

Eagle Point PTSA Holds Meeting

Eagle Point—Classroom demonstration in physics was presented by a teacher, Victor Hay, and Ron Hansen, Dick Brown and Paul Evers, students, at the January meeting of Eagle Point High School Parent-Teacher-Student association. The high school library was the temporary classroom, while parents, students and teachers represented a student class.

Newton's third law of motion was the chosen subject matter, and temporary equipment was used to prove the law by fact and mathematical calculations.

The mixed High School chorus sang three selections under the direction of Charles Martin.

Another date, Friday, March 29, was set for the auction previously planned and cancelled. Donations of personal services as well as numerous items have already been given. Anyone wishing to donate articles may leave them at the high school. Offers of personal services are to be made by contacting the co-chairman, Mrs. John Huffman Eagle Point or Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry, Trail. The auction will be held in the elementary school gymnasium at 8 p.m. but patrons will be invited in at 7:30 p.m. to browse and examine the merchandise. A public dance will be held following the auction and coffee will be available all evening.

Five visitors were introduced, Mrs. Donahue, Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Mrs. Richard Alley, and Mrs. John Boyd from Medford, and Mrs. Keene from Phoenix. These PTA members form other units were present as observers interested in forming High School PTA groups.

Miss Virginia Cox, girls' physical education instructor was introduced as a new member of the faculty. A number of student representatives were present and introduced as was the student body president.

Glenn Hale, superintendent of Eagle Point schools, announced that the recent school census exceeded 1000. This makes Eagle Point school district 9 a first class district. Mr. Hale pointed out that this would not affect athletics, and explained the advantage to the district offered by this change.

A special school election will be held in the Eagle Point High School Gymnasium between 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 31 for the purpose of removing Eagle Point district 9 from the Jackson county rural school district. Anyone interested in more information about this change may call Mr. Hale.

A nominating committee was elected which included Mrs. Dusenberry, Trail, and Mrs. Ed Chamberlain and Mrs. Merle McGraw, Eagle Point. This committee will secure nominees for incoming officers to act as advisor to the committee.

Mrs. Dale Ackerman announced that 402 applicants received polio vaccinations at the school through the Jackson County Public Health department and Jackson County Medical association.

The flag salute was led by student body president, Charles Pettigrew. Mrs. Ray Palm gave the invocation. On the refreshment committee were mothers of students in the sophomore class.

Next meeting will be held March 20.

Baby Sitters Plan First Aid Course

Plans for a first aid course were discussed at a meeting of the Women's Baby Sitting club held recently at the home of Mrs. Floyd Jenkins, Sunset court. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The club also plans to have speakers for future meetings, and members were asked to renew their health certificates.

Complete Plans For PTA Dinner

The major fund raising project of Jefferson Parent-Teacher association, a family potluck dinner, is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Thursday, January 24, at the school cafeteria. Serving will be continuous from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m. There will be music in the gymnasium for those who wish to dance after dinner and sitting room for those who wish to visit with friends and teachers. The committee in charge of the dinner is prepared to serve up to 600 people throughout the evening in such a way as to eliminate a long waiting line.

Besides a nominal charge per family, each is expected to bring a potluck dish to serve eight persons. Parents of children in grades 1 and 3 are to bring hot dishes; grades 2 and 4 to bring salads, and grades 5, 6, and Mrs. Goldin's room will furnish desserts. Arrangements have been made to care for any dishes that are brought to the school early in the afternoon. These may be left in the cafeteria. Parents have been requested to tape their names to their dishes so that they may be picked up on Friday afternoon at the cafeteria. Tickets for the dinner may be purchased at either main entrance to the school and there will be just one charge for the entire family.

Butte Falls Group Assists Project; Clean Up Day Set

Butte Falls—A special meeting of Butte Falls Lions auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hartlerode January 16 to discuss participation in a community project for the March of Dimes.

An "old time country dance" was sponsored by Butte Falls community service clubs January 19 at the grade school gymnasium for the March of Dimes.

The auxiliary assisted with the food. Mrs. Page Stauffer made the coffee and serving were Mrs. Charles Capello, Mrs. Roger Harris, Mrs. F. E. Poole, Mrs. Bruce Pingle, Mrs. Glenn Cathey, Mrs. Cecil Taunton and Mrs. William A. Hartlerode.

Members will have a clean-up day at the Union hall Wednesday, January 23, at 9 a.m. Following the cleanup the monthly potluck supper will be held. Hostesses are Mrs. Hartlerode and Mrs. Poole. A special program will follow the Lions' meeting.

Lady Lions have earned an automatic 48 cup electric percolator through their efforts in saving coffee bands and are saving for another one.

A motion was made to amend the constitution concerning meeting nights. First reading of this amendment stipulated that auxiliary members meet the third Wednesday of each month in member's homes. This will leave the potluck night free for a short program following the men's regular meeting.

Weather permitting a workday is scheduled for Sunday, January 20 on the Community hall. Mrs. Pingle, Mrs. Capello and Mrs. Taunton will serve refreshments to men. Work will consist of finishing the north side of the roof.

"Jalopy branches" have been postponed until February due to January being March of Dimes month. The first brunch will be served at the home of Mrs. Pingle in February.

Next meeting will be held February 20 at the home of Mrs. Capello. At this meeting a nominating committee will be appointed.

A visitation meeting was discussed to stimulate interest in club activities. Mrs. Harris was instructed to check meeting dates of various clubs in the valley and make a report of her findings to Mrs. Pingle.

Mrs. Taunton announced that she is sending a box of old Christmas cards to the children's hospital very soon. Anyone having old cards is asked to turn them in to Mrs. Taunton as soon as possible.

These cards are used for scrapbooks and in numerous types of instruction.

Prospect Group Announces Project

Prospect—Prospect Lions auxiliary has made plans to send a large box of valentines to the Oregon School for Blind in Salem. Plans for the project were made at the January meeting, held at the Community hall. Dinner was served by women of the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd.

Camp Fire Plans Birthday Party

Eagle Point—Plans for a birthday party in place of the birthday dinner were discussed at the January meeting of the Camp Fire Leaders-Sponsors association of Eagle Point. The 47th anniversary of the Camp Fire Girls organization will be observed in March.

The Eagle Point district will remember the anniversary with a party based on this year's birthday project, the theme being, "Together We Make Tomorrow."

It will be held in the school cafeteria Friday, March 1, at 7:30 p.m. Celebrating together will be all the Bluebird and Campfire Girls, their families, and adults and sponsors making up the organization. An evening of fun is planned, revolving around girls' ideals for building a better future.

Mrs. Tom Gerety, executive director from Medford, was present at the meeting in an advisory capacity. She explained the relationship of the Rogue Area Council board to the Eagle Point District board that is being formed. The importance of adult members to the continuity of the program servicing the girls in our community was emphasized.

In the absence of Mrs. LeRoy Bedingfield, chairman, Mrs. Arnold Arens, secretary, presided. Plans were made for Youth night at the regular March meeting of the Eagle Point Parent-Teacher association. Mrs. Roy Chamberlain, district training chairman, with Mrs. Gerety, made plans to have more material available for the next Bluebird singing session in February.

Mrs. Gerety reminded the leaders to notify all girls that unless their national dues were paid, they could not take part in the annual candy sale in April.

"Hey, Jeannie," the television program, will depict the troubles of this Scottish lass when she helps the Camp Fire girls sell candy on Saturday night, Feb. 2. All girls and adults interested in the Camp Fire organization are asked to watch the program.
