

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Willard (Curtwright Photo Lab)

Willard-Chamberlin Rites Held in Adventist Church

Miss Darlene L. Chamberlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Chamberlin, 2312 Roberts road, Medford, became the bride of Robert D. Willard, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Willard, Provo, Utah, in a ceremony held Saturday, January 26, at the Valley View Seventh Day Adventist church.

Elder Floyd Breesee officiated at the 7:30 o'clock ceremony attended by 250 relatives and friends. Soloists were Jim Kempster and Mrs. Harvard Breesee.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice. Her bouquet was of baby pink roses with stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Eugene Willard, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. She wore a ballerina length dress of blue taffeta with white accessories and pink net headband. Miss Norma Jean Brainard and Miss Gayle Wheeler were bridesmaids. They were dressed in pink taffeta gowns with white accessories with blue net headbands. Miss Ruth Walker and Leonard Yost were candlelighters. Miss Walker was dressed as the bridesmaid, Little Erlene Rahl was flowergirl and Terry Breesee was Bible boy.

Eugene Willard served as best man for his brother and Jim

Hamiltons Return From Trip East; Honored at Events

Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton returned home last week after having been in Washington, D.C., for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth McDowell to their oldest son, Alexander Moore Hamilton Jr. The ceremony was held January 26 in Christ Episcopal church, with reception following at the Mayflower hotel.

Among the wedding guests were Senator and Mrs. Wayne Morse of Oregon and their daughter, Miss Amy Morse, student at the University of North Carolina; Senator Richard Neuberger of Oregon; Senator and Mrs. Karl Mundt of South Dakota; Senator and Mrs. Francis Case of South Dakota; Congressman and Mrs. Charles O. Porter and Congressman and Mrs. Walter Norblad, Oregon; Congressman E. Y. Berry and former Congressman Harold Love of South Dakota; Congressman Donald L. Jackson of California, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Jackson; William Berg administrative assistant to Senator Morse, and Mrs. Berg; Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Crouch, formerly of Medford and now of Philadelphia, and their son James Crouch, student at the University of Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, Medford; Mr. Harold Say, formerly of Portland and now of Washington; Mrs. Ernest Rostel, formerly of Medford and now of Washington.

Senator and Mrs. Morse honored the Hamiltons at a luncheon January 25 in the Senate dining room. Among the guests were Charles Brook of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ellickson, Eugene. The Hamiltons were also guests in the Morse home for the week end and during that time met Mrs. Owen L. Scott, wife of the executive editor of United States News and World Report, another guest of the Morges.

Also entertaining for the Hamiltons was Mrs. Rostell, who gave a dinner for them at the Water Gate inn. Twelve guests attended, including Mr. and Mrs. Russell Andrews, formerly of Medford and now of Washington.

Married

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Ann Funderburg of Pine Bluff, Ark., to Lee S. Bullis. The ceremony took place January 30 and the newlyweds are living in Little Rock, Ark., where Mr. Bullis is on the staff of a broadcasting station. He is the son of Beth M. Bullis, Florence avenue, Medford.

Annual Benefit Event Set By Beta Sigma Phi Chapter

One of the first social events to welcome spring this year will be the annual benefit card party and fashion show sponsored by Alpha Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. It will be held at Rogue Valley Country club on Monday, February 11, with luncheon to be served at 12 noon. Decorations will be in a Valentine theme.

During the luncheon a style show will feature fashions from Rath's, Burelson's and Jean Hart's stores. This year mature fashions will also be shown. And as an added feature, there will

PEO Sisterhood Marks Founding With Luncheon

Founders' day of the PEO sisterhood was celebrated with a luncheon Saturday, January 26, at the Rogue Valley Country club. Tables were attractively decorated with acacia, greenery, and yellow candles, with place cards also in the color scheme.

The four Medford chapters were represented, with the program in charge of Mrs. Fletcher Fish of Chapter BE. The meeting began with an invocation offered by Mrs. Allan Perry. The chairman introduced Mrs. E. A. Moore, the organizer of Medford PEO in 1922, who gave interesting sidelights on the beginning of Chapter AA. The members of the different chapters were introduced by their presidents, and short speeches were made by unaffiliated members.

Musical numbers were presented. Mrs. De Vere Taylor gave a piano selection and Mrs. Jack Harris sang, accompanied by Mrs. Taylor.

As a tribute to the seven founders of PEO, the chairman gave a short history of each one, accompanied by a candle-lighting ceremony, the participants being Mrs. Donald Whalin, Chapter AA; Mrs. E. J. O'Bullivan, Chapter CG; Mrs. Jack Seaborn, Chapter CP.

Committees in charge of the event were Mrs. Orel Welch, Mrs. De Vere Taylor and Mrs. Orville Hamilton of Chapter BE; for the program; Mrs. R. J. Cunningham, Mrs. H. D. Christensen, Mrs. John C. Collins of Chapter AA, for place cards; Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew and Mrs. G. T. Haupt of Chapter CG; Mrs. J. A. Graft and Mrs. T. M. Garhart of Chapter CP, for decorations.

