Tokyo Dry Spell Brings Drastic Action

Tokyo — (U.P.) — "Drastic action" was announced today to end Tokyo's dry spell.

A letter signed "Portia" in the letters to the editor column of the Asahi Evening News asked the paper's editors to "kindly advise the Weather Bureau that I can confidently predict rain . . . on Sunday, followed by irregular showers later in the week.

"Things have gone far enough and drastic action must be taken. I have therefore decided to wash and polish my car on Sunday afternoon," Portia reported.

Bombs Damage Two North Ireland Targets

Belfast, Northern Ireland — (U.P.) — Bombs damaged two targets of the outlawed Irish Republican party in Northern Ireland Monday night.

The first damaged a police post in County Derry and the second wrecked the Glenshane Pass bridge in the Sperring mountains on the main highway between Belfast and Londonderry.

Telephone Company Establishes Record

A record of 4,922,000 hours worked without a fatality was established by Pacific Telephone's 6,896 employees in Oregon during 1956, according to J. H. Creager, local manager.

The record was also upheld by Pacific Telephone employees in California, Washington, Idaho and Nevada. They worked a total of 59,785,000 hours without an accident resulting in death, Creager said.

The company reported a total of 151 accidents during the year that resulted in one or more days off the job. Only 17 of those accidents were recorded in Oregon.

Throughout the nation the Bell Telephone system recorded its best safety record since 1940. There were five fatal accidents—three in motor vehicles and two by electric shock.

Hiroshima Man Dies Of 1945 Bomb Effects

Hiroshima, Japan — (U.P.) — Newspapers today reported the death of Hiroshima's "first atom bomb victim of 1957."

Kamekichi Kaneko, 68, died at the Red Cross hospital Monday of a blood ailment caused by a lack of white corpuscles, sometimes caused by atomic radiation.

Newspapers said Kaneko was two miles from the center of the atom bomb blast Aug. 6, 1945. He was not injured and showed no ill-effects until last October, it was said.

Russia's Economic Relations With Satellites Discussed for Decisions

Editor's note: This is another in a series of articles discussing the "Great Decisions . . . 1957" program. The program started in Jackson county Sunday, and will continue for eight weeks. The article today discusses Russia and the satellites, and the independence of Poland.)

Russia's economic relations with her satellites are exceedingly complex. The basic idea of Moscow is to have several key commodities flow across Communist borders, with each satellite economy geared into the larger Russian-controlled economy.

East Germany, in 1956, exported about half its machine tools, electric generators, precision instruments, optical goods, and other items to the Communist bloc. In return, East Germany got most of its coal from Poland; oil, iron ore, manganese, chrome ore and steel from Russia.

No Action Taken On Venue Shift

Portland — (U.P.) — A ruling by a Circuit Court judge has left unanswered the question of whether the grand jury investigating vice conditions in Portland last summer acted legally when it moved into the state office building from the county courthouse.

Circuit Judge Eugene K. Oppenheimer yesterday ordered the dismissal of a writ of habeas corpus filed by Raymond A. Roadnight, city policeman who was indicted for perjury.

The court held the habeas corpus proceeding to be moot because Roadnight was admitted to bail following the filing of his petition.

Roadnight's attorney, Fred Jensen, contended that the grand jury's indictments were void because of the shift of venue. Jensen said he plans to appeal to the State Supreme Court.

CONSTITIPATED?
new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H stimulate it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

AND, OF ALL LAXATIVES, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONOID's great moisturizing capacity plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk that activates normal colonic reflexes. So effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONOID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONOID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONOID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 38¢ for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2¢ per tablet.

Poland waited until late 1956 to take its steps toward independence from Moscow. Wladyslaw Gomulka, an anti-Stalin Communist leader who had been in prison since 1951, was restored to power Oct. 19. In the eight weeks that followed, Gomulka's government wrung important concessions from Russian leaders.

Politically, Poland was promised "complete equality" and "noninterference in internal affairs" by Russia Nov. 18. Polish leaders even went so far as to abstain Nov. 24 on a UN vote calling for the Hungarian regime to admit UN observers. It was the first time in UN history that Poland had failed to vote with the Communist bloc.

Movement of Troops

On the military side, a Dec. 17 agreement between Poland and Russia provides that "the movement of Soviet troops (in Poland) . . . shall in each case require the consent of the Polish government" and Russian armies are prohibited from "interference in the domestic affairs" of Poland.

The Gomulka government has also made it clear that Poland's economy will, in the future, be tailored to Polish interests, not Russian or other satellite interests. To help ride out economic readjustments, the Polish government has considered economic aid from the West, and offered to buy 200,000 tons of U.S. surplus wheat last August.

Communique Issued

On the last day of 1956 a communique was issued in Warsaw by Polish and visiting Yugoslav Communist party leaders:

"No one Communist country has a right to interfere in the affairs of another or to dictate its actions."

U.S. leaders in Congress and the executive branch are now asking themselves (1) how real Polish independence may be, and (2) what the U.S. can do to encourage Polish freedom from Moscow domination.

Economic Planning

The chairman of the Polish state economic planning commission, Stefan Jedrychowski, declared Nov. 20 that Russian economic assistance so far has "eliminated the necessity for asking for a loan in the West. This fact, however, does not exclude the possibility of such a transaction under conditions favorable to us."

The Gomulka government in Poland is still a Communist government (as is Marshal Tito's in Yugoslavia). But the American public faces this challenge: Is the "independent" brand of Communism any better than the Moscow satellite brand? If so, what can the U.S. do to strengthen independence in Poland, Yugoslavia, or any other Communist country?
