Catholic Church Is Scene Of Tabor-Heidemann Rites

Vases of white and yellow chrysanthemums decorated Sacred Heart Catholic church Saturday, January 12, for the 10 o'clock morning wedding of Miss Donna Carol Heidemann and Alfred Lee Tabor.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Heidemann, 1533 Grand avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tabor, Portland, and has been making his home at 113 1/2 Rose avenue, Medford. The Rev. Nicholas Deis officiated at the nuptial mass attended by 75 relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a white net and lace gown fashioned with lace bodice and lace panels in the skirt. The fitted bodice was accented with a wing collar and long sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held by a tangle of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of baby pink roses.

Miss Janet Pool was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of white net with blue trim and blue sequin hat. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Eugene Tabor served as best man for his brother and Jack and Gene McQuigg, cousins of the bride, seated the guests. Bruno Pellegrini played the traditional organ wedding music.

Following the service a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Heidemann, 1806 Thomas road, uncle and aunt of the bride. Mrs. Richard Kenner assisted at the reception. Mrs. Earl McQuigg, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Shirrell Doty. Mrs. Richard Kaye poured the coffee and Mrs. Richard Hawkins presided at the punch bowl. Miss Diana Heidemann and Miss Jean Heidemann were in charge of the guest book while Mrs. Ernest Taylor and Miss Beverly Taylor were at the gift table. Miss Sandra Heidemann greeted the guests at the door.

For her daughter's wedding, Knive-Fork Club To Hear Musician

Presbyterian Rites Marry Joan Dean, Gordon Williams

An event of Saturday, January 19, was the wedding of Miss Joan Dean, daughter of Mrs. A. Z. Dean, 1006 South Oakdale avenue, and the late Mr. Dean. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of mauve brocaded faille with white accessories and her corsage was a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams spent their honeymoon on the Oregon coast. The bride's traveling ensemble was a dress of beige wool worn with brown tweed jacket and brown accessories. The bride attended Medford High school, the University of Oregon and Southern Oregon college. She is an elementary classroom teacher for the Griffin Creek school. The bridegroom was graduated from Talent High school and is on the staff of Sierra-Cascade Lumber company. The couple will live at 1023 Hamilton street.

Among the wedding guests were Mrs. G. W. Dean, paternal grandmother of the bride, Jordan Valley, Ore.; Mrs. Roy Theilman, aunt of the bride from Bend, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dean, aunt and uncle from Redmond, Ore.

Teacher Honored At Two Parties

Miss Joan Dean, primary teacher at Griffin Creek school, was honored at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. L. G. Frink, 1634 Thomas road, before her marriage January 19 to Gordon Edward Williams.

Present were personnel of the school and Miss Dean's mother, Mrs. A. Z. Dean, Mrs. Walter Faux, the bridegroom's mother, and Mrs. G. W. Dean Jordan Valley, Ore., the bride's grandmother.

Room mothers and students of Miss Dean's class at the school surprised the bride-elect with a miscellaneous shower January 17. The party was held in the school dining room and the gifts were arranged in and near a large pink and white umbrella.

Streamers from the handle of the umbrella followed through the center of the serving tables and were decorated with orange blossoms.

The students, led by the honored guest, entertained their mothers with songs. Decorated cupcakes and other refreshments were served.

Newlyweds Live In Grants Pass

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Evans are making their home in Grants Pass following their marriage Thursday, January 10. The bride is the former Miss Sharon Lilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lilly, 406 South Riverside avenue, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans, Route 3, Box 734, Grants Pass. The marriage ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Ward Watson in Sutherlin, Ore.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and the bridegroom was graduated from Grants Pass High school. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lowe of Roseburg attended the newlywed couple at their wedding.

Washington Wedding of Interest Here

A wedding which took place in the nation's capital yesterday, January 26, is of wide interest in Jackson county. Miss Elizabeth Jane McDowell, daughter of Pierce H. McDowell, Sioux Falls, S. D., became the bride of Alexander Moore Hamilton Jr., in a ceremony held at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at Christ church, Episcopal. Dr. John Anschutz officiated.

The bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Moore Hamilton, 43 Rose avenue. The family has lived in the county many years, and Mr. Hamilton is postmaster for Medford.

The ceremony was followed by a reception given by the bride's father in the East room of the Mayflower hotel for 150 guests. The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon at Split Rock lodge in the Poconos mountains in Pennsylvania. They will live at 912 North Wayne street, Arlington, W. Va.

The bride's wedding gown of ice blue taffeta was cocktail length and designed on princess lines. It was worn with a lace pearl-trimmed jacket with three-quarter length sleeves, and her shoulder-length veil was held by a pearl crown. She carried a prayer book with phalaenopsis and stephanotis.

Miss Georgina Bailey, formerly of Sioux Falls and now of Washington, D.C., attended the bride. Her gown was of rose taffeta fashioned princess style with bow trim at the hip line. It was worn with a crown-shaped hat of ivory and she carried camellias and siesta roses in shades to match the dress.

Mr. McDowell gave his daughter in marriage and Robert Monroe, New Orleans, La., was best man for Mr. Hamilton. Ushers were John DeZell, Medford, Peter Olson and T. P. Forbes, both Washington.

Bouquets of white snapdragons and carnations stood at either side of the altar. For the wedding the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of grey lace over pink taffeta with a pale pink flower hat and a fur stole. Her corsage was of violets and pink rosebuds. The bride's traveling attire was a salt and pepper tweed suit with black accessories and hat to match.

The bride, who attended Carle-
