

BUTTE FALLS Dance, Cake Auction Set

By MARY JO HARRIS
Butte Falls — A combination dance and cake auction, sponsored by the Butte Falls Community Service clubs, will be held Saturday night, Feb. 9, at the grade school gym to raise funds for the Community hall. Admission will be a donation to the Community hall fund and there will be a small charge for refreshments.

A meeting with representatives of various clubs met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hatterick Thursday evening, Jan. 31, to discuss final preparations for the dance. Elsie Abbott and Lois Casey of the Grange were put in charge of the music. The Mt. Pitt club will handle the publicity and be in charge of door prize tickets. The Grange HEC and Lions auxiliary will be in charge of refreshments, and local Union and Lion members will be in charge of the hall.

Any resident not able to attend dance but wishing to donate a cake or pie for auction is asked to contact Mrs. Hartlerode, Mrs. Charles (Red) Capello or Mrs. William L. Harris and they will pick it up.

Each woman is asked to bring a cake, pie or sandwiches. Cars will not be allowed on the school grounds.

All profits from the dance, refreshments and auction will be turned over to the Community hall fund.

Approximately $136 has been turned into the March of Dimes so far. This represents $59 taken in at the old time country dance sponsored by the Butte Falls community service clubs, donation by local union, $25, a $25 donation by Butte Falls Mt. Pitt club and the Mothers March, which netted $27.03.

Participating in the annual Mothers March Thursday evening, Jan. 31, were Mrs. Eugene Irwin, Mrs. Don Jolliffe, Mrs. Leo Jolliffe, Mrs. Henry (Hank) Tygart, Mrs. Cecil Taunton, Mrs. Dan McKeen, Mrs. Alva Webster, Mrs. F. E. (Mamie) Hoole, Mrs. Page Stauffer and Mrs. William L. Harris. Doug Finch, chairman of the Butte Falls area for the March of Dimes, reports that all credits for this area have not been turned in as yet. The annual tree lift sponsored by the Moose lodge of Medford credits Butte Falls with $19.75. The Koffee Klatches are still in progress.

Cold weather finally broke here Thursday, Jan. 31, with temperatures rising. Residents, armed with blowtorches, wrenches, new pipes and fittings have been hard at work all week thawing out and mending broken pipes. Even with warmer weather highways are still icy, especially in the outlying districts above Butte Falls. New snow has fallen but freezing temperatures have ceased. For the time being, temperatures this past week have fallen below zero and have been among the coldest recorded here in the past few years.

Butte Falls residents are glad to see the Floyd Price family back in their midst once again. The Prices have been in Sumpter, Ore., for the past two years and are now living in the former Roy (Red) Price home.

Miss Joan Ruddick recently broke her arm but is reported back in school once again. Joan's sister, Reba Anne, was ill this past week but is reported to be much improved. Joan and Reba Anne are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Orb Ruddick.

Two brothers, Lewis Smith of Butte Falls and Roy Smith of Eagle Point, will celebrate their 81st birthday Feb. 10. The brothers have lived in this area all their lives. Lewis is the father of Mrs. Charles Capello and Donald (Porky) Smith.

The State Police are investigating thefts of gasoline in the Butte Falls area.

Members of the Butte Falls Mt. Pitt club are working on a clothing and household items drive this coming week to aid a family of seven recently burned out in the Butte Falls area. Boxes will be put in the Butte Falls General store and post office for collection and Tuesday, Feb. 5, has been designated as pick-up day. A door to door collection will be made Tuesday. The children's ages are six months, two and one-half years, three and one-half years, six years and nine years. Women's clothing is size 12, men's pants size 32 and shirts size 15 and one-half.

A workday has been set for Wednesday, Feb. 6, at the home of Mrs. Eugene Irwin, to clean, press and mend items before delivery is made.

Corvallis High School Votes Color Change

Corvallis — (UP) — After 45 years as the Maroon and Blue, Corvallis High School students have decided to change their colors.

In a 619-359 vote Friday the student body officially changed the school's colors to Columbia blue and white. The students felt the new colors were more pleasing to the eye than the old.

EVEN THE SINK

Glendora, Calif. — (UP) — Dr. Donald P. Nebeker reported to police Friday that thieves looted his office of everything—including the sink.

