Combating the Grizzlies rolling ball control offensive with forceful, crowding defense and some fine set 'em up playmaking of their own, the Medford Black Tornado hoopers subdued a good, tough Ashland aggregation 47 to 40 at the Hedrick gym here Friday night.

With the victory Medford, the defending titlist, kept in stride with Klamath Falls at the head of the pack in the Southern Oregon conference and District 6 A-1 chase. Klamath slaughtered the Grants Pass Cavemen, 60 to 29 in other loop action on Friday.

Medford broke up a tight ball game in the third quarter, taking charge with control of the backboards, some sharp team work and hot shooting from the field to gain its fourth win in five conference games. The Tornado broke a 24-all knot 2½ minutes into the third quarter when Larry Perkins goaled off a feed from Dick McLaughlin. By the end of the third quarter Medford had a 37 to 28 spread. Just over two minutes into the final stanza the margin was 15 points, 43 to 28.

Keep Away At Finish
Ashland rallied from that point and the Tornado went into a keep away game in the final minutes to stay in front.

Klamath got a 29 to 5 first quarter jump on Grants Pass, led 29 to 15 at the half and was in front 45 to 24 after three quarters. The Pelicans were deadly on the free shots and had rebound control.

Coach Frank Roelandt's Medfordites held the tricky in and out maneuvering Ashlanders to nine field goals in the conflict. The Grizzlies scored heavily from the free line, however, and had they been as accurate with the gifters in the second half as they were in the first outcome of the game could have been a different story. Ashland made 22 out of 31 free chances for more than half its total tally, dunking 14 of 16 gift tries in the first two periods. Medford recorded 18 field buckets and tossed in 11 points on 20 free opportunities.

Tornado players took a 13 to 9 lead in the first quarter, getting four fielders to Ashland's one. Neil Plumley each hit twice from the field and Jack Eberhart got the two-counter for Ashland.

Tornado Cools
But after hitting four for nine from the field in the opening canto, the Tornado cooled to two for 12 in the second period. Mel Dailey hit long and mid range shots for the Grizzlies and Eberhart cashed in a jumper from back of the free line in the second panel and Ashland put in seven free pointers to pull up even with the Tornado 22-all at halftime.

Medford shooting warmed up to seven out of 14 tries in the third quarter and the Tornado had backboard edge, despite the absence of tall cager Plumley, who was on the sidelines with four fouls. The Tornado hit five goals in eight attempts in the fourth chukker.

Dick Phil swung in and drove for a fielder 1¼ minutes into the third quarter for 24 to 22 for Medford. Dave Olson countered with a driver around the post to knot the tussle. Perkins then got his shot to put Medford on top to stay.

Midway through the period Dick Cople picked a free shot. McLaughlin followed with a goal from the side then hooked for another off an assist by Hamlin on a fast break. Perkins passed to Cople who hit a 10-foot jumper for 33 to 24 and the turning point had been passed.

15-Point Spread
Albert Hartwell put in a brace of free shots for Ashland but McLaughlin scored in close with Cople's assist. Dailey then got a pair of Lithian gift throws. Perkins scored from close range after taking McLaughlin's pass. That brought the fray to its three quarter pause.

Perkins tallied from the side of the circle. Cople hit from 10 feet after Phil's pass on a fast break and McLaughlin swished a jumper from the side of the slot for Medford's 43 to 28 standing.

Eberhart got a pair of free points for the Grizzlies and Jack Tobiasson drove off the post for a lay-in for 43 to 32. Phil got a goal for Medford by booming in close. Dailey gained a gifter for Ashland. Eberhart a goal from beside the circle and Dailey a driver from the corner and a solo field bucket on a fast break. Eberhart made a free shot and Medford's lead was 46 seconds to play. Phil was all alone for a final Medford score on a long pass from Hamlin.

FIRES AT BUCKET—Medford's Larry Perkins (11) gets off a shot in the Medford-Ashland basketball fracas here Friday night. Going high with Perkins is Albert Hartwell (38) of the Grizzlies. Hartwell's left hand seems to be poking a teammate, Jack Tobiasson. Coming up on the action for the Black Tornado is Neil Plumley (35). Medford won 47 to 40.

