

Portland Officer Arrests Brother For Attack on Girl

Portland—(U.P.)—A Portland police officer arrested his own brother yesterday for criminally assaulting an 11-year-old girl. Patrolman William M. Walters, member of the Portland police bureau since 1951, said his suspicions were aroused when he heard the description of the car which was used by the assailant of the little girl. The officer said his brother had no previous record. Danny Dale Walters, 22, was booked on a charge of rape and held for investigation under $10,000 bail. Detective Rudolph Bauman said the arrested man had signed a statement. Older Girl Attacked The 11-year-old girl and an eight-year-old companion were picked up near a skating rink Sunday. The eight-year-old was let out of the car after she cried. The 11-year-old girl was attacked before she was let out of the car.

Police Chief William J. Hilbruner commended Patrolman Walters for his action in a "most difficult decision." Chief Hilbruner said that "... he did not hesitate in doing his sworn duty. The officer advises me that when he approached his brother regarding the incident, that the brother immediately made an admission and stated he intended to tell the story to the officer Monday evening."

Illegal Parking on Buffalo Campus Costly

Buffalo, N.Y.—(U.P.)—Illegal parking costs errant motorists a pretty penny on the University of Buffalo campus. The fine for parking in a restricted area, as sorry offenders have found out, is $5; twice that for a second offense. The university doesn't stop there. For any student (or faculty member) who fails to pay the fine within seven days, the ante is upped another $5. As a comparison, illegal parking on Buffalo city streets gets a motorist a pink tag for which he has to pay only $2. The university, under its rules and regulations, even can expel a student if the fine treatment doesn't reform him and he persists in careless parking.

Egyptian Film Censors Hold Up Russian Movie

Cairo—(U.P.)—Egyptian censors held up the showing of a Soviet film intended as the showpiece of a Soviet film festival here today on grounds it is Communist propaganda. The film was an adaptation of Maxim Gorky's proletarian novel "Mother."

Church Delegates Gather at Salem

Salem—(U.P.)—About 150 delegates from churches throughout Oregon gathered here today for the opening of a three-day convocation of the Oregon Council of Churches. Presiding over the convocation in the First Methodist church will be Dr. Charles Derthick, Salem Council of Churches president. A panel of what influences legislators and how the council can be more effective in legislation will be held Thursday afternoon. Members will be former State Sen. Philip S. Hitchcock; George W. Brown, Portland labor lobbyist; Pat Dooley, speaker of the State House of Representatives, and Freeman Holmer, associate professor of political science at Willamette University.

Original Gettysburg Handbills Donated

Gettysburg, Pa.—(U.P.)—One of the six original handbills announcing the program for dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery in 1863, where Abraham Lincoln made his famous address, has been presented to the Gettysburg college library. The six collector's items were found by James D. Mack, Lehigh College librarian, in a closet at the library. Another of the original copies was presented to President Eisenhower for his farm here. The handbills gave the "order of procession for the inauguration of the National Cemetery" and "programme of arrangements and order of exercises." Lincoln's Gettysburg Address was listed on the program as "dedicatory remarks by the President of the United States." The main speech was listed on the leaflet as an address by Edward Everett, the era's foremost orator.

Funeral Rites Held For Salem Publisher

Salem—(U.P.)—Funeral services for Bernard Mainwaring, editor and publisher of the Salem Capital Journal and member of the State Board of Higher Education, were held today at Salem First Presbyterian church. Mainwaring, 59, died last Saturday after suffering a heart attack almost two weeks previously. The Capital Journal and Statesman plant were closed from 2:30 to 3:45 p.m. so that staff members could attend the funeral. Active pallbearers included Don Lynch, Ontario; Hawley Taylor and Edson Deal, Nampa, Ida.; and Glenn Cushman, Gerald McFarland and Alfred C. Jones of the Capital Journal staff. Honorary pallbearers were former Governors Elmo Smith and Charles Sprague; George Putnam, E. A. Brown, Salem; Emil Siebert, Corvallis; and John Alsip, Nampa.

Truman Sees No Plan In Ike's Address

Kansas City, Mo.—(U.P.)—Former President Harry S. Truman said today that President Eisenhower's inaugural address was "a nice collection of beautiful words," but it outlined "no plan of action." "Peace in this present troubled world can be obtained only by action on the part of the Free World, and it will require the leadership of the United States to accomplish that action," he said. As he handed copies of his statement to newsmen, Mr. Truman remarked, "I have had several requests for comment on Mr. Eisenhower's message, so I wrote this statement. That's all I will have to say on the matter."

Heavy Rains in Brazil Fatal To At Least Two

Sao Paulo, Brazil—(U.P.)—At least two persons were reported dead today as the result of heavy rains in Sao Paulo state. Floods caused by the rains have destroyed bridges, washed away railroad track, marooned scores of vehicles and inundated low sections of Sao Paulo and nearby cities.

Operation, History of Housing Authority Discussed at Luncheon

Mark Goldy, executive secretary of the Jackson County Housing authority, yesterday discussed its operation and history as well as plans for construction of a federal armory for the use of armed forces reserve units on part of the authority site.

He spoke at the noon luncheon of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce roundtable at the Jackson hotel. Goldy said in 1939 the Oregon legislature passed a statute permitting the housing authority. According to an agreement with the federal government, all profits accruing from the authority would be returned to the government, he said.

The authority paid through school district 49, the city and county, about $5,000 to $6,500 a year in general taxes until 1953, he said.