GOLD HILL Health Unit Meeting Set

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill — A meeting of the Gold Hill Health unit will be held at the home of Mrs. Delos Walker, on Second avenue, Tuesday, Feb. 5, at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Wilmer Bailey and Mrs. George Smith will assist Mrs. Walker with serving of a dessert luncheon which will precede the business session.

Each member of the unit who wishes will participate in a silver offering for the March of Dimes.

The group will also sew on the ditty bags for the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital.

Residents in the community who have articles in their homes, such as clothing, household items, dishes, jewelry, white elephants, books and magazines they wish to dispose of, are requested to leave them at Walker's service station, the Oaks Motel or contact a member of the unit, Mrs. Arthur Boye is chairman for the rummage sale to be held later in February, in Medford at the Fehl building on Ivy street.

According to Mrs. Boye, anyone in Medford, who wishes to donate are asked to leave their items at the Fehl building on the afternoon of Feb. 20, or any time after 9 a.m. on Feb. 21 and 22, or contact her by phoning Gold Hill 5-9187.

Paul Thompson was elected president of the Gold Hill volunteer fire department, at the last meeting Jan. 22. Other officers elected were Jack Arnold, vice president, Robert Balch, secretary and Wilmer Bailey, who is assistant fire chief, was elected treasurer.

The business session was conducted by the retiring president, Floyd Lance. Dale Smith is the retiring treasurer of the group. Volunteer firemen attending the meeting in addition to Lance, Thompson, Balch and Arnold were volunteer captain, Cecil Gable, Vaughn Whitmore and Dale Smith.

Chief of Police Floyd Taylor set up a stove that evening in the new meeting room, which is almost completed. The firemen's meetings are held the second and fourth Wednesday of each month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Meunier, of Medford were recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newnam of Gold Hill.

Mrs. Aubrey Taylor and daughters Penny and Debra from Table Rock spent the evening of Jan. 23 visiting at the home of her parents, Chief of Police and Mrs. Floyd Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hickey and girls Linda, Joane and Lane, visited over the week end of Jan. 20 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Moore in Butte Falls.

Mrs. Don Clemence spent a recent week end visiting in Grants Pass with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hayes have moved to Medford. They sold their home on Second avenue to Mr. and Mrs. George Triller.

Mrs. Clarence Callahan is convalescing at her home after being a patient at the Sacred Heart hospital several days, where she underwent surgery.

Mrs. Callahan stated that she would welcome visitors and cards.

Several social affairs and regular meetings were held recently in Gold Hill for the young people of this community. Two of these affairs were roller skating parties.

The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship group of the Community Methodist church skated at the rink in Grants Pass Thursday evening, Jan. 17. Those attending were Miss Grace Gail, Miss Sandra Smith, Dennis Bailey and Richard Hammersley.

The Young People's Group from the Christian church went to Ashland, Jan. 24, for an evening of roller skating. They were guests of the Young People's Group from the Church of Christ in Ashland. The minister, Bill J. Miller of the Gold Hill Christian church and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allison accompanied the group made up of John Andrews, Anna Marie Maerz, Darlene Allison, Ladine Waterhouse, Howard Freeman, Freda and Fred Baker.

According to the Rev. Grover "Tom" Calhoun, pastor of the Assembly of God church, the Young People's group from this church failed to reach their destination due to hazardous road conditions when they started to Prospect Saturday, Jan. 19, to spend the day in the snow, but due to the kindness of Clarence Neville, a ranger, who provided shelter for the group, they had their picnic meal as planned.

The Rev. and Mrs. Calhoun escorted the young people on this outing. They were James Eldred, Charlie Price, Robert Wilson, David Goodwin, David Bowen, Dollie and Iva Mae Governor, their cousins, Jean, Mary Lee, and Robert Governor, Marilyn McCoy and one visitor Howard Freeman.

The Assembly of God basketball team went to Kirby, Jan. 29, where they played the Assembly of God team there. On Thursday, Jan. 31, Rev. Calhoun reports his team played the Bethel Assembly of God in Medford.

Cheer leaders for the Gold Hill church are, Marilyn McCoy, Iva Mae Governor, her cousins Jean and Mary Lee Governor.

