

When the Mason Liner SS Monterey sailed from San Francisco recently these eight passengers from Medford were on board. The Monterey will cruise through the South Sea islands, stopping at several ports and continue on to New Zealand and to Australia. However, the Medford group will disembark in New Zealand and tour that island, re-embarking when the ship returns. Shown

(left to right) are Dr. Edwin R. Durno, Mrs. Durno, Mrs. Dwight Findley, Dr. Findley, Mrs. William H. Fluhrer, Robert Norris, Mrs. Ralph Norris and Mrs. Robert Norris. In New Zealand the travelers will visit the Durno's son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Brian Stronger. (Cal-Pictures)

Brown-Walker Wedding Held At Church Here

Pink and white flowers decorated First Assembly of God church Sunday, December 30, for the 2:30 o'clock afternoon wedding of Miss Darla Jean Walker and Robert Gary Brown. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walker, 728 West Second street, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. George Kurz, Central Point.

The Rev. Lyman D. Stiles officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 60 friends and relatives.

The bride wore a salmon colored suit with white accessories and carried a white Bible with two white orchids encircled by staphenotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Kent Bayne was honor attendant and Miss Karen Campbell was bridesmaid. Mrs. Bayne chose a light purple colored suit with white accessories. Miss Campbell wore a white suit with white accessories. They both carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Clayton Brown served as best man for his brother, Kenneth Walker Jr., brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Mrs. Fredena Day was soloist. Following the wedding a reception was held in the church annex.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Walker wore a light blue dress and hat with white accessories. Mrs. Kurz chose a light beige dress with dark beige accessories, and they both wore pink carnation corsages.

The bride attended Medford High school. The bridegroom attended Eureka and Myrtle

Court Announces Smorgasbord Date

Mrs. Ira Canfield, royal matron of Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth, has announced that the court would sponsor its sixth annual smorgasbord in the Masonic temple on Sunday, January 27. Serving hours will be from noon until 4 p.m.

This event has grown to be one of the most popular functions held in the temple, with almost 700 persons being served last year. It is the chief means of raising the funds that the court needs to carry on its various activities.

Over 75 per cent of the members are working on the preparation and serving committees under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Vernon Turpin, associate matron.

Medford Students Head Committees

Eugene—Named as committee co-chairmen for Dads' Weekend were Miss Mira Frohnmayer and Michael DeVore, both of Medford.

Miss Frohnmayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer, 1636 Spring street, was selected as co-chairman of the ticket sales committee and DeVore, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Ronald DeVore, 806 East Jackson street, will serve as co-chairman of the special events committee.

Creek schools and is employed by Medford Ice and Storage company. The newlyweds are making their home in Medford.

Italian to Sing For Civic Music

Cesare Valletti, lyric tenor, will present the next concert for Jackson County Civic Music association. It is set for Tuesday, January 29, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Medford Senior High school.

Valletti, an Italian, made his debut at the Metropolitan Opera company in the fall of 1953 after establishing himself as a star at La Scala in his native country. Born in Rome, Valletti has divided his time since his American debut between the Met and La Scala. Each fall he comes to the United States for the first months of the Metropolitan season, and then returns to Milan for the last weeks of the season in that city.

Cave Junction Students Wedded

Cave Junction — The former Delores Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith of Cave Junction, this week revealed her marriage to Patrick Simington. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Simington of Selma.

Attending the couple at their wedding in Eugene were Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. Clyde Knight and Miss Clydus Knight.

The bride was an Illinois Valley Jubilee princess last September. She is a sophomore at the Illinois Valley High school. Mr. Simington is an outstanding athlete at the high school, being a member of the football, basketball and baseball teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert B. Lowry returned to their home on Fern Valley road last week after a vacation in Arizona and southern California. The Lowrys left before Christmas and spent the holidays at Camelback Inn on the desert near Phoenix. Christmas eve Camelback Inn staged the annual Snowball party and for this event the inn's albino burro mascot dons antlers and gift-laden saddle bags and doubles for Santa's reindeer. Later the couple spent a week at Coronado beach in California. The Lowrys, who grow pears, here examine the citrus fruit grown in Arizona. (Bowerman-Camelback Inn photo)

Kiwanian Dames Plan Installation

Installation of officers will be held at the monthly meeting of Kiwanian Dames Tuesday, January 22, at the home of Mrs. Keve E. Hutchinson, 22 South Keeneway drive. Luncheon will be served at 12 noon with Mrs. E. R. Hoppe, Mrs. Richard Jones, Mrs. Charles Champlin and Mrs. G. A. Dierdorff as hostesses.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Frank Perl will show color slides taken during her trip to Europe.

All wives of Kiwanis club members are invited to attend and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. John Pletsch, telephone 2-8116. Those who wish transportation are to call Mrs. Milo Kubalek, 2-8196 or Mrs. Thomas C. Anderson, 2-5616.

