Couple Wed In Chapel Rites Here

Miss Rita Pauline Bliss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bliss, 1556 Stewart avenue, became the bride of John Thomas Drew Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Drew, 794 Diamond street, in a ceremony held Friday, December 21, in Meeker chapel at the First Methodist church. The Rev. Raymond Balcomb officiated at the 8 o'clock evening service.

Mrs. Kay Bateman, a sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and the bride's brother, Buddy Bliss, was ring bearer.

Mr. Bateman was best man for his brother-in-law and ushers were Arthur Bateman and Bruce Bateman.

Lighting the candles were Sherri Davis and Donna Lue Pfister.

The bride's lace gown was ballerina length and fashioned with tiered skirt and matching lace jacket. Her veil was of net and she carried red roses and white carnations. Mr. Bliss gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Bateman's gown was of red satin and her bouquet matched the bride's flowers.

Candlelighters were also dressed in red and they wore wrist corsages of white flowers.

Red and white carnations decorated the church.

Miss Donna Lue Pfister sang. More than 50 persons attended the rites and the reception which was also held at the church.

Both the bride and bridegroom are Medford High school graduates. She was a member of the 1956 class and he was graduated in 1953. The bridegroom is employed by Jorgensen's dairy. They are making their home at 1556 1/2 Stewart avenue, Medford.

Mrs. Ann L. Kingsley observed her 90th birthday January 5, and was honored at a party given by her family at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson, Old Stage road. Mrs. Kingsley, native of New York state, has lived in Medford 20 years.

Woman Honored By Family on 90th Birthday

Mrs. Anna L. Kingsley observed her 90th birthday Saturday, January 5, and was honored by friends and relatives. Mrs. Kingsley has lived in southern Oregon for the past 20 years.

Relatives gathered at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson, Old Stage road, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Kingsley makes her home with the Johnsons.

Mrs. Kingsley has two daughters and a son living in southern Oregon, two sons and a daughter in South Dakota, and a son living in Wisconsin. She also has 16 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren. A daughter, Mrs. Mary Conkka, called from Sioux Falls, S.D. Saturday to congratulate her mother, and Mrs. Kingsley received more than 50 birthday cards, and the traditional birthday cake was served.

Mrs. Kingsley was born in New York state and moved to South Dakota with her family as a child. She married F. R. Kingsley in that state, and has been widowed for many years.
