The Medical Roundup by Walter Alvarez

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic; Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

The Troubles of a Doctor Who Sees 50 Patients a Day... The other day a man scolded me for having mentioned the fact that some unfortunate physicians see from 50 to 100 patients a day...

Obviously, such physicians cannot either examine a patient thoroughly, or do much laboratory work or x-ray work. They can only make a quick guess as to what the trouble is...

Another book that all mothers of spastic children should read is Christy Brown's autobiography, "My Left Foot." This very bright Irish lad, who once could not walk or talk or even feed himself, is now immensely better...

Dr. Alvarez hopes his readers will understand that it would be impossible for him to answer requests for information or to attempt to diagnose by mail. (Released by The Register and Tribune Syndicate, 1957)