A party for the primary class from the Christian church was given at the home of the class teacher, Mrs. Clarence Freeman on Second avenue, Sunday afternoon, Jan. 20. Games were played and refreshments served to Janie and Jackie Straus, Fleeta Baker, Wanda Munday, Kathy Volmert and two guests, Faye Baker and James Freeman.

The last regular meeting of the Young People's group from the Christian church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Baker, who live on Third street.

Bill J. Miller, minister of the church, was in charge of the Bible study. Following the study, games were played and refreshments served to the following young people, Leroy and Ladine Waterhouse, John Andrews, Anna Marie Maerz, Darlene Allison, Howard Freeman and Freda Baker.

The previous meeting of this group was held the preceding Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Baker, highway 99 north. Following the usual devotions Darlene Allison, Howard Freeman, Freda and Fred Baker, John Andrews, Mike McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allison and the minister Bill J. Miller had a taffy pull.

The Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship group from the Community Methodist church elected new officers at the January 27, meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gail, whose home is on Pacific highway 99 north. The president, Richard Hammersley, had been previously elected to office. New officers elected include, Miss Nelda Robbins, vice president; Tim Bailey, secretary of citizenship and publicity, Sandra Smith.

The Rev. Howard Walton, pastor of the church, is the class advisor for the group and attends each meeting. Refreshments were served at the close of the devotional meeting by Fred Bowen, assisted by Miss Grace Gail. This group met the previous week at the Gail home, with Miss Robbins in charge of refreshments.

Ping-pong was a part of the evenings entertainment both nights.

Vickie Lester's braided yarn octopus doll won first in the judging by Mrs. Ed Sims of Medford, at a meeting of the Work Shop club, held Monday evening, Jan. 28, at the home of Mrs. Dale Collins at 494 Sixth street. Judy Force received second and Terry Turner third. The dolls were the first project completed by the girls.

Mrs. Sims demonstrated the craft of making copper jewelry, at this meeting.

Members of the club decided to bring 10 cents each week to be put in a "kitty." Judy Kimmy and Virginia Monday attended the meeting Monday night for the first time. The club will meet again Monday, Feb. 4.

Refreshments were served by Lavonne Malone and Terry Turner.

Visitors at the Three-J's dairy farm across the river from Gold Hill, Thursday, Jan. 24, were nine cub scouts and Brown of Den four.

The boys were taken on a tour of the dairy by Mrs. John A. Jaksch. After watching the milking and calf feeding Mrs. Jaksch served refreshments to the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bemus of Kansas City, Mo., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dungey Thursday, Jan. 24. Bemus is a cousin of Mrs. Dungey.

Miss Gail Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Collins, was among the students selected to become a member of the Honor Society at Crater High school, Monday evening, Jan. 28. Miss Collins is a junior.

Mrs. Iola "Gussie" Beman is a patient in a Grants Pass hospital, where she has been critically ill. Mrs. Beman makes her home with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Al Beman, whose home is on highway 99 north.

Donations totaled $40 for the second coffee given in the Gold Hill area at the home of Mrs. Norman Gail from noon until 2 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 29. Over 50 people went to the Gail home that day, where they were served a complete luncheon. Members of the Gold Hill Health unit supplied the food, which was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Boye, Mrs. Schoenemann and Mrs. Meta Powers.

Mrs. Fred Mott has returned to her home in Oxnard, Calif., at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William "Bill" Dungey, whose home is on Fifth avenue. Mrs. Dungey's daughter, Miss Susan Alderman returned to Oxnard with Mrs. Mott.

Jimmie Neizel was high score player with 11 points in the basketball game held at the Hanby school gym Monday afternoon, Jan. 28, when Gold Hill played Prospect. Frank Balch made eight points. This was the last home game with four more games to be played away from home. Prospect won both games.

Elizabeth Alsenz who has been living in Nevada has entered the fifth grade at Hanby school.

Over 150 people attended the March of Dimes basket ball game Thursday, Jan. 24, when the Phoenix met the Gold Hill grade school at Hanby gym. The visitors won both A and B games.

The proceeds of over $50, which included $7 from the cake walk will be given to the March of Dimes.