Newlywed Couple Lives in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eugene Stevens are making their home in Medford at 525 South Central avenue, after their marriage in Springfield, Ore., in December. Mrs. Stevens is the former Miss Gloria Annette Sunderland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selmer Sunderland, Springfield. Mr. Stevens is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stevens, 546 Fairmont avenue, Medford.

After a wedding trip to the coast the couple arrived in Medford where they will live while Mr. Stevens continues his studies at Southern Oregon college.

The bride attended Springfield schools and attended the University of Oregon last year. The bridegroom graduated from Medford schools and also attended the university. He is now in his second year majoring in engineering.

Lady Elks Plan Dance Saturday

It isn't Leap Year, but Lady Elks are giving a dance Saturday February 9 in the upper hall of the Elks club. Hours will be from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.

The Starlighters from Klamath Falls will provide the music. This is a return engagement for this band, and many who attended the first dance say the band plays the best swing music in southern Oregon.

Casualness is the theme for the evening, and "loud shirts and bright skirts" are in order. All Elks and their guests are invited. Refreshments will be served.

On the committee are Mesdames Frank Little, chairman, John Henson, Lew Miles, Larry Rose, Thomas Anderson, Robert Reynolds and Eugene Peterson.

Lady Elks will meet in the Elks' lounge for a salad luncheon and cards Tuesday, February 5, at 1 p.m. All wives of Elks are invited.

Mrs. J. N. Agee, Mrs. A. B. Davis and Mrs. H. U. Mitchell will be hostesses.

Children's Fashions From the Big Y Tot Shop

Modeling will be members of the sorority and their children.

Following the luncheon and fashion show, guests may play bridge, canasta or pinocchle. There will be high and low prizes for each table.

Those interested may phone Mrs. Richard Henselman, 4-3119 or Mrs. James Chapman, 2-4369 for reservations.

The chapter has sponsored the benefit card party for the past five years and each year the proceeds have been donated to some worthy project. Last year the funds were used for a nursing scholarship that enabled a needy Medford senior high school girl to attend nursing school. This year the proceeds will again be used for this purpose.

General chairman for the event are Mrs. Raymond Morton and Mrs. William Werner.

They are being assisted by the following committees: Decorations, Mrs. Robert McIntyre, chairman, Mrs. Dan Kidd, Mrs. Wayne Giles, Mrs. Jerry McDougall, Mrs. Paul Anthony, Mrs. Robert Hankins, Mrs. Gerald True; hostesses, Mrs. David Legg, chairman, Mrs. Wayne Giles, Mrs. James Tengstedt and Mrs. James Sullivan, prizes, Mrs. Larry Allen, chairman, Mrs. J. M. Paulazzo, Miss Shirley Bowlin, Mrs. Richard Riggs; tableys, Mrs. Marcus McKenzie, chairman, Mrs. Donald Lue, Mrs. John Lynch; favors, Mrs. Edward Bunnell, chairman, Mrs. Fred Danielsen; program, Mrs. William Tycor, chairman, Mrs. William Singler; reservations, Mrs. Richard Henselman, chairman, Mrs. James Chapman, Mrs. Harry Barker, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Allen; publicity, Mrs. Bob G. Morris, chairman, Mrs. Johanna Middleton.

Auditions Announced By Guild

Philharmonic Society Guild announced that auditions will be held February 27 for a female vocal soloist to sing in the spring concert of the Symphony orchestra Sunday afternoon, March 5.

Guild members believe there is a great deal of musical talent in the valley and hope all who are interested will enter the auditions.

Entries must be made by mail to The Philharmonic Guild, 810 North Berkeley Way, Medford. Each entrant is asked to include her name, address, phone number and type of voice in the application.

At the auditions each will be asked to sing an aria from an opera, oratorio or light opera, and also a second suitable song. A panel of impartial judges will select the winner, the guild states.

At the concert the winner will sing the aria she has selected with the orchestra accompanying her, and a group of English songs with piano accompaniment.

Bruno Pellegrini, local pianist, will be available for accompanying at the auditions. However, parents may bring their own accompanist if they wish.

The chairman of the auditions committee is Mrs. Charles Froeman. She will be assisted by the president of the guild, Mrs. Milo Kubalek and a committee of Guild members.

Time and place of auditions will be announced at a later date.

Valentine's Day Chosen for Rites

Miss Shirley Kenner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Kenner, 327 Oakdale street, was honored by a bridal shower January 17 at the home of Mrs. Lyle Heidemann, 1906 Thomas road.

Assisting Mrs. Heidemann were Mrs. C. P. Smole and Mrs. Claude Owsley.

Miss Kenner is the bride-elect of Larry McNealy who is now serving in the United States Navy. Valentine day wedding is planned by the couple in Medford.

Meeting Planned For Cow Belles

Jackson county Cow Belle's association will hold a joint session with the Jackson county Stockmen's association Monday, February 11, at the Central Point Grange hall at 10 a.m. Luncheon will be served by the Grange members and officers will be elected.

