Society Admits New Members; Works Selected

Southern Oregon Society of Artists held the January meeting at Camp White, with new officers for the year presiding.

Pictures for display in the Medford store were chosen by vote and picture of the Month, shown in Barker's Men's store, is a watercolor, entitled, "Glimpse Into the Old World."

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Eyerly, Mrs. Collins and William Fontaine. After the business meeting, Clifford Platz introduced Mr. Fontaine, who showed some of his wood carvings and gave a short talk about his work and answered questions regarding his methods of work.

Mr. Platz displayed an oil painting in the modern trend and portrayed in a symbolic design, the various ways and means that mankind achieve their goal in life.