The silver offering for the March of Dimes, given by Mrs. Stanley Brown at her home on Second avenue, Jan. 25, was $37. The affair was held from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., with a large number of local residents attending.

Many ladies of the community furnished food, which included assorted sandwiches, salads, and pastries, that were served with the coffee. Mrs. Brown was assisted with the serving by Mrs. Lester Parker and Mrs. Arthur Boye.

Among the projects for raising funds for the fight against polio, was the cake sale at Gail's Market Jan. 26, sponsored by the sophomore class of Crater High school. Susan Hood and Ladene Waterhouse were in charge of the selling and poster making. The girls report a profit of $13.50 was realized from this event.

Mrs. Norman Gail, Good of the order chairman of Amethyst Rebekah lodge 97 has announced that Mrs. Lenard Andrews and Mrs. Earl Moore, local artists, will give a demonstration and explain oil painting as a hobby at the next lodge meeting, which is scheduled for 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 6, in the IOOF hall.

Programs will also be featured that night by the two contest teams of which Mrs. Lester Thompson and Mrs. Clyde Kell are captains.

Mrs. William Hittle, Mrs. William Ferguson and Mrs. Daniel Stewart will be in charge of refreshments.

According to the Gold Hill

Sunday, February 4, 1947

WEDNESDAY (ORFORD) 11:00 AM THREE

Health unit's previous announcement published by mistake, said a coffee is to be held at the home of Mrs. Delos Walker on Feb. 5.

Feb. 5 is the regular meeting date of the Gold Hill Health unit, which will meet at the home of Mrs. Walker on that date. However, due to the fact that many of the 35 members of the unit were unable to attend the open house coffees held in this area, a silver offering will be taken for the March of Dimes from those members who wish to make a contribution at this business meeting of the unit.

A full afternoon's work is planned and members are requested to bring needles and thread for sewing on the ditty bags.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Wilmer Bailey and Mrs. Clarence Parsley.

Dead line Classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Start the New Year
With Your Bills
Consolidated

Get your bills consolidated and have LOWEST PAYMENTS—on the cash you need for any month—NO INTEREST.

SEE
Oregon Finance Co.
45 So. Central
Home Owned and Managed

NEW WALLPAPER
FOR BETTER LIVING

It's smart to redecorate with lovely wallpaper

Give your home a refreshing "new look" at small cost... with wallpaper! Choose from our large variety of distinctive new designs... wonderful colors and patterns to add charm to every room, every decor. Many washable! Come, see!

FRAKE & SMITH
PAINT & WALLPAPER

315 EAST MAIN • PHONE 2-4564
Artist Supplies

1957 Westinghouse
DRYER
SPECIAL

NOW ONLY $149.95
Model D-104

The only electric dryer that blows warm air directly on clothes—not through the cabinet! Washes—Quicker—uses less water! Easier loading and unloading!

WATCH WESTINGHOUSE
WHERE THE THINGS ARE HAPPENING FOR YOU!

EASY TERMS

BIG Y APPLIANCE
In The Big Y Building
N. PACIFIC HIGHWAY PH. 3-3052

Matching I-104 Model LAUNDROMAT $199.95
New Priced at Only

Newberry's MONDAY MORNING

Doorbuster Special

1/2 PRICE
Clearance Sale
GIRLS DRESSES

Sizes 2 to 14—All lovely dressy type styles. Cottons, nylons, drip and dry in many colors and patterns.

Such Values as Regular $3.98 each... Now $1.99 ea.

Regular $1.98... Now 99¢ ea.

Wash Crews, Boyshorts Drip and Dry Prints Values to 59¢ Ea. 37¢ DOORBUSTER SPECIAL	Ladies CORDUROY Jackets Style 75 & 18 Reg. $29.95 $4.99 SPECIAL	Clearance Sale GIRLS' Panties Regular 25¢ Sale 11¢ Each
---	--	--

J. J. NEWBERRY Co.
Complete Variety Department Store
Medford's Bargain Corner Sixth and Central

2 Modern Wreckers
No distance too far—no job too large. When in mechanical trouble or need a tow, call Medford 2-6119 or 2-4891. 24 HOUR SERVICE JACK SIDES. Rogue Service Garage 5th and Front Streets