Tent Announces Meeting Tuesday

Elta Deuel Hubbs tent will meet Tuesday, January 22, at 8 p.m. in the courthouse auditorium.

Mrs. Bauman Guest At Shower Party

Mrs. Robert Bauman was honored at a shower Thursday, January 17, at the home of Mrs. Grant Bourquin, 509 West Eleventh street.

Guests included Mrs. Jim Allen, Mrs. Marion Beebe, Mrs. Robert Church, Mrs. Perry Duncan, Mrs. Arthur Hamilton, Mrs. Allen Hatch, Mrs. Floyd Hibbard, Mrs. Ronald James, Mrs. Arthur Kreisman, Mrs. William Milhoan, Mrs. Claude Ray and Mrs. Elaine Ronfort.

Chapter to Meet At Loris hHome

Mrs. Fred C. Loris will be hostess for a meeting of Chapter AA, PEO sisterhood, at her home, 830 Minnesota avenue, Wednesday, January 23. Assisting Mrs. Loris are Mrs. J. P. Moffat and Mrs. L. A. Mentzer. The 12:30 o'clock luncheon will be followed by a program given by Mrs. Jack Sanborn on "Early Days in the Rogue River Valley." Mrs. W. E. Edwards will read from "The Record."

BEGINNERS BRIDGE CLASS
Y.M.C.A.'s Social Hall
TUESDAY 1:30 P.M.
Ladies are invited to learn to play bridge like the experts, using Goren's Point-Count bidding.

Recent Ceremony Weds Pair

Mr. and Mrs. William Carl Caldwell, whose wedding was an event of December 24 in Forest Grove, Ore., are living at 2015 Main street in that city. The bride is the former Dolores Arlene Baize, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Mosley, Seattle, Wash., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caldwell, Eagle Point. The bridegroom is a physical education major at Pacific university in Forest Grove.

The ceremony took place in First Congregational church, Forest Grove, with the Rev. Vincent Crane officiating for the double-ring afternoon rites. Only immediate family members attended.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin and French lace in princess style designed and made by herself and her mother. Scallop of the lace, with seed pearls and sequins, accented the front of the skirt. Her veil of illusion was held by a tiara of sequins and pearls and she carried a white Bible with red poinsettias.

Miss Sandra Caldwell, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. She wore a ballerina length frock of pale yellow taffeta and tulle and carried red poinsettias.

Don Papke was best man for the bridegroom, a college friend, and Mr. Mosley gave his stepdaughter in marriage.

The bride's mother wore a rust colored velveteen coat dress over a peach-colored frock with matching rust colored shoes and hat. Her corsage was a white orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue taffeta dress with matching shoes and hat and a corsage of white rosebuds and carnations.

The church was decorated with matching shoes and hat and a corsage of white rosebuds and carnations.

The church was decorated with white boughs adorned with turquoise colored pine cones and ribbons, and white poinsettias. A reception followed the ceremony.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon on the Oregon coast, the bride wearing a white faille coat dress with red accessories. The bride attended Eagle Point High school and has been employed by Sawyers, Inc. The bridegroom also was graduated from Eagle Point High school before enrolling at Pacific university.

Both young people are from well known Jackson county families. The bride's grandmother is Mrs. Nettie Ellenburg, 119 North Central avenue.

Pledged

Eugene — Included among eight women students pledged to membership in the University of Oregon chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national women's music fraternity, is Miss Alexa Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hibbard, 23 Lincoln street, Medford. Miss Hibbard is a sophomore, majoring in music at the university.

Medford Woman Is Endorsed For State PTA Office

Miss Judy Farrar, Rogue River, a freshman at Southern Oregon college, spoke Wednesday at a meeting of Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations.

Miss Farrar, a PTA tuition scholarship student, was introduced by her mother, Mrs. W. A. Farrar, and told the group about her experiences at SOC.

The council passed a motion that the name of Mrs. Leigh Gustison of Medford be submitted to the nominating committee of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers for consideration as a nominee for the office of first vice president of the Congress. She is a member of the state board and has been active in county PTA work for several years.

Mrs. Farrar, Mrs. C. F. Conley of Ashland and Mrs. Gustison were elected to the council nominating committee. Mrs. Clifford Cordy, Central Point, and Mrs. Dale Ackerman were elected alternates.

Elections will be held at the regular meeting March 2 at Central Point.

Workshops on Founder's day programming, family life discussion groups, film projector operation, and historian and publicity chairmanships were conducted during the morning.

Luncheon was served by the Ashland city council and a triple trio of musicians from the Ashland school system entertained.

Announcement was made of the family discussion scheduled (Sunday) this afternoon on the regular Jackson County Public Health association television show.

Committee Heads Appointed For Republican Club

Mrs. Wayne Stine, newly elected president of the organization, conducted the first 1957 executive committee meeting of Jackson County Republican Women Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Keeney, Colver road.