Laughlin and Hamlin enabled Medford to have rebounding margin of 31 to 19 for the game. Plumley because his infractions in the first half was out of the line-up for 12 minutes of the last half, but cleared eight boards in the first half and was leader for the game with 11 rebounds.

Eberhart, a strong Ashlander under the boards picked up his fourth foul in the second quarter and was held out of action by coach Earl Iba for some 13 minutes. Nevertheless, the Ashland red head was one of the high point men of the game with 13 Dailey was high for the contest with 14 and McLaughlin recorded 13.

Medford had a 418 field goal average on 18 for 43. The Tornado ability to get rebounds off its offensive board and to shake men loose for good shots helped its cause on the second half.

Butch Kimpton got 22 points in the Klamath win. Glenn Moore 17 and Cliff Sutherland 13. Larry Henderson topped GF with nine. Sutherland and Bo Niles were leaders as KF dominated GP 48 to 22 in backboard retrieving. The Pelicans hit 28 out of 33 free shot attempts, doubling on 13 trips to the line. Grants Pass made good on five of 18 tries.

Washington Staters Clip Oregon Webfoots 87 to 81

Pullman — (UP) — Charlie Franklin's 18 points on free throws in the Washington State-Oregon basketball game Friday night broke the Pacific Coast Conference free throw record of 17 set by Willie Naulls of UCLA and his total of 36 points broke Oregon's all-time individual scoring mark that Jim Loscutt set against Brigham Young.

Forward Larry Beck of Washington State also tied the PCC record with his 17 free throws.

Pullman — (UP) — Forwards Larry Beck and Charlie Franklin led a scoring duel between Washington State college and Oregon Friday night as the Cougars overpowered the Ducks 87-81, in a Pacific Coast conference basketball game.

The Duck's Franklin dished in nine field goals and 18 for 21 free shots and Beck canned eight goals and 17 of 20 gifts to lead the score columns at 36 and 33 points respectively.

Washington State began the scoring and led throughout the first half piling up a 10-point 41-31 margin at intermission.

The Ducks came back strong in the second half to wipe out

Spring Golf Handicap Set

Qualifying play in the men's spring golf handicap at Rogue Valley Country club will start on Monday, Feb. 4, and will continue through Sunday, March 3, chairman Bob Voegtly has announced.

First round of play is to be finished by March 10 and completion of the tourney by April 21 is planned.

Losers in the opening round will drop into the third flight, championship flight losers in the second round will go into the second flight and those who are beaten in the third set of championship scraps will go into the first flight.

Eagle Point—Eagle Point high added another victory to its unblemished Rogue league basketball record Friday night with a 64 to 39 triumph over Phoenix here.

It was the lone mix of the night in the loop. Illinois Valley's scheduled trip to Brookings was postponed because of the threat of icy conditions on Highway 101 over the Oregon mountains. The trip is to be made Tuesday. The two clubs, however, were to have met last night at Cave Junction. Sharp field shooting and control of the boards paid off for the Eagles. They averaged 467 in getting 21 field goals while Phoenix managed a 255 mark in getting 14. Rebound margin for the EP gang was 37 to 19. The Pirates pressed the Eagles part of the time but EP countered successfully with its fast break.

Quarterly margins were in EP favor at 13 to 6, 29 to 13 and 50 to 29. Eagle Point scoring leaders were Jack Greb 22, Wayne Christian 17 and Dennis Boren 13. Jim James hit 13 for Phoenix.

Prospect Takes Over Lone Lead in Jackson B Circuit

Prospect had lone command of first place in the Jackson County B Basketball league after loop contention reached its halfway point Friday night.

The Cougars moved out in the second half to whip Butte Falls 62 to 47 and become the only unbeaten member of the circuit. Previously, Butte Falls had been unmarred in loop play.

