

SHADY COVE-TRAIL Plan Purchase Of New Bus

By EVALYN P. WATSON
Shady Cove-Trail — Members of the Shady Cove school board met Thursday, Jan. 24, to discuss, among other matters, the possibility of purchasing a new school bus. The school board is working on the school budget and is sponsoring an information campaign on the school bills in the legislature now. One of these is the reorganization measure for proposed increase in the basic school support fund.

At the next meeting of the Shady Cove PTA, to be held the second Tuesday in February, the new film strips and projector, which was given to the school without charge will be exhibited.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Postma of Sanborn, Iowa, are visiting their niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leaming of Shady Cove.

Mrs. Carl Jenkins and children, Lorraine and Carl, left this week for San Diego, Calif., where they plan to live. Jenkins will remain here for the present.

Hank Davis is vacationing in Mexico with his father, Jimmy Davis, of Shady Cove.

The snowfall these past few days, while not a heavy one, has necessitated the cancelling of some meetings, among which was the Thursday meeting of Our Lady of Fatima club.

The wedding of Miss Muriel Burgess to Vernon Carr Baldwin will take place in Grants Pass Sunday, Feb. 17 at the Seventh Day Adventist church. Vernon Baldwin, who is the son of Mrs. Ralph Lane of Salinas, formerly lived with his family in Shady Cove, graduating from the Shady Cove grammar school and later from the Eagle Point High school. Following his graduation he attended Oregon State college for a year before entering the Navy.

The regular meeting of the Elk-Trail PTA will be held Friday, Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the lunchroom of the Elk-Trail school. The third grade mothers will serve. A Founder's Day program will follow the meeting. Everyone is urged to come and see the children participate in the program called "A Peek of the Past."

Word from Sara Strothers tells us that she is convalescing at her daughter's home in Longview and that she and her husband are planning to return to their home in Shady Cove about the second week in February. She said she appreciated receiving all the nice cards and flowers from friends in the area.

Dale Sawyer of Shady Cove has been confined to Sacred Heart hospital where he has been undergoing tests prior to surgery. He has returned home for a few days but expects to re-enter the hospital in Tuesday to undergo major surgery Wednesday.

has been named Starlene Dee.

Mr. and Mrs. Zane Bidwell of Shady Cove are the parents of a baby boy born last week in Medford.

Bill Roling, District Governor of the Lion's club visited the Shady Cove-Trail Lions club at their meeting Wednesday evening. Dr. Howard Ferguson of Shady Cove showed films of his trip to Europe.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

Word has been received of the birth of a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Leekey of 4107 36th street, San Diego, Calif. The Leekeys formerly lived in Shady Cove at Far Hills ranch and Bob Leekey is the son of Bill Leekey of Shady Cove. The baby, who was born Jan. 7 weighed seven pounds, six ounces at birth and

Mugs Collect Funds For March of Dimes

Ashland — The Mugs, off-campus service-social organization at Southern Oregon college, have begun an all-out drive for contributions for the Ashland March of Dimes campaign.

The group started activities Tuesday when they conducted a downtown window wash in Ashland. Group officials said more than $80 was raised from businessmen as the downtown area was canvassed and many business windows washed.

All contributions for the Mugs' services will be donated to the Ashland March of Dimes. Tuesday night the group played SOC faculty in a comedy basketball game between halves of the OTI-SOC game, at which $11 was raised for the March of Dimes.

New Haven, Conn. — (U.P.) — Another body was found in the ruins of a garment factory fire Friday, raising the toll to five dead. Four others were missing and 29 were in hospitals with burns and injuries.

Tokyo — (U.P.) — Mamoru Shigemitsu, Japan's recently retired foreign minister, died Friday.
