

Chapel Rites In California Wed Couple

Tarzana, Calif.—Little Chapel of the Dawn in Tarzana, Calif., was the setting Saturday, January 19, for the 6 o'clock afternoon wedding of Mrs. Peggy Bray Dixon and Charles Williamson Hamilton. The bride is a daughter of Dr. J. P. Bray, Lozier lane, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. William K. Hamilton, Santa Monica, Calif.

The Rev. Calvin Duncan of St. James Presbyterian church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Rose and white chrysanthemums with white candelabra and candles decorated the chapel where more than 100 friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by Dean S. Landy, her brother-in-law, chose an ice pink brocaded satin dress in ballerina length sewn with pink pearls. She wore an heirloom Spanish drawn lace mantilla and carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and pink carnellias.

Mrs. Dean S. Landy served her sister as matron of honor. She wore a rose pink faille dress in ballerina length and carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink roses.

William K. Hamilton Jr. served as best man for his brother and Peter Valentine and Gordon Watson seated the guests.

Joe Waugh was soloist. Following the ceremony a reception was held at home of Mrs. David Jones, sister of the bridegroom in Santa Monica.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Hamilton wore a dress of rose silk with gardenia corsage.

The bride chose for her traveling attire a sand brown knit dress. The newlywed couple visited Big Bear and Palm Springs, Calif., on their wedding trip.

The bride attended University of Oregon. The bridegroom attended Santa Monica City college. They are both students at the University of California at Los Angeles and will make their home in Corvallis, Ore., in late February.

Muriel Burgess Honored at Sunday Evening

Eagle Point—Miss Muriel Yvonne Burgess, of the Eagle Point Seventh-day Adventist church was honored with a bridal shower Sunday evening, January 20. It was given by Mrs. Herschel Harper and Mrs. Ernest Hesser at the home of Mrs. Victor Bartholomew, A gate road, Eagle Point.

Games were played and musical numbers given by Misses Edith Clark and Carole Pershall. A specially decorated cake was baked for the occasion by Mrs. Hesser.

Miss Burgess' fiancé, Vernon Baldwin formerly of Shady Cove, is in Naval service and stationed at Pensacola, Fla. The wedding is scheduled for Sunday, February 17 at the Grants Pass Seventh-day Adventist church.

Miss Burgess is a former student of Walla Walla college, Washington.

Mrs. Holly Michael, and Mrs. C. N. Stiger, Punch was served by Miss Judy Finnegan, and coffee by Mrs. William Kyker, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Duane Gleaves was in charge of the guest book, and the gifts were cared for by Mrs. Edward Setzler, Mrs. Herbert Good and Mrs. Dale McCay.

For her going-away costume, Mrs. Clark wore a pink tweed suit with a pink velvet bandeau. After a honeymoon trip to California points, Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home at 317 North Ivy street.

Several parties have honored the young couple during the past few weeks. December 30 a group of Miss Kyker's college friends, home for the holidays, gave a shower for her at the home of Mrs. Duane Gleaves, January 15, Mrs. Wayne Dickinson and Mrs. Frank Converse were co-hostesses for a miscellaneous shower held at the latter's home. Before the wedding rehearsal on January 17 the bridegroom's parents entertained 20 guests at dinner at the Hotel Medford. Present were members of the wedding party and the two families.

Both the bride and the bridegroom attended Medford High school as members of the class of 1955. Mrs. Clark attended Oregon State college and is employed in the office of the Shell Oil company. Mr. Clark attended Oregon Technical Institute and is employed at Jorgensen's Dairy. Both families have lived in Medford many years.