The new beef candy and the Cow Belle's cook book will be available at the meeting.

Miss Constance Clark of Medford has been elected president of Phi Beta Phi sorority on the Willacott campus for the coming semester. A junior majoring in sociology, Mrs. Clark entered Willacott university on an Elk Lumber company scholarship. She is a graduate of Medford High school and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martley, 59 Rose avenue.

Parties Raise Large Sum

More than $1000 has been raised by women of Jackson county for the 1937 polio drive through coffee, according to Mrs. Earl Miller, county chairman. Mrs. Miller is hopeful that when all reports are in, the sum will be about $1,300. Mrs. Kenneth Campbell is Medford chairman.

One of the largest of the parties was given last Thursday at Men Dear Inn by Mrs. Julie Tummers, owner of the inn. She was assisted by Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Campbell, and a number of women for several towns and cities in the county.

About 125 women attended the party at the inn. Mrs. Tummers provided a small fashion show for the guests. Clothing from Burelson's was modeled by Mrs. Marjorie Green of the store, and Mrs. Edward Bunnell.

In addition to coffee, petits fours and cookies imported from Medford were served.

Also entertaining at a March of Dimes coffee last week was Mrs. Orval Kelly, 1629 Thomas road. Mrs. Kelly's guests were Mrs. Ralph Dillon, Mrs. George Mero, Mrs. Herman Kampman, Mrs. Marjorie Tolle, Mrs. Glen Best, Mrs. Glenn Hunter, Mrs. Edwin Larson, Mrs. Lewis Clark, Mrs. Wesley Christlieb and Mrs. Dean Kelly. A total of $17 was collected for the polio fund.

Joyettes to Hold Session Wednesday

Medford Joyettes will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Don Carlin, 106 E. 8th street, Wednesday, February 6 at 8 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Jones and Mrs. Gary Shuler.

The meeting will be followed by cards for those wishing to participate.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lamb and children, Frank and Linda, have arrived from Holbrook, Neb., to make their home in Medford. Mrs. Lamb is a daughter of J. H. Harper, 264 Crater Lake highway.

Patricia Lydiard To Be Hostess for United Airlines

Miss Patricia Ann Lydiard will have Medford February 9 for Cheyenne, Wyo., where she will be trained by United Airlines as one of their hostesses. Miss Lydiard, a daughter of Mrs. J. S. Lydiard, 16 Geneva street, was graduated from the University of Oregon last June and then traveled in Mexico during the summer.

She will return to Medford the first of the week after visiting friends on the campus of the university, and in Portland. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Artcarved
AMERICA'S MOST TRUSTED DIAMOND RINGS
Guaranteed for Lasting Value
by the Artcarved Permanent Value Plan

One of the largest of the parties was given last Thursday at Men Dear Inn by Mrs. Julie Tummers, owner of the inn. She was assisted by Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Campbell, and a number of women for several towns and cities in the county.

Also entertaining at a March of Dimes coffee last week was Mrs. Orval Kelly, 1629 Thomas road. Mrs. Kelly's guests were Mrs. Ralph Dillon, Mrs. George Mero, Mrs. Herman Kampman, Mrs. Marjorie Tolle, Mrs. Glen Best, Mrs. Glenn Hunter, Mrs. Edwin Larson, Mrs. Lewis Clark, Mrs. Wesley Christlieb and Mrs. Dean Kelly. A total of $17 was collected for the polio fund.

LAWRENCE'S
Southern Oregon's Finest Silversmiths
Specializing in Fine Diamonds And Watches, Tool
130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908

Be my Valentine

Your Portrait CAN MAKE ONE HEART BEAT FASTER On Valentine's Day

Far better than a plush heart and fancy lace to say "I love you" is a professionally made portrait. So... why not make one heart beat faster this Valentine's Day... with your portrait. Brainerd's CAMERAS PHOTOGRAPHS 120 East Main St.

PHONE 2-5238

FOR ALL YOUR PHOTOGRAPHIC NEEDS - IT'S...

Don't Miss the

TOWNE and COUNTRY SHOP'S

Fabulous

2 FOR 1 SALE

NEVER Such SAVINGS in Our History... BUY 1 Garment at Regular Price and Select Another FREE.

Included In This Group Are...

- Winter and Spring...
- Wool Dresses
- Cocktail Frocks
- Dark Cottons
- All-Occasion Dresses

1/4 OFF On All Skirts Sweaters and Blouses

All Sales Final No Charges

I'LL MEET YOU AT THE...

TOWNE and COUNTRY

"Specialty Shop"

EAGLE POINT, OREGON

Just an Easy Pleasant Drive for Real Big Savings!

Severson's Candy

VALENTINE BOXES of Fresh Candies 15¢ up

SEVERSON'S Bring A NEW LOOK in Valentine Boxes... Largest Assortment on the West Coast.

SOMETHING NEW AT SEVERSON'S Ask to sample our NEW Victoria Butter Creams

TWO CONVENIENT LOCATIONS - 132 W. Main St. • 21 So. Central Ave.

FREE Gift Wrap and Mailing