

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Edward Williams (Joan Dean) are pictured here after their wedding January 19 in First Presbyterian church. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. A. Z. Dean, 1006 South Oakdale avenue, and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Walter Faux, Table Rock road.

Mrs. Alexander Moore Hamilton Jr. was Elizabeth Jane McDowell before her marriage yesterday at Christ's Episcopal church, Washington, D.C. The wedding reception was in the Mayflower hotel. (Harris & Ewing photo)

Oregon's first lady, Mrs. Robert D. Holmes, wore this gown of white Chantilly lace over honey beige net for the presidential inaugural ball in Washington, D.C., Monday night. Mrs. Holmes also wore the gown for the ball which followed her husband's inauguration.

The former Joan Dean, who was married January 19 to Gordon Williams, enjoys a moment with her mother, brother and sister during the reception which followed the ceremony. About 250 guests attended the afternoon rites and the reception, also held in the church. Mrs. Robert C. Taylor, Medford, was honor attendant for her sister, and her brother, Charles, was one of the ushers.

Crater Lions' club will auction the services of Mrs. Marina Gates as a baby sitter during the club's March of Dimes auction program tomorrow night over KBES-TV. Mrs. Gates is pictured here with her god-child, son of the Don McNeils.

Also on the Crater Lions' auction block tomorrow night will be the culinary services of Jorgen E. Jorgensen, Medford dairyman, who has offered to cook a waffle supper in the home of the highest bidder.

Among the family guests at the Williams-Dean wedding last Saturday afternoon were the bride's two grandmothers. The newlyweds are shown here talking with Mrs. G. W. Dean (at left), who made her home in Medford for many years and who now lives in Jordan Valley, Ore., and Mrs. C. E. Gates, long-time resident of Jackson county. (Williams-Dean photos by Brainerd)

Oregon's new congressman for the fourth district, Charles O. Porter, is shown here with his family strolling on the capitol grounds. Congressman Porter was on the presidential reviewing stand last Monday for the inaugural ceremonies for President Dwight Eisenhower. Pictured are (left to right) Sam, Mrs. Mable Galassi, New York, mother of Mrs. Porter; Don, Mrs. Porter, Chris and Mr. Porter carrying his youngest child, Anne.