Committees appointed include Mrs. Billy Blackstone, membership and hospitality; Mrs. C. B. Frances, Mrs. Keeney, Mrs. Frank Bash and Mrs. Lester Adams, program; Mrs. Frank E. Ross, finance; Mrs. Howard Arant, telephone; Mrs. Thomas Ness, librarian, and Mrs. Marina Gates, publicity.

Mrs. Bash quoted from a new book, "A Republican Looks At His Party," by Arthur Larson, in which he stated, "It is the genius of the Eisenhower administration's achievement that it has merged and brought into balance all the positive forces in our country." A discussion of the objectives and accomplishments of the Republican women's group followed her report.

To continue the club's policy of keeping its members well informed, Mrs. Adams was appointed to issue monthly reports on state and national legislation affecting the northwest.

Meeting Planned

Shrine Ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Oliver L. Overmyer, 610 South Holly street, Monday, January 21, at 6:30 p.m.

Famous Violinist To Visit Portland

The internationally known violinist Henryk Szeryng, will appear with the Portland Symphony orchestra in Portland auditorium January 28. He was trapped in Budapest this winter when the city was burned and blasted during the recent Hungarian rebellion.

Luckily the brilliant Warsaw-born artist made his way to safety. He continued his European tour and went on to perform 22 concerts in Indonesia.

Szeryng (pronounced Shearing) will play Brahms' famous "Concerto for Violin" in his American debut with the Portland orchestra. The orchestra, under the baton of Theodore Bloomfield, will also perform Beethoven's overture to "Fidelio" and "Symphony No. 1 in E Minor" by Sibelius.

Reservations for this concert may be made at the J. K. Gill box office starting Thursday or by calling Capitol 8-1353.

Family Here

Mrs. Phyllis Madden and two daughters, Lauri and Lynne, are here from Wenatchee, Wash., to spend several weeks with Mrs. Madden's mother, Mrs. Ruby Rusque, 536 North Bartlett street. The three arrived before the holidays and will return to Washington February 8.

Coming

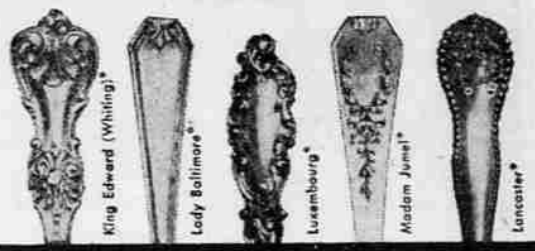

Ashland — Sovereign Grand Master L. S. Bridges of the International Order of Odd Fellows, of Baton Rouge, La., will speak at the Odd Fellows hall in Ashland, Tuesday, January 22 at 8 p.m. This is the first time in many years that a national head of this order has visited Oregon.

Phone 3-1733
Ginn's
Flowers • Gifts
26 SOUTH CENTRAL

Does your sterling show any of these markings?

... if so, you are the proud owner of a GORHAM* STERLING FLATWARE PATTERN

FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY . . .

YOU CAN ADD TO OR FILL IN ANY OF THE MORE THAN 200 OLDER GORHAM* STERLING PATTERNS NOW AVAILABLE THIS YEAR THROUGH GORHAM'S ANNUAL SPECIAL ORDER SERVICE PROGRAM

Most patterns have about 34 items available in one weight and size.

Just bring in a sample of each piece you wish to order — if this is not possible bring in some item for pattern identification.

You may find some of these markings date back as far as 1831 when the first Gorham pattern was made.

TRADE MARK

LAWRENCE'S

Southern Oregon's Finest Silversmiths
Specializing In Fine Diamonds And Watches, Too!
130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908

will not run

Palmyra creates extra long life for these superb nylon. Steer on a mit, yet actually guaranteed not to run even when you snag them. Now you can wear the finest, sheepest nylon every day . . . all day with complete security from runs. Wear Palmyra now. 2.50 pr.

First Love Romance 72 denier, the sheepest in the world, with no reinforcement in heel or toe.

Parker Woods' Leon's 21 N. CENTRAL

Hadley's 17 South Central

FINAL CLEAN UP! Sale!

WONDERFUL, WONDERFUL VALUES in

ONE RACK DRESSES Values to $19.95 NOW $5.00	ONE RACK DRESSES Values to $39.95 NOW $10.00	ONE RACK DRESSES 1/2 PRICE
ALL KNIT DRESSES 1/2 PRICE	WOOL JUMPERS NOW $5.00	ONE RACK SUITS 1/2 PRICE

All Winter Coats REDUCED!

SWEATERS REDUCED 1/3	LOVELY NYLON BLOUSES 1/2 Price	HATS Values up to $29.95 $3-$5 and 1/2 Price
-------------------------	-----------------------------------	---

ALL SALES FINAL • USE YOUR CREDIT

Hadley's 17 South Central