnations encircled the cake at the base.

The couple traveled to Carmel, Calif., for a wedding trip and on to Oakland where they are making their home. The bride chose a brown and blue sheath dress with brown accessories for her traveling attire.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Shields chose a dress of beige and silver brocade. Mrs. Pierce, mother of the bridegroom who attended the wedding with Mr. Pierce, wore a tan wool crepe dress. Both mothers wore corsages of pink rosebuds and carnations.

Shady Cove Visitors Leave for California

Shady Cove—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence P. Hulshizer, Basin, Wyo., left Saturday after visiting at the home of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bulkin, Far Hills ranch. They are en route to California to spend the remainder of the winter and had visited other relatives of both in Montana and Washington and the Oregon coast.

Home From Germany

Vernon Gleason, 1684 Crater Lake highway, has returned to his home after serving with the occupation forces in Germany. He is resuming his schooling at Southern Oregon college.

FINAL-CLEARANCE

Of Women's Fall And Winter Shoes!

Prices Drastically Reduced

To Make Room For Our New Spring Styles!

Westport Mainstreeter Sandler	Values to $8.95	Close Out $5<sup>00</sup>
Styleez Troylings Paradise	Values to $15.95
Delmanette D'Antonio British Walkers	Values to $24.00	Close Out $14<sup>00</sup>
SPECIAL GROUP House Slippers		Close Out $2<sup>00</sup>

Johnston and Stewart

The Corner Shoe Store
CENTRAL AT MAIN MEDFORD

Don't Miss This Big Sale!

SHOES
HOSIERY
HANDBAGS

If your hair isn't becoming to you . . . you should be coming to us!

If you aren't satisfied that your hair looks its best. . . drop in to see us. Our personalized hair styles are a specialty . . . created for YOU alone—and for your satisfaction!

PERMANENT WAVES AT BUDGET PRICES

COOK'S BEAUTY CLINIC

Dial 3-5313

Serving Medford for 20 years

Now Located at
219 SOUTH CENTRAL
(1st door North of Green Stamp Store)

TOWLE'S MADEIRA LEMON FORK $4.25

TOWLE'S OLD MASTER NUT SPOON

TOWLE'S PRINCE PROTECTIVE

TOWLE'S CANDLELIGHT BUTTER KNIFE $7.50

Lawrence's

LAURENCE'S

Southern Oregon's Finest Silversmiths
Specializing In Fine Diamonds And Watches, Too!

130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908