

ILLINOIS VALLEY Club To Repair Mail Boxes

By HELMS BOTTLE
Cave Junction—Members of Illinois Valley 4-H Livestock club are currently working on two projects. As a public service they have volunteered to repair old mail boxes, or construct new ones, for families living on rural routes in Illinois Valley.

At their next meeting on Feb. 19, the club will start making tack boxes to hold exhibitors' equipment at the county fair. The work shop will be at the Mike Nicholson home on the Holland Loop.

Leader Tex Clifford invited the group to the Q-Bar-X ranch in Kerby for their last meeting on January 22. The junior leader is Clark England, a sophomore at Illinois Valley high school. Officers are Wendell Seat, president; Ralph Burns Jr., vice president; Oliver Wilson, secretary and Wesley Nicholson, song leader.

Moore Mill at O'Brien, down since before Christmas, has called back several of its employees to get the mill in shape for its tentative re-opening early this month.

Veterans of World War I made plans for organizing an auxiliary at their meeting Tuesday night, Jan. 22, in Cave Junction.

Nomination and election of officers is set for the next meeting.

Guests of the Henry Gammels on Rockydale road last Saturday were Hanks nephew and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Lee of Eugene. They were on a wedding trip to California.

Date for the Illinois Valley Soil Conservation district's annual meeting was tentatively set for March 9 at a planning session held here Saturday.

Reports on the district progress and plans will be made at the all-day conference which is to be held at the Legion hall in Cave Junction. A steak barbeque will be served at noon.

Preparations for the Lion's annual extravaganza "Skimming Low," got underway here Tuesday, Jan. 22, when the local Lions met at the Eagles hall in Kerby.

Wes Peters, a past president, was named general chairman of the event which will be held April 26 and 27.

A total of 630 children were given polio shots at the two polio clinics conducted here on Wednesday, Jan. 23, and Monday, Jan. 28, at the Illinois Valley High school and Kerby grade school. Dr. C. N. Versteeg administered the vaccine. He was assisted by Public Health Nurse Martha Woolley and volunteers from Valley Parent Teachers association.

The Rev. Martin Brown of the Bridgeview Community church was elected president of the Illinois Valley Ministerial association at a recent held at

Illinois Valley 4-H

Grouping Cows by Age

Cave Junction—Commercial apple orchards are being discussed in the Illinois Valley as a possible means of increasing another industry in the area.

Although several property owners have already put in apple acreages, most are awaiting word sought by the Illinois Valley Chamber of Commerce on shipping and marketing prospects.

If selling futures prove favorable, an organization similar to the Southern Oregon Christmas Tree Association may be formed in the valley.

In-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Elliott of Central Point. Movies of the family's Christmas re-union were shown later in the day.

Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Collman were hosts at a birthday party given for Ken Hamilton last Sunday.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bessars and Mr. and Mrs. Don McClure.

Leaving Friday for Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hadley and their two children Cheri and Dana. They plan to visit Hadley's mother, Mrs. Lena Hadley and his sisters and brothers at Eaton Rapids before traveling south.

Mrs. Lena Hadley is a house mother at the famed VFW National Home for war widows and orphans at Eaton Rapids.

Martin T. Rouse, whose house was destroyed by fire last Wednesday is staying with neighbors, the L. E. Warrens at Rough and Ready flats. His daughter Lantha, an Illinois Valley high school student, is a guest at the Robert Martin home at the Illinois Valley dairy. Rouse lost all his possessions in the fire, but Lantha was able to save her clothes and a few personal items which were stored in her sleeping quarters at the guest house behind the main building.

Steelhead fishing at the falls on the Illinois river above Kerby has been fairly good this year. A number of Grants Pass and Medford fishermen have tried their luck here in spite of snow and freezing weather. Anglers are hoping the fish will come down to more accessible places near Kerby and Cave Junction before the season ends on Feb. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis, enroute home from an extended trip in the east, are now in Mission, Texas, their former home. They plan to see Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. Lane Masten in Illinois on the next leg of their journey.

Washington—(U.P.)—President Eisenhower will leave here early Saturday for a two-day visit in Augusta, Ga., the White House announced today.

Dead line Sunday classified is at noon Saturday.

HORN BROOK Women At Work On Quilt

By MRS. M. E. CHAMBERLAIN

Hornbrook—The Women's Society of the Community Bible church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Breede. Five members were present, Mrs. Maude Spearin, Mrs. Carroll Funk, Mrs. Alfred King, Mrs. Gordon Titus, wife of the pastor, and the hostess. The ladies are cutting out blocks and piecing a quilt. And also making baby clothes which will be sent to missionaries to be distributed to needy Koreans.

