

3 Tied For Caliente Lead; Tom Bolt Fined

By HAL WOOD
United Press Sports Writer
Agut Caliente, Calif. — (U.P.)—The crazy, mixed-up Caliente Open finished off its third round of competition Saturday with three men tied for first place; Tommy Bolt fined $100 for throwing a club, and the bookmakers more confused than any body.

After 54 holes of play, Stan Leonard, the 40-year-old Canada star; Ed Furgol, lame-armed former national open champion, and Paul Harney, a 27-year-old newcomer from Bolton, Mass., were in a deadlock for first place with 209 totals.

And the bookmakers, who had installed defending champion Mike Souchak as the favorite, didn't know which way to turn.

Harney had started the tournament as a 35-1 shot; Furgol at 12-1 and Leonard at 20-1.

But Saturday they withstood the pressure from a flock of the current big-name stars and appeared to be in good position to knock down the first prize of $2,000.

Leonard had a 69 Saturday over the Tijuana Country club course that had been lengthened to 7100 yards; Furgol had a 70 and Harney, the leader at the half-way mark slipped slightly with a 74.

But they were a long way from making a run-away of it.

Eric Brown, the Scotland star, came in with a 70 for 210 and was tied at that mark with Al Besselink, who had a 74, but is a tough man to beat when there is enough money at stake. Al has been betting on himself with the bookmakers here and is in a strong position.

Bolt, fined for club throwing, became involved in a hassle of some type with Jackie Burke, the PGA and Masters champion and they reportedly made up after being near to tossing punches Friday night.

So they both went out Saturday and clipped par. Bolt came in with a 70 for a 211 total and Burke shot a 68 for the same score. That tied them with Billy Casper, a young pro from Chula Vista, Calif., who had a 72.

Still in contention at 212—only three strokes away—were such strong men as Jay Hebert, Souchak, Doug Ford, Zell Eaton veteran from Pomona, Calif., and Bob Duden, Redondo Beach, Calif.

And four more men were deadlocked at 213, John Barnum; the Argentina star now playing out of Mexico City, Robert Devintzeny; Bill Biscort, San Diego; and former world champion Julius Boros.

Agua Caliente, Mex. — (U.P.)—Tommy Bolt, the bad boy of golf, but chairman of the "good conduct" committee, Saturday was fined $100 for club throwing in the $15,000 Caliente open tournament Friday.

Bolt turned himself into tournament supervisor Harvey Raynor.

"Do you owe us any money under the new fines system for club throwing?" Raynor asked Bolt.

"I owe you $100," answered Bolt.

Under rules put into PGA bylaws this year, "club throwing, club breaking or unbecoming conduct on the golf course" by PGA members results in $100 fine.

Bolt was the first to draw the assessment—which came as no great surprise.

First division teams take whacks at each other in three Medford Independent Basketball league games this week while one of the leaders hopes to advance its cause against a tailender.

Two games each are set for Monday and Tuesday at McLoughlin Junior high gym.

Hawkinson Tire Tread, tied for third, goes after one of the co-leaders, Company A of the National Guard at 7 p.m. on Monday. Butte Falls opposes Prospect at 8:30 p.m. in the second game.

Hawkinson also appears in the opener on Tuesday, meeting Lea Motors, co-holder of first position. Mutual of Omaha, first spot shareholder tussles seventh place Headquarters Company of the National Guard in the second game.

Southern Oregon Collegians Await Snow Carnival

Ashland—The Intercollegiate Winter carnival, for which many preparations are currently being made, will be held Jan. 28 and 29 at Timberline lodge. Southern Oregon college is one of the many colleges which will be represented. Many varied activities are planned which will be of special interest to those concerned with skiing.

The ski team from SOC will participate in various racing contests. Members of the team are Jim John, Tom McCracken, Howard Cain and Del Johnson.

Among activities will be snow sculpturing by each college. These sculptures will be judged and prizes will be awarded. Racing enthusiasts will find toboggan, flying saucer and snowshoe competition. Girls attending will be interested in a winter fashion show at Timberline lodge on Saturday.

Queen To Be Chosen

Musical entertainment will feature two dance bands for Saturday night. Highlight of the carnival will be the selection of the queen from the various school princesses. Representing Southern Oregon college will be Marilyn Booth, Medford, a freshman in general studies.

Church services will be held at Timberline lodge on Sunday morning.

SOC students will leave Friday afternoon and come back Sunday night. One of the chaperones will be Leonard Watts, Australian exchange professor. About 40 SOC students are expected to attend.

