SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS (As of Friday)

Grants Pass	3	3	.500
Ashland	2	4	.333
Crater	0	7	.000

Outshining Grants Pass most of the route for more than three quarters and during the final minutes over to reserve forces, the Medford high Black Tornado chalked up its sixth Southern Oregon conference and District 6 A-1 basketball victory Friday night by lashing the Cavemen of the Climate city 62 to 41.

The conference defenders, who've bowed only in the 1957 chase when they split with Klamath Falls, maintained stride at the head of the loop with the Pelicans. Klamath overcame a Crater high challenge 66 to 40 on Friday.

Grants Pass came to Medford on Friday reportedly with special offensive and defensive preparation to meet the Black Tornado. But the week-long efforts of the Cavemen were to no avail. Only the Tornado's own coldness at times kept its score from being higher and GP efforts to spread the Medford defense and send a cager driving to the bucket, failed to pay off with any serious effectiveness.

Medford then went scoreless for a couple of minutes while Walker collected a free toss for GP. The Cavemen, however, went without a point for 3 1/2 minutes to the end of the period and Medford in the last 2 1/2 minutes in '10. Copley hit from the corner, Plumley got two free points and a rebound field goal. Perkins scored on a fast break off a jump ball then recovered a loose ball and potted a fielder.

Medford wound up with a good average from the field, 400 on 20 out of 50. The Tornado took advantage of 32 GP personal infractions to make 22 out of 46 free shot attempts. Grants Pass made 17 out of 34 from the free line. Twenty-two fouls were toted on Medford.

Cogh Ray Davis, who apparently is still trying to find a consistent combination of Cavemen, substituted rather freely during the game. Medford mentor Frank Roelandt sent in reserves sparingly except in the final seconds of the first half and in the concluding quarter.

Bruins Dump Oregon State For 21st Straight in PCC

Long Beach, Calif. — (UP) — The UCLA Bruins captured their 21st consecutive basketball victory in regular conference play Friday night by dumping the Oregon State Beavers 59-37 in a Pacific Coast conference contest played in Long Beach City College gym.

The once potent Beavers ran into trouble early in the game and the Bruins' defense proved so tough underneath the hoop that Oregon State went for seven minutes and 51 seconds before scoring its first field goal.

Dave Gambee, Oregon State's ace forward and all-conference player of last year, proved to be the only member of the Beaver team who could effectively challenge the Bruins, but was cooled off in the second half.

Gambee scored 15 of the 20 Beaver points in the first half but was held without a field goal for the remainder of the game. He ended up with 17 points to the Bruin center Conrad Burke for scoring honors.

Cavemen JV Gang Victor In Prelim

A smooth operating Grants Pass high junior varsity basketball quint romped over the Medford jayvees 53 to 35 Friday night in the preliminary here to varsity contention.

The Cavemen gang took command in the second period after leading by a close 12 to 10 at the close of the first quarter. Half-time score was 27 to 15 for GP and standing at the third intermission score was 39 to 28.

Paul Lindquist put in 14 points for Grants Pass and Dick Hayes 18. Ron Prey scored 11 for Medford.

The Cavemen scored heavily on free shots. Lindquist made nine and Hayes eight without a miss.

Cavemen JV Gang Victor In Prelim

The victory brought the Bruins their 10th consecutive win for the season and their 21st consecutive conference win since losing to Oregon State in the 1955 PCC playoffs.

The victory also was the fifth consecutive conference win for UCLA this season. The Bruins have a 14 win, one loss record for the season.

The Friday PCC standings: California 6-0, UCLA 5-0, Washington 7-1, Stanford 3-4, WSC 3-5, OSC 2-5, Idaho 2-6, USC 1-3, Oregon 1-6.

McLoughlin Takes Three Over Ashland

McLoughlin Junior high made it a clean sweep in basketball over Ashland opposition on Friday. Ninth graders won 43 to 29, eighth graders 27 to 21 and seventh graders 30 to 27.

In the ninth grade tiff the Medford quint headed 14 to 8, 26 to 11 and 32 to 17 at the quarters. Jerry Shults tallied 26 points for McLoughlin and Steve Gray 17 for Ashland.