The meeting of the Women's Society of the Methodist church, which was scheduled for the same date, was postponed due to the snow storm.

In spite of the snow, the cold, and the icy condition of the roads, 36 friends of Mrs. Richard Campbell, nee Sally Jeter, turned out Saturday evening to honor her at a bridal shower.

The affair was held in the Fireside room of the Hornbrook Community church, and was sponsored by the Women's Society. Entertainment for the evening consisted of the playing of word games, and the singing of two numbers by a group of high school girls. "I Would Be True," a favorite of Mrs. Campbell's when she attended Sunday school here, and another song, "Sally Campbell," adopted to the tune of "Peggy O'Neil."

As Sally opened her many gifts, her remarks were taken down unknown to her, by Mrs. Ruth Cummins, who later presented them to her for her scrapbook.

Out of town guests included Mrs. James M. Allen, and Miss Richard A. Campbell, grand-mother and mother of Sally's husband, both from Yreka, Mrs. R. R. Renfro of Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Lawrence Guthrie of Arcadia, Kans. aunts of Sally and Mrs. Leland Stickey of Medford, a long time friend.

Mrs. Renfro and Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie were week end guests of Mrs. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Everett Jeter, the ladies are sisters of Mrs. Jeter.

Miss Mary Lee Rutledge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rutledge, and Miss Sharee Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walsh are among the 20 delegates from Yreka high school selected to attend the Girl's League conference to be held at Richardson Springs on March 30 and 31.

Among college students home this week between sessions from Chico State college are Miss Arlene Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ardon Burns, Bill Jeter, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Everett Jeter, and Glen Shinar, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shinar.

At the public joint installation of officers of Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33, and IOOF Lodge No. 19 of Yreka held in the Odd Fellows hall in Yreka on Saturday, Jan. 26, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rue were installed as officers for the ensuing year. Both were installed by proxy. Rue in the office of outside guardian and Mrs. Rue in the office of conductor and right altar bearer. She also is a member of the drill team. A pot-luck supper preceded the ceremonies. Mrs. Ed Mason attended as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rue.

Copco—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Finch spent the weekend of Jan. 11 in Sacramento and San Francisco on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sargent and children of Grants Pass, Ore., were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Truinger and children.

Savings Deposited
by the 10th of the month

earn from the 1st of the month at . . .

JACKSON COUNTY FEDERAL Savings & Loan Assn.
WHERE YOUR SAVINGS EARN MORE.
126 East Main

both mother and daughter love Helene Curtis permanent waves from Our Salon is staffed by talented stylists and beauticians, where mother and daughter's get the longest lasting, most flattering hair styles possible. Helene Curtis waves are the favorite . . . they are so soft and gentle and so easy to manage—you'll be pleasantly surprised.

priced from just . . . 7.50
haircuts from 1.50

call 2-6434 tomorrow for an appointment soon . . .
Mann's beauty salon . . . 2nd floor

Dear the decks here comes double treat by R & K . . .

Two fashion silhouettes for the price of one! It's R & K's sheer crepe sheath iced with a fresh white collar and boasting a detachable lined cape to change your mode with your mood. Size 12-18 just . . . 25.00

Glenhaven's pique collared tropicrisp

The look and feel of fine worsted that proves itself a leader in any fashion parade. Pique collar is detachable. The slim double-breasted effect provides a trim silhouette—sizes 10-20 . . . Just . . .

25.95

the handbags . . .
Just arrived in leather or straw—have extra roomy pockets, exciting new details—in red, navy or white . . . tiny priced from 2.98 plus tax the gloves . . .

New "leather-spun" nylon fits like no other glove could . . . in red, white, navy and others . . . short cuffed style just 2.00 . . . sheered top . . . 3.00

the shoes by Tweedie . . .
Top: the perennial navy pump—here in top grade calf . . . 2 2/8 heel . . . just 15.98
Left: designer detailed red calf—our very finest . . . just 14.98 both styles in a complete range of sizes.

the hats . . .
Red roses blooming on spring's prettiest, and newest straws . . . created by the head gardener . . . they're a delight worth seeing, so come and be delighted by trying on the whole collection . . . tiny priced from 5.95 to 10.95

P.S. hats make exciting Valentines . . . from . . .

nice legwork for cupid . . .

Luxury Nylons
by Archer

For curve clinging—full-fashioned sheer chiffons . . . lovely women find the answer in Archer stockings they are crystal clear and flawless and more the pleasure of giving due to controlled twisting of finest possible nylon, the life of these beauties is prolonged to a practical longevity . . . with slenderizing seam . . .

you'll find Archer hose exclusively at . . .

