

SHADY COVE-TRAIL Firemen Answer Four Calls

By EVALYN P. WATSON
Shady Cove-Trail — The volunteer firemen of the Shady Cove-Trail fire department have been busy during the recent cold weather, with four fire calls being answered within the past few days.

A fire Wednesday about 9 a.m. was at the Dave Bergren residence in back of the Associated service station in Shady Cove, resulting from an overheated stove. No damage was reported.

A great deal of credit should be given to these volunteers who drop the work they are doing in their own business establishments to go to fight a fire. Also greatly appreciated is the help which has been given the Shady Cove-Trail fire department by members of the Central Point Rural Fire Department who in many cases have assisted Shady Cove with fires that were well outside the Central Point district.

The Episcopal Guild of St. Martin's church, Shady Cove, will meet on Monday evening, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Glenn Anderson, Laurelhurst road, Trail. Mrs. Rainald Axtell has arranged a program for the meeting. Visitors are invited.

Mrs. Jim Hopkins of Shady Cove has been confined to a Medford hospital for treatment and observation. She was expected to return home soon.

George Pfeifer of Shady Cove is still confined to the Veterans' hospital in Portland.

Local housewives who are running short of vanilla may purchase a large bottle of good quality vanilla for $1.50 at the Shady Cove cleaners and in so doing will contribute towards the purchase of a coffee pot for the Shady Cove-Trail Volunteer Fire department.

Mrs. Jim Cassal has returned home from Portland where she underwent eye surgery at St. Vincent's hospital. She is convalescing at home but expects to return about Feb. 10 for additional surgery. Her husband, Jim Cassal, has also returned home from the Veterans' hospital in Vancouver where he has been since the first part of the year.

Dick Pfeifer of Shady Cove suffered several broken ribs and a large gash on his arm when a ladder which he was climbing to his roof broke and caused him to fall.

He landed on rocks. Dick, who is a volunteer fireman, said that this would explain his failure to help fight the last few fires.

Steelhead Post No. 6881 and Ladies Auxiliary will hold a regularly scheduled meeting on Friday evening, Feb. 1st, at the VFW Post Home. The meeting is to start at 8 p.m.

Shady Cove Cub Pack No. 46, together with other mothers, members of the planning committee, parents and friends met at the Shady Cove school Monday, Jan. 29. The speaker was Dr. Dale Ripper of the Coater Lake Area Council. Parents are urged to show an interest in what their Cub Scout is doing by attending these meetings.

The next meeting of the Cub Scout planning committee will be Monday, Feb. 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Watson of Shady Cove.

Members of Our Lady of Fatima club held a meeting Tuesday evening, Jan. 29 at the home of Mrs. Ernest Segessenman in Shady Cove.

The annual election of new officers was held with the following being elected: president, Mrs. Harry Casebier, Trail; first vice-president, Mrs. Ernest Segessenman, Shady Cove; second vice-president, Mrs. Fred Morgan, Trail; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ole Hornseth; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Pearl Adair. There was a good attendance at this meeting in spite of the extremely cold weather.

Plans are in the making for a Teen-Age club for young people of the community between the ages of 14 and 20. This club will be sponsored by Our Lady of Fatima church and members of the club. The first meeting was held Sunday evening, Jan. 27 at the church hall and temporary officers elected were: president, Mike Clarke of Trail; vice president, Leonard Winslow, and secretary-treasurer, Delberta Spain, both of Shady Cove. There will be a meeting of members of the Teen-Age club together with Father O'Leary and members of Our Lady of Fatima club in the near future to make further plans. Father O'Leary was present Monday evening at the church hall for the inquiry class held there every two weeks on Monday evenings. A meeting of the executive board of Our Lady of Fatima will be called by President Mrs. Harry Casebier in the near future.
