Beck Paces WSC Victory Over Oregon

Pullman, Wash. — (U.P.) — Forward Larry Beck canned a barrage of free throws in the second half to lead Washington State to a 75-67 Pacific Coast basketball victory Saturday night.

The Cougar scoring set a new PCC free throw scoring record by sinking 21 of 26 shots, 17 in the second half, to best his old mark of 19 made against the University of Idaho last year.

The Ducks came on strong in the first half leading most of the way and by 34-33 margin at halftime. The lead changed hands three times in the first six minutes of the second half but Beck sent the Cougars out front to stay with a couple of gift shots.

Oregon Trout Season Will Open April 27; Forest Lakes May 25

Portland — (U.P.) — The trout season in Oregon will open April 27 and close Oct. 31, the State Game Commission decided Saturday in adopting final regulations.

For lakes, reservoirs and their tributaries within national forest boundaries, the season will open May 25 and close Oct. 6. The commission stuck close to tentative rules adopted earlier, but did extend winter steelhead season in two coast streams, the Wilson and Alsea. The two streams will remain open until March 17, allowing an extra three week ends for steelheading. The extension was made so the commission can make a close test of the streams.

Gene Fullmer Heavy Favorite For Ruckus With Wilf Greaves

New York — (U.P.) — A non-title bout between middleweight champion Gene Fullmer and Wilf Greaves tonight at Salt Lake City, Utah, features this week's national boxing program.

Fullmer is such a heavy favorite-rounder that no odds were being quoted by Broadway price-makers.

It will mark Fullmer's first fight since he won the 180-pound crown from Sugar Ray Robinson at Madison Square Garden, Jan. 2. The Utah belter plans to engage in several of these turn-up bouts before meeting Robinson again, possibly at Chicago in April.

Greaves, a Canadian-born fighter now residing in Pittsburgh, won 10 of 12 bouts last year, five via knockouts. He has an overall 11-3-1 record compared to Fullmer's 33-8-3 mark.

Tony Dibiase, a promising New York welterweight, and Chris Christensen of Denmark swap punches in a widely-televised Dumont bout tonight at St. Nicholas Arena. The odds on this one are 6-5, pick 'em.

Bruins Will Tussle OSC In PCC Mix

Southern California	1	3	259	272
Idaho	2	6	489	507
Oregon	1	5	347	397

The UCLA Bruins put their unblemished 4-0 conference mark on the line Friday night against Oregon State while the other two clubs of the Pacific Coast conference "big three"—California and Washington—take a week off.

The Bruins, hoping to take the conference championship even though ineligible for the NCAA playoffs, take on the Beavers Friday and Saturday, hoping the northerners are still stunned by twin defeats over the week end at the hands of Washington.

Doug Smart and Bruno Boin did most of the damage in the Huskie's wins. Smart led the scoring both nights, pouring in 22 points Friday then coming back with 20 Saturday. Washington coasted in 64-53 in the first contest, but had to come from behind with a string of 13 straight points at the end to pull out the second game 58-51.

California, the prohibitive odds favorite to represent the conference in the NCAA with both UCLA and Washington out of the running, got by a pesky Stanford five Friday night to preserve its 6-0 record.

Washington State two-timed Oregon 87-81 and 74-47. In other action this week, Oregon takes on Washington in Seattle Tuesday; Stanford plays Oregon on the Ducks' home court Friday and Saturday; and Southern California plays Hawaii twice in Honolulu.

In the California Basketball association it looks like this: Friday — Loyola at St. Mary's, Pepperdine at University of San Francisco and San Jose State at College of Pacific.

Saturday — Pepperdine at St. Mary's, Fresno State at COP and Loyola at USF.

Santa Clara, tied for the CBA top-rung with St. Mary's at 3-1, had no trouble with Stanford Saturday night as forward Dick Garibaldi potted 19 points to lead the Broncos to a 77-61 win.

Poujade's Career May Be Destroyed

Paris — (U.P.) — Paris voters may have all but destroyed the brief and colorful career of anti-tax leader Pierre Poujade, results of a National Assembly run-off election indicated today.

Tardieu also won the bye-election Jan. 2, but his majority was not large enough and French law necessitated Sunday's runoff.

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — Management specialists for its Klamath Indian tribe have officially gone on record as favoring stop gap legislation which would make three provisions.

TWIN TRACTION... a Studebaker-Packard FIRST so good other cars will copy it

WHAT IS IT? Twin-Traction Differential gives you new pavement-gripping traction and new safe control impossible with conventional differentials. The secret lies in the fact that the Twin-Traction Differential delivers the major part of the engine's power to the rear wheel with the best traction—instead of the wheel with the poorest traction (as in a conventional differential). The result—roadability that's better in six important ways:

1. In ice, snow or mud, Twin Traction gets you out of spots where cars with conventional differentials would "spin their wheels."
2. In highway driving, it protects against skids that might otherwise occur when one rear wheel hits a slippery spot.
3. On sharp turns, it improves roadability by applying the major driving force to the inside rear wheel. This also tends to compensate for over-steering.
4. On rough or washboard roads, it reduces the rear-end bounce, sidesway or swerve which results from a fast-spinning wheel suddenly hitting the pavement again.
5. When one rear wheel goes off the pavement onto a soft shoulder, Twin Traction directs the driving force to the other rear wheel, assuring safe, positive control.
6. In ordinary driving, Twin Traction cuts tire wear by assuring more positive traction.

Test it, yourself, today. See your Studebaker-Packard Dealer for a demonstration drive!
