

Skid Row Romeo Quizzed Further In Death of Girls

Chicago—(U.P.)—Authorities today questioned a Skid Row Romeo and painstakingly tracked down scores of other tips in an all-out effort to find the killer of two teen-aged sisters.

Sheriff's police said a lie detector test given Edward Lee Benny The Dishwasher Bedwell, 21, proved "inconclusive." He was held for further questioning and investigation.

The nude and crumpled bodies of Barbara Grimes, 15, and her sister, Patricia, 13, were found Tuesday in a ditch on the city's southwest suburbs.

Benny, who sports a duck-tail haircut and Elvis Presley sideburns, has denied any connection with the slaying.

At least three persons reported seeing the girls with Benny two days after they disappeared Dec. 28 after attending a Presley movie. The part-time dishwasher admitted taking two teen-aged girls on a tour of Skid Row bars then, but said he was certain they were not the Grimes sisters.

Police checked out a report that the girls may have been alive as late as Jan. 14, eight days before their murder was discovered.

Mrs. Wallace Tollstam said a "frightened and depressed" Patricia telephoned her daughter early that morning. She said the caller, whose voice she recognized as that of Patricia, asked: "Is that you Sandra? Is Sandra there?"

Mrs. Tollstam said her daughter Sandra, 13, and Patricia were close friends. She said she awakened her daughter because the voice sounded so frightened and depressed, but the caller hung up before Sandra reached the phone.

Willamette Approves Reserve Training

Portland—(U.P.)—The board of trustees of Willamette University voiced approval yesterday of the Air Reserve Officer Training Corps program on the campus despite attacks made against it earlier.

A special committee report was approved by a decisive vote at a meeting of the board here. The committee was appointed to study the situation after the Oregon Methodist conference last summer asked disestablishment of the unit.

A survey of Willamette University made a year ago by the general board of education of the Methodist church had said: "A military training program should be regarded as a temporary adjustment to unpleasant realities."

POSTER DISPLAYED—During January post office trucks are displaying the CARE poster, calling public attention to the CARE food crusade. Goal of the crusade is the distribution of 5,000,000 special packages, each containing an average of 22 pounds of powdered milk, cheese, rice, beans or other foods from United States farm surplus stocks among needy families in 19 countries in Europe, Latin America and the Far and Middle East.

PHOENIX Semester Exams Held

By LILLIAN KNIGHT
Phoenix—The Phoenix grade school had semester examinations Thursday and Friday of this week, according to Principal John E. Myers, marking the half-way point in the school year. Absenteeism has been averaging from about 35 to 40 students out of the student body of 560 due to colds and other illnesses, and those students who were not present for the exams will receive them when they return to school. Myers said.

At the last meeting of the auxiliary of the volunteer fire department the ladies chose their "mystery" pals for the year.

Mrs. Lois Morris returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Osa Waggoner, Wednesday, after spending a few days in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warrick and three children, of Lake Creek, were dinner guests at the Osa Waggoner home Sunday.

Lorna Thompson is recuperating after a spinal operation Monday.

Salem Capital-Journal Appoints City Editor
Salem—(U.P.)—Douglas Seymour, 33, was named city editor of the Salem Capital-Journal yesterday.

Seymour, who graduated from the University of Oregon in 1917, has been on the Capital-Journal as a reporter and deskman since 1954.

Las Vegas, Nev.—(U.P.)—Don Clyde, Heber City, Utah, has been named to succeed J. H. Breckenridge, Twin Falls, Ida., as president of the National Wool Growers association.