St. Mary's of Medford stayed in third place in the league with a 52 to 47 decision over Jacksonville. Talent held fourth place by itself after trimming Rogue River 44 to 30.

Prospect, ragged in the first half, pulled away in the last two periods. The game was close up to the midway point. The Cougars headed 18 to 16 at the quarter after lagging 11 to 16, fell behind 31 to 30 but led 34 to 31 at the half. They lengthened to 51 to 42 in the next eight minutes. Butte Falls closed the gap to 51 to 45 before Prospect began to move again.

Vannice Has 23
Don Vannice put in 23 points and Jim Daniels 14 for Prospect and Jim Irwin 15 and Bill Irwin 14 for Butte Falls. Rebounding helped the Cougars in the second half and Jim Daniels was the big gun.

St. Mary's was ahead of Jacksonville 20 to 11 at the first quarter of a rough ruckus. Coach Millard Webb sent in a few reserves at this point. The Crusader crew hurried its shots and Jacksonville seized the opportunity to control backboard play and comeback. SM was on top only 26 to 25 at the half.

The Medford club upped to 43 to 38 in the third chukker. It turned to some ball control in the final quarter and three jumper goals by Jerry Flakus helped the SM boys much.

Flakus was the game's high scorer with 15. Marion Dowell shot even free shots in eight attempts and had 13 markers for Jacksonville and Gary Heuers chalked up 12 for the Redskins.

26 to 8 At Half
Talent jumped to a first quarter lead of 12 to 2 and had a halftime bulge of 26 to 8. A scoring drought was the reason for only six third quarter count-

Ed Machen Gets Verdict Over Maxim

Miami Beach — (UP) — Young Eddie Machen looked around for a shot at somebody a step closer to Floyd Patterson and the heavyweight title, while aging Joey Maxim, not discouraged at his loss to Machin, looked for a "couple of breathers."

Machen, third-ranked heavyweight from Redding, Calif., came on like a young lion in the final rounds of Friday night's 10-round television bout to win a unanimous decision over the former light heavyweight champion after flooring him for a nine-count in the ninth at the Miami Auditorium.

Maxim weighed 192 for the fight and Machen 190½ pounds.

Bicyclist Has Spill

Cleveland, O. — (UP) — Australia's John Tressider, "Wild Man" of Cleveland's international six-day bicycle races who has been riding for a fall since the starting gun last Tuesday night, spilled Saturday while his team was leading the pack.

Tressider, who thrills the crowds with his reckless approach to a reckless sport, was taken to the arena clinic for x-ray examinations of his chest. An earlier spill had broken one of his ribs and he had been riding with it tightly taped. He was expected to re-enter the race, however.

At 1,191 miles, Tressider and team-mate Alfred Strom led nine other hardy teams with 474 sprint points but four other teams were equal in laps.

Crater Third In Mat Fray

Central Point — Crater high took third place and Don Hubbard, 177, and Glenn Boles, 165, won individual firsts in the Glendale wrestling tournament held Thursday and Friday.

Sutherlin was winner with 97 points and Illinois Valley followed with 61. Crater totaled 51. Glendale 49 and Douglas and Myrtle Creek each 31.

The Comets of Crater picked up nine places in the meet. Out of 20 boys who entered, 14 for Crater qualified for Friday action.

John German was runner-up to Boles for a second place, and Calvin Dixon was second at 147. John Taberna, 122, and Bill Reeves, 140, had thirds. Leigh-ton Skov, 135, took a fourth when an arm injury kept him out of the scrap for a third. Charles Warren, 98, and Jim Goldenpenny, heavyweight, also grabbed fourths.

Boys who finished third lost just one match.

Reinhart Named To Helms Hall

Eugene — (UP) — A former Oregon basketball coach has been named to the Helms college basketball Hall of Fame. It was announced Friday by officials of the Hall in Los Angeles.

Bill Reinhart joined a list of 33 coaches who have been honored by the organization in the past 10 years. He currently is coach at George Washington university. He was mentor of the Webfoots for 12 years before leaving in 1935.
