CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to s-t-r-e-t-c-h S-T-I-M-U-L-A-T-E it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

AND, OF ALL LAXATIVES, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONOID's great moisturizing capacity plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk that

Blazes Destroy Two Structures

A small residence at 1427 Lawridge st. was destroyed by fire last night and a tool shed structure with living quarters on Oak drive, off Table Rock rd., was completely burned yesterday afternoon, firemen reported.

Medford city firemen said the small structure on Lawridge, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Atto, was completely ablaze when they arrived. The Attos, they stated, were next door visiting when the fire was discovered. Few of the contents were saved and there was no insurance, according to firemen.

Main house on the property, occupied by Mrs. Cora Babcock, was not damaged by the fire behind it. Firemen said there was caused from a stovepipe flue which extended from a small wood stove to the outside of the structure. Firemen were called at 8:45 p.m.

The building on Oak drive was owned by Bill Buchanna, Central Point rural firemen said. Rural firemen were summoned about 5 p.m. They said some tools were saved.

A Nichol's Worth of . . . Comment On This and That

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Feature Writer

Washington — (U.P.) — The senator who answered the phone himself, and the reporter asked the number of his office suite.

"Just a minute," said the senator. "I'll run out and see. I'm new around here."

Sen. Frank Church (D-Ida.) not only here, but this is his first fling at professional politics. Church is a likeable, dark-haired young man of 32. Know him for a couple of minutes and it's "cut-out-the-senator stuff and call me Frank."

Church won his spurs by beating the Republican incumbent, Herman Welker.

Being a little green in the campaigning business, he ran into a little trouble.

"See this scar on my face?" he asked. "Well that was dug by the teeth of what I fancy to call a 'Republican dog.' Anyhow the mutt took a dislike to a campaigner."

Church, at the time, was doing some leaning over the fence campaigning in the hinterlands and trying to find his way back home to Boise, Ida.

"Of course I got lost, passing cards around and the like, scratching for votes," he said. "I thought I would stop and see if I was headed in the right direction."

Well, there was this farmer, one gallus hanging and learning on a pitch fork. First Church asked him if he would be kind enough to put his "x" in the right column on election day.

"Reckon I will if I'm a mind to," the farmer said. "Who are you and where are you from?"

"You sure are lost, young fellow," the farmer said. "You're two miles inside of Utah."

His dog was less cooperative. The new senator got where he is with a help from his father, who is a Republican. Actually, you might say, he talked his way

Around Hollywood

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Another Swede with a large shoe size has taken Hollywood by storm — beautiful Inger Stevens, who landed a starring role opposite Bing Crosby for her first movie.

Inger, however, is not like that other big-footed Swedish star, Garbo, but a Grace Kelly-type blonde with more warmth and vivacity. She has big blue eyes, a sunny smile and an 8 AA shoe, which, she says, "I'm very proud of."

Like Grace, Inger learned her craft as an actress in New York television shows and has moved to Hollywood to become one of the new stars of 1957.

"Naturally this is very exciting for my first movie," Inger said on the MGM set while she and Crosby rested between scenes. "Bing's very nice. He

Headquarters Staff Of IRA Arrested

Dublin, Ireland — (U.P.) — Police arrested the headquarters staff of the outlawed Irish Republican Army today, a government spokesman announced.

The men were taken to Bridewell Prison to join 14 others arrested since the new outbreak of border violence erupted last December. The 14 are charged with offenses against the state, including membership in an illegal organization.

The government spokesman said the five men were holding a secret session in a downtown hotel when police raiders broke in early this morning. The men were identified as Sean Cronin, Laurence Grogan, Thomas McGowan, Charles Murphy, and Thomas McCurtain.

Salem — (U.P.) — Mrs. Zylpha Zell Burns, chief clerk of the Oregon Senate since 1939 was named to that position again by senators last night.

seems so relaxed it relaxes me." Inger was reared in Stockholm, but her family moved to this country seven years ago. Her father, a teacher, worked at Columbia university "and we moved around the country a lot." He now teaches in the adult education department at Texas Tech.

Nearly four years ago Inger, who had worked with her father in little theater groups, went to New York to crash show business. She toured on the stage with a Signa Hasso show, "Picnic" and "Oh Men, Oh Women." She appeared in a short-lived play on Broadway, "Debut," and appeared on numerous live TV dramas.

"Dead Cat"
Paramount tested her "in no make-up and with vaseline on my face so I looked like a dead cat" for "The Tin Star" with Henry Fonda. Inger lost the role but the studio gave her an exclusive contract.

Paramount made Grace Kelly a star by borrowing her from MGM, and now it's turnabout. MGM borrowed Paramount's Inger for the Crosby film, "Man on Fire."