Eighth graders were tied at 12 apiece after a 6 to 3 Bulldog first quarter lead. After three quarters McLoughlin was ahead 17 to 13. McLoughlin led 16 to 10 at the half after a 6-all tie in the first quarter of the seventh grade mix. Three-fourths standing was 24 to 17 for Medford. George Clearwater had 17 points for the Bulldogs and K. Kearns 12 for the Lithian team.

Eagle Point, Phoenix Nab Rogue League Encounters

Eagle Point high trounced Glendale 63 to 39 Friday night to record its seventh victory against no losses in the Rogue Basketball league. Phoenix pulled Brookings farther down in third place by nicking the coast club 55 to 53.

Eagle regulars were torrid and had rebound control and Glendale was cold in the tangle at EP. Phoenix made the most of free opportunities to beat Brookings.

After taking an opening lead of 10 to 0 the Eagles had quarterly spreads of 19 to 4, 34 to 13 and 57 to 24. Regulars of EP hit 15 for 29 from the field in the first half and, despite two for 14 gunning in the last quarter by reserves, game average was .382 for the victors. The Pirates had .159. EP rebound margin was 50 to 29.

A tight Eagle zone restricted Glendale to mostly long shots. Phoenix Trails Gary Foren and Dennis Boren each had 14 points for Eagle Point.

Phoenix trailed 14 to 21 in the first quarter but got ahead 26 to 25 by the half when Brookings reserves went into the game. The coast crew couldn't get going with the return of regulars. Phoenix coach Jack Woodward used nine players, substituting frequently in the game. The quarter count favored Phoenix 44 to 39.

Brookings made 21 field goals

Grants Pass Ninth Stays Undefeated

Gary McGill, who the week before was playing for Hedrick Junior high, was one of the main cogs for Grants Pass ninth grade Friday as the unbeaten Cavets downed McGill's former Hedrick basketball teammates 52 to 43.

Gary Purkert put in 19 points and McGill 14 to pace the decision and McGill contributed some fine rebound work.

Hedrick won the eighth grade mix 34 to 20 but GP seventh took the action from its Medford counterpart 32 to 25.

Grants Pass ninth had 11 to 10, 27 to 16 and 36 to 33 intermission leads on the Medford opposition.

Hornet eighth graders headed 9 to 4, 18 to 10 and 26 to 14 at the pauses. Dan Sieg of Hedrick was the top shooter with nine. The GP seventh won after lagging 24 to 22 in the fourth panel. Quarter advantages of 10 to 2, 13 to 6 and 22 to 21 were held by the Climate city lads. Mike McLoughlin of Hedrick and Ausland of GP each had nine points.

EOC Subdues Red Raiders

La Grande—Eastern Oregon college kept within reach of the Oregon Collegiate conference basketball front position by trimming Southern Oregon college Friday night 76 to 72 while Oregon Tech beat Portland State 51 to 45.

EOC has a 7-3 record while OTI is on top with 7-2.

The Mounties lead the Red Raiders of the Rogue 40 to 36 at the half. Thirty fouls were toted on Raiders and Bill Hollingsworth, Dave D'Olivo and Norm Oliva were banished by the time five minutes had passed in the second half.

The loss left Southern Oregon with a 4-5 mark for the year and Portland State was all but eliminated from championship hope, its record and unsuccessful 3-7 Oregon College stepped outside the loop last night to drop a 63-62 decision to St. Martins.

Marshallfield Nips Eugene

Eugene, leader in the Class A-1 division of the Journal Coaches poll since the beginning of the season, was defeated Friday night by Marshallfield, 56-54, in a District 5 basketball thriller.

The Class A-2 and B leaders continued their victory skews. In the A-2 division, No. 1 Madras downed Burns 63-54. In the B classifications, Elkton walloped Yoncalla, 61-44, and Knappa, who share the No. 1 spot with the Elks, swamped Tillamook Catholic, 52-37.