Pilots Overcome Seattle Pacific

Portland—(U.P.)—The University of Portland scored a narrow 60-56 basketball win over Seattle Pacific here Friday night but not before the underrated Falcons had made a battle out of it down to the wire.

Portland led most of the way but three times Seattle Pacific managed to grab a one-point lead. The last Falcon advantage came early in the second half but the Pilots were never out of danger.

Loren Anderson led Seattle Pacific with 14 points. Gene Kutsch with 12 was high for Portland.

Portland held a 28-27 halftime margin and got its widest spread of the game early in the second half at 48-41.

Crater High Nicks Tornado 23-22 in Wrestling Match

John German pinned Tom Merton in the first round of the final bout yesterday afternoon to gain the Crater high wrestling team a 23 to 33 nod over Medford.

The Comets had to come from behind in the later stages of the card here to score their second win of the season over the Tornado grapplers. Medford led 19 to 6 after seven of the 13 counting bouts. Crater won the next four contests. That narrowed the team score to 19 to 18 but Tom Morris decisioned Jim Goldenpenney in the 191-pound division, to widen the Tornado margin to 22 to 18.

German, vying at 165 to 168 pounds in the unlimited class ruckus, had to be victor by a fall to get the needed five points for a Crater team verdict. Medford still would have led had the match ended in a decision or draw.

Merton picked up points for a take down as the tussle opened but the advantage quickly switched to German, a rough customer, who spent the rest of the time battling to force Merton's shoulders to the mat. He succeeds with just seconds left in the round.

The unlimited mix gave a dramatic ending to the card and spectators, particularly from Crater, swarmed from their seats and gathered around the mat.

Two Medford men also pinned their rivals during the match. All other victories were by decision. In the 97-pound fray Ken

Hedrick 9th, McLoughlin 7th, 8th Grab Junior High Encounters

McLoughlin Junior High school cagers took two out of three conflicts with Hedrick on the Hedrick courts on Friday.

Hedrick's ninth graders, breaking away in the second quarter, subdued the Bulldog opposition 44 to 24. McLoughlin took the eighth grade scrap 32 to 24 and the seventh grade affair 31 to 18.

The Hornets came out on top 5 to 3 in a slow first quarter in which they stalled for two minutes against a McLoughlin zone defense. McLoughlin went to man-to-man in the second stanza and Hedrick expanded to 25 to 11. Third quarter score was 34 to 20.

The Hedrick ninth hit its shots well in the fuss and Jerry Anderson was high in the production with 15 points. Ray Konopasek got 13 for McLoughlin.

Quinney Has 19

McLoughlin zone was more effective on defense in the eighth grade game which was close much of the way. Quarter counts favored the Bulldogs 9 to 3, 15 to 14 and 26 to 19. Bob Quinney piled up 19 points for Mac and Dan Sieg had 10 for the Hornets.

George Clearwater's height and his 24 points and backboard control proved the difference for McLoughlin in the seventh grade brush. Mike McCullough of Hedrick was second high in scoring with nine. Hedrick had an 8 to

Jerry Coleman Inks 1957 Yankee Pact

By UNITED PRESS
Jerry Coleman, a major in the Marine Reserves and one of Casey Stengel's major reserves, Saturday signed his 1957 contract with the New York Yankees.

The 32-year-old utility infielder, who has played for all of Stengel's seven American league pennant-winners, signed for the same $20,000 he received last year.

About 98 per cent of the white population of New Zealand is said to be of English ancestry.

Lions Win Battle

Detroit—(U.P.)—The Detroit Lions and the National Football league won a major battle Friday with Canadian professional football when a three-man Ontario Supreme Court ruled quarterback Tom Dublinski's contract with Detroit was valid when Dublinski jumped to Toronto. The court ruling ordered Dublinski to pay the Lions $6,590 in damages as well as the legal costs incurred by the Lions in the trial and the appeal.

Wrigley To Get Slocum Award

New York — (U.P.) — Philip K. Wrigley, president of the Chicago Cubs, Saturday was selected to receive the 1957 William J. Slocum award for "long and meritorious service" to baseball.

The award, given by the New York chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America, will be presented to Wrigley at the chapter's annual dinner and show Feb. 3.

Wrigley is the oldest National league club president from point of service. He took over as president of the Cubs on Oct. 26, 1934, two years after the death of his father, William Wrigley Jr.

PREPSTERS GRAPPLE — This action was caught Friday afternoon during the wrestling match between Medford and Crater high schools at the Medford gym. Rick Burns, Crater, is the man on top at this stage of the exhibition bout. But his Tornado rival took a 4 to 3 decision. In the matches which counted Crater was victor by a nose at 23 to 22.
