

Philharmonic Society to Give Concerts Sunday Afternoon

The Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon will present its second symphony concert of the season, Sunday, January 27 at 3 p.m. at Senior High school in Medford. The program will be repeated at 8 p.m. at Grants Pass Junior High school.

Board Members Of Philharmonic Announce Events

At the meeting of the board of directors of Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon held Thursday several events were announced that are scheduled during the coming week.

Mrs. Ronald W. Bartlett, first violinist for the Philharmonic orchestra, and Mrs. Charles Freeman will be interviewed by Don Williams, publicity manager of radio station KMED, Monday, January 21, at 8:30 p.m. on KMED. They will discuss the hour-long program of classical music that will be broadcast on that station from 6:30 until 7:30 p.m. Mondays.

Also this week Harvey Robertson, president of the society, Richard Werner, Philharmonic orchestra conductor, and Mr. and Mrs. Huot Fisher, Ashland, orchestra members, will be interviewed on television station KBES-TV Thursday, January 24, at 6:50 p.m.

Thursday morning at 10 a.m. a music appreciation house will be held at the home of Mrs. Otto Frohnmeier, 1656 Spring street. It was announced that coffee would be served during the intermission of the concert scheduled for Sunday, January 27, at 3 p.m.

Several business matters were discussed at the meeting attended by the eight board members. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting February 19.

Jefferson PTA To Hold Dinner

A committee of Jefferson Parent-Teacher association members met Monday at the school to coordinate final plans for the group's annual family night potluck dinner. This event is the major fund raising project for the Jefferson PTA, and is scheduled for Thursday, January 24, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in charge of the planning committee are Mrs. Robert Newland and Mrs. Elwood B. Hedberg.

Other committees working on the details of the dinner are headed by Mrs. Harvey Bell and Mrs. R. P. Knights, kitchen crew; Mrs. Homer Sullivan, clean up; Mrs. Bill Barnes and Mrs. Mike Wagar, tickets; Mrs. Warren Wolf, decorations; and Mrs. A. L. Nash, hospitality.

Theme of the dinner will be Jefferson Jets, taken from the name of the school athletic teams. Tickets will be sold at the main entrances to the school the evening of the dinner. Serving will be continuous from 5:30 to 7 p.m. and it is expected that nearly 600 people will be served during the evening.

Visiting Nurse To Speak Monday For Local Group

Miss Mary Becken, practical nurse from Bartlett, Alaska, will speak at a meeting of Medford chapter, Oregon Licensed Practical Nurses' association, to be held Monday, January 21, at 1:30 p.m. in the social room of Sacred Heart hospital.

Miss Becken, who is employed at Seward sanitarium in Bartlett, is in Oregon to visit relatives and friends.

The visitor will report on the nursing situation in Alaska, and speak of other pertinent events. A potluck supper will follow the program.

Mrs. Bessie Mae Baldwin, president, states that the meeting is unusually important.

Chairman Named For Bridge Club

Board members of Medford Duplicate Bridge club re-elected Mrs. W. W. Stevenson chairman at a meeting. Howard Boyd will serve as treasurer, and Mrs. Richard Milestone as secretary.

size with additional new members enrolled. Conductor Richard D. Werner announces. An especially important new musician is William Jelski, oboist from Roseburg and formerly of the Portland Symphony.

The program, although difficult in some measure, is being ably rounded into shape by the orchestra, despite rehearsal "fog out" during December, the conductor believes.

Varied in nature and in interest, the program will open with Massenet's overture "Phedre", followed by Mozart's "Symphony No. 40 in G minor." Two elegiac pieces for string orchestra by Grieg and "Three Dances to Henry VIII" by Edward German will follow the intermission. The concert will close with the stirring "March Slav" by Tchaikowsky.

The Philharmonic guild will serve coffee during intermission. Tickets may be obtained at Purucker Piano House, Cal-Ore Machinery company and Jorgensen's dairy, the latter two sponsoring the programs, and at the box office prior to concert time. No membership is required to attend any or all concerts.

Miss Davis, Jack Pfeifer Wed Recently

Shady Cove—Miss Joselle Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton A. Davis, Union, Ore., became the bride of Jack D. Pfeifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Pfeifer, Shady Cove, in a late afternoon ceremony in the Union Community Methodist church, Wednesday, December 26.

The bride is a national traveling secretary for Sigma Kappa, national collegiate sorority.

Dr. Virgil A. Bolen officiated at the candlelight ceremony. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and evergreens decorated the church for the wedding. Miss Sandra Spears played the traditional organ wedding music. Miss Oneita Umbarger sang, accompanied by Mrs. Le Roy Childers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length white chantilly lace gown over taffeta fashioned with a flounce of pleated tulle. Her veil of illusion fell from a half hat of crushed taffeta and chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of lilies and miniature red roses.

Mrs. Ronald E. Young of Corvallis was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a ballerina length dress of emerald green crystal with matching headpiece, and carried a white satin muff with sprays of red roses. Candlelighters were Kathleen and Jeanne Fitzgerald. Melissa Davis was flower girl. All three are nieces of the bride and wore gowns of white embroidered nylon.

Ronald E. Young served as best man.

Christmas greenery, poinsettias, and holly decorated the Fellowship room of the church where the reception was held following the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Davis chose an afternoon dress of beige lace with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Pfeifer wore a powder blue crepe with corsage of red roses.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a tailored sheath of soft beige wool. After a wedding trip through the Southwest the bride will return to her work with the sorority. The bridegroom attended Oregon State college and majored in engineering and is now stationed with the United States Army at Ft. Sill, Okla.