The only other team in the first 10 of the Class A-1 division to suffer a defeat Friday was No. 8 Lincoln of Portland. The Cards were dropped, 50-46, by No. 10 Grant of Portland.

COMPANY A, MUTUAL HAVE CRUCIAL MIBL MIX MONDAY

Headquarters Company of the National Guard first half fray has yet to be made up.

Company A takes on Mutual of Omaha, the second place team in a crucial scuffle and one of interest on Monday at 7 p.m. and at McLoughlin Junior high. Butte Falls meets Lea Motors at 8:30 p.m. Mutual battles Butte Falls in the early scrape on Tuesday and Prospect and Headquarters have their second half tiff in the nightcap.

On Wednesday in the first mix of the evening Company goes against fourth spot Lea Motors. Hawkinson's has its wind-up mix in the second portion of the evening, facing Headquarters. Mutual winds up the second half on Feb. 12 by playing Prospect.

Portland Edges Regis Five 78-76

Denver — (UP) — Forward Gene Kutsch scored a field goal with 58 seconds left to play to give University of Portland a 78-76 victory over Regis Friday night in the first of a six-game Pilot basketball swing through the Midwest.

Pelicans Overcome Stubborn Comet Club

Central Point — Klamath Falls posted its sixth triumph against one loss in the Southern Oregon conference basketball campaign here Friday night but only after overcoming stubborn opposition from the cellar occupant Crater high Comets.

The Pelicans held off a fourth quarter Crater bid to win 60 to 49 to retain its loop leadership knot with Medford.

The Comets in their finest game of the season, presented a choking defense which baffled the Pel's at times and they, themselves, did well on the attack when Klamath utilized zone strategy to protect its bucket.

Klamath jumped in front at the start of the contest but had to surge from behind to lead 14 to 12 at the quarter. It was the second quarter scoring which made the difference in the final outcome. The Pel's were on top 33 to 21 at the half.

Crater out-tallied KF by one point in the third stanza, 13 to 12, but the Pelicans still had a good bulge at 45 to 35 at the intermission. The Comets whacked their deficit to five points at 52 to 47 in the last quarter. This was offset by a six point Pel spurt and the clubs wound up even with 15 points each in the final quarter.

Jamming Defense The Comets jammed the middle to hold back Pel efforts to drive in for shots and Wayne Allen was assigned the principal chore in keeping down the efforts of KF's high scoring Butch Kimpton to hit from the outside. Kimpton was held to two field goals but tall Glenn Moore was able to plunk in eight and was the game's high shooter with 21 markers.

Concentration on Kimpton also led the Pel's guard mate, Lee McGill get five netters from the field. He had 12 points. Allen was second high from the field for the game with six and second high in total with 15.

Klamath Falls with its advantage in height controlled the backboards by a 40 to 19 margin.

Shooting of Fred Herrman and Don Goyette brought Crater up to the 52 to 47 status with four minutes to play in the ruckus. But a quick goal by McGill and a couple of fast break buckets made it 58 to 47 to quench the threat.

Glenn Moore was the main force in helping the Pelicans through the first quarter. He made Klamath's first eight points. Moore got four points. Crater tied the game at 4 to 4. Then Crater got on top 12 to 8.

Logart Scores Decision in Bout

New York — (UP) — Welterweight contender Isaac Logart of Cuba, riding a wave of anger, said Saturday he hoped his next Madison Square Garden opponent on March 29 would be Mexican Gaspar Ortega. "So I kin wheep heem like Yama Bahama las night."

It was anger that made the fourth-ranking welterweight aspirant unexpectedly sharp and fast Friday night as he won a unanimous decision over mid-dleweight Bahama from the Island of Bimini in their TV 10-rounder at the Garden.

Logart Scores Decision in Bout

After the Tornado had established itself in front in the first panel, there was only one stretch when it appeared that the Cavemen might seriously threaten. That was in the third quarter. In the early part of the session, the Tornado was a cold from the field. Shots that did not come by McLoughlin and Dick Copley were matched by Bob Fowler and Pete Proctor. Braces of free points by Walker and Paul Lindquist cut the Medford spread to eight points at 23 to 15.
