CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrift" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-P-B-T-C-H STIMULATE it to act; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONAL, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONAL's great moisten-

Humphrey Asked To Pinpoint Cuts In Ike's Budget

Washington—U.P.—The House Appropriations Committee called on Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey to pinpoint today the cuts he thinks should be made in President Eisenhower's $71.8 billion budget.

Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) labeled Mr. Eisenhower's record spending plan "unconscionable." He said he hoped to get from Humphrey at a closed-door committee session today some practical suggestions on how to reduce it.

Humphrey told newsmen recently "there are a lot of places" where savings can be made in the President's budget, the nation's biggest in peacetime history. He said cuts could be made "all along the line."

The appropriations committee gets first crack at the budget and has a powerful voice in Congress' determination of how much money the President eventually will get for government expenditures.

Church Groups Hear Illinois Minister

Salem—U.P.—Dr. Harold A. Bosely, pastor of the First Methodist church of Evanston, Ill., told the fourth annual convocation of the Oregon Council of Churches here yesterday that Christians should "build the kind of a world where everyone feels at home."

An estimated 500 delegates and visitors heard Dr. Bosely investigate the problem of Christian ethics in a realistic world at the start of the three-day convocation.

Delegates of the United Church Women of Oregon wound up their two-day session here yesterday by electing Mrs. A. B. Culler, Portland, president.

Mrs. Harry Dillin, McMinnville, Mrs. L. D. Wrentmore, Portland, and Mrs. Effie Ritchey, Milton-Freewater, were elected vice-presidents.

4-H Club News

Foresters Club—On Sunday afternoon, Jan. 20, Ralph Hixson held the first meeting of a new 4-H Forester club at his house. David Hixson, Merle Flenner, Kevin Elbert, Danny Kane, Mark Schmidt and Gregg Schmidt joined the new club.

Mark Schmidt was elected president, David Hixson, vice president, Kevin Elbert, secretary - treasurer and Gregg Schmidt, reported. Hixson, our leader, took everyone up to the snow to go sledding after the business meeting was over.

Gregg Schmidt, Reporter.

Junior Council—The monthly meeting of the 4-H Junior Council was called to order by vice president Charles Elmore at Bigham hall on Jan. 14, at 8 p.m. The minutes were read and approved.

Sheila Cone gave a report as to when the Medford High school auditorium would be available for the Friendly Follies.

Several members gave reports on the holiday party. A photographer took pictures for the "Absolutely," the Oregon 4-H club annual, sponsored by the Oregon State college campus club.

Carolyn Tiags was appointed refreshment committee chairman. The theme for the Follies this year is to be a "television take-up." A committee was appointed to plan the show. Edith Bohnert told of the plan to have new dormitory and exhibit facilities at Oregon State Fair. The record book was also discussed.

If anyone has clear pictures for the "Absolutely," they are to get in touch with Doreen Bradshaw. The meeting was then adjourned.

Pair Pleads Innocent In Beating of Child

Portland—U.P.—Glen Denesen, 35, and his wife, Dorothy, pleaded innocent yesterday to assault and battery on their 13-year-old daughter, Janet.

The girl is in custody of juvenile court. She claimed she was beaten. Trial is expected to be scheduled early next month.

Stock Trading Volume Hits Two-Month Low

New York—U.P.—Stock trading volume today fell to a new low for two months with prices firm.

A five-point spurt in Peoples Gas to a new 1956-57 high carried the utility average to a new high since Aug. 17. Rails and industrials had small gains on average.

Volume leadership went to such issues as Atlas Corporation and El Paso Natural Gas. The latter made a new high on a gain of more than a point. Auto shares registered small gains and several of the leading steels firmed. Coppers were highly irregular as were chemicals. Aircrafts retreated.

Orchestra Leader Sets Medford Visit

Charles Gould, well-known orchestra leader who is now touring the United States, will be in Medford this week and visiting friends. A television appearance has been scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Gould, who has visited in the Rogue valley on several occasions is conductor of a 42-piece orchestra, and has composed several pieces, including the Olsen and Johnson show "Funzapoplin," and the Army show "Flyin' High."

He composed, produced and conducted "American Revue in Paris," and has conducted in several Los Vegas locations. He provided music for motion pictures such as "Impact," "The Big Wheel," and "Man of the Plains." Gould also wrote words and music for the song "It's Love."

At present, Gould is composing the "Oregon Suite," a history of Oregon in music.

Employees Trained To Handle Rocket Fuels

San Diego, Calif.—U.P.—The Convair-Astronautics division of General Dynamics Corp. has begun a course for its employees on the safe handling of rocket fuels.

Convair-Astronautics is building the Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile for the Air Force.

The school for rocket fuel handling has been established on Point Loma overlooking the Pacific Ocean. This will be one of the test sites for the engines of Atlas missiles.

The fuels that are used in the construction are made up of a mixture of liquid oxygen and either petroleum derivatives or alcohol.

One section of the course shows how a slight contamination in the liquid oxygen can cause it to explode with a force twice that of nitroglycerine.

Deadline for Hay Shipments Extended

Portland—U.P.—Railroads have extended to March 31 a ruling which makes it possible to ship hay bound for emergency drought areas at 50 per cent less than normal charge, it was reported today.

Carl Richardson, local Agriculture Department news service representative, said that up to Jan. 15, when the rate reduction expired, hay was being shipped from scattered districts in eastern Oregon, the Klamath basin and southern Idaho.

Chandler To Stay On Job for Two Months

Portland—U.P.—Chairman Ben Chandler of the State Highway Commission said today he probably would remain in his post through February and March.

Chandler, whose term expires March 31, said he had submitted his resignation to Gov. Robert Holmes a month ago but had heard nothing from him. "I will not accept reappointment," he said.

Salem—U.P.—Gov. Robert D. Holmes was back at his desk here today.

Future of OTI To Be Discussed

Salem—U.P.—The House Education committee will take a look at the future of Oregon Technical Institute, Klamath Falls, at a meeting here next Tuesday.

Committee Chairman Joe Rogers, Independence Democrat, said state education officials and labor representatives will be invited to hear OTI Director W. D. Purvine explain proposals for continuing the vocational school or transferring it to the State Board of Higher Education.

The State Board of Education now administers OTI. The school has submitted a budget of $4,772,055 but the figure was reduced to $2,865,693 in former-Gov. Elmo Smith's budget for 1957-59.

The suggestion that the school be moved closer to a larger population town such as Portland or Salem was expected to be discussed again this year. Some 15 bills dealing with the administration of OTI will be submitted to the Legislature.

Both the Board of Education and the Board of Higher Education have been invited to the committee meeting next Tuesday.

Swiss U. S. Attache Suspended From Duties

Bern, Switzerland—U.P.—The Swiss government accused its military attache in Washington and Ottawa today with "misconduct in office" and suspended him from his duties.

A communique said the attache, Col. Hans Rieser, had accepted at least $11,680 as a commission on the purchase of 100 British-built Centurion tanks for the Swiss army. No other details were given.