Director's Salary No directors were given a salary until 1951 when the housing authority board authorized $150 a month to Goldy. He said the reason for the salary was because the housing authority had become a business. Under the law he is the only director who can be paid.

Success of the authority is due chiefly to its manager and maintenance superintendent, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Sterton, the secretary said. He commented Mrs. Sterton is one of the finest social workers he has known and that Sterton has kept maintenance problems at a minimum.

Return Cost Goldy noted by 1953 the authority had returned to the government nearly 70 per cent of the original cost of the project. After World War II a housing emergency developed and 32 units were purchased from Portland bringing the total to 137. Profits from the additional units totaled about $5,000 or $8,000, he said.

About that time the government wanted to demolish the buildings, Goldy said, but opposition from veteran's groups prevented that.

As a result, Goldy explained, the Federal Housing Administration made the housing authority a local problem, selling the site to the local authority for about $16,000.

Public Entity He said in 1953 the housing authority became a public entity similar to the water board or library board. It was the option in which it existed, in this case, Medford.

The housing authority is a non-profit organization and the $40,000 it had accumulated through the years were kept in a reserve fund to cover possible losses, he said.

Goldy stated the community is now entitled to have the housing authority removed as its buildings are substandard. One thing holding back immediate elimination of the housing units is the lack of local housing facilities to absorb families now living on the site, he said.

The 14 to 15-acre housing area is now providing for about 100 families.

According to Goldy, the board feels the authority profits should be turned over to the city in the form of a park along with a swimming pool, as west Medford now lacks recreational facilities.

Army engineers have been appraising the land recently but a purchase price with the board has not been reached, he said. The board will still be enabled to build a pool and meet all building requirements, he added.

The units on the housing site will be eliminated gradually giving tenants time to locate other living quarters, according to Goldy. Inception of the razing is not scheduled for any particular date, he said.

Goldy said no official notice has been issued tenants to vacate. Publicity was given the matter only to prepare tenants that soon they would have to move, he said. The point is, Goldy added, is "that the housing authority in Medford should get out of business."

Portlanders Said Not Deprived of Work

Portland—(U.P.)—There is no truth in reports that Hungarian refugees are taking jobs away from Portland workmen, Bill Way, Portland Central Labor Council president, told council members last night.

Way said he investigated a report that an employer had discharged six employees to replace them with refugees and found it untrue.

"It seems some one is trying to stir up trouble for reasons best known to himself," Way told council delegates.

Grace's Baby To Be American Citizen

Washington—(U.P.)—The State Department ruled today that Grace Kelly's baby will be an American citizen.

The heir of Prince Rainier III and his movie star wife also will be a citizen of Monaco and thus will be what is known as "dual national."

The department sent the ruling to U. S. Consul General Louis Thompson at Nice, France, who had requested it.

"The consul general was advised that since the mother is an American the child will be an American," a department spokesman said.

The ruling was contrary to a declaration by Prince Rainier that the child will be "uniquely" Monagasque.

Retiring Agriculture Director Gets Thanks

Salem—(U.P.)—Republican members of the House expressed a vote of confidence and thanks to retiring Agriculture Director James Short yesterday.

Gov. Robert D. Holmes last week named State Rep. Robert Steward, Keating Democrat, to replace Short following this legislative session.

Prisoner Designs Reformatory Chapel

Washington—(U.P.)—Blueprints for an interdenominational chapel at Lorton Reformatory at Lorton, Va.,—drawn up by an inmate who has never set foot inside a real church—are being studied by authorities here.

If the commissioners of the District of Columbia approve the project, funds for the chapel's construction—$192,000—will be included in the District budget for 1958.

And if Congress approves this budget item, convicted counties-terfeiter Farmer C. Thomas, the architect, will have the satisfaction of seeing his chapel rise at the institution.

Farmer, 30, was converted to religion in jail and later baptized at Lorton. He and a fellow inmate, 21-year-old Ronald Jeter, devoted nearly 500 hours of their leisure time to constructing a scale model of the chapel.

Farmer studied architectural engineering for three years while serving time at San Quentin, Calif.

The $192,000 construction appropriation would buy what normally would be a $500,000 building. Provision has been made for extensive use of prison labor and prison-made materials wherever practical, thus greatly reducing costs.

They had never flown before. But early one morning Zdenek Machiner, 19, and Karel Kucera, 20, tied up a Czech guard and wobbled to the safety of West Germany in a stolen plane.

Neither could fly... but they soloed to freedom

These two escaped—but 70 million others remain captive behind the Iron Curtain. And these are the people at whom Radio Free Europe beams its daily broadcasts. Escape is not its aim. Radio Free Europe penetrates the Iron Curtain to spread truth... to strengthen hope and resistance.

Said the youths above, "It (Radio Free Europe) added courage and strength to strained nerves. It offered us... a hope for a better future," said a young nurse who fled to the West.

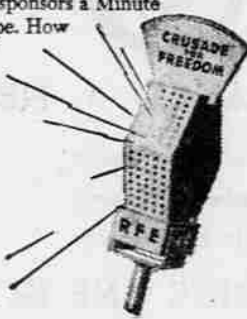

"Everybody is listening—even the Communists," said an escaped Czech skating champion.

From 29 powerful transmitters, Radio Free Europe broadcasts up to 20 hours of truth a day to five key satellite countries—Poland, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria. And how the Communist bosses fear it!
