

USF Wins 2nd In Row; Tops Loyola

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Last year national champs, this year national champs, changed Loyola of Los Angeles rosters Saturday night before Loyola's game with the University of San Francisco.

But by the time the game ended, if the Lion fans were talking at all, it was out of the other side of the mouth. USF won, 66-45, and looked anything like "champs" in the doing.

It was the NCAA night in which the NCAA defending champs had coasted home defeating Pepperdine of Los Angeles, 78-67, the evening previous.

The USF club once again looked the part of potential champs. And the big difference was the big man, 6-9 Art Day, the sophomore "successor" to All-American Bill Russell.

Day, from Kansas City, Mo., who arrived at USF this fall unsolicited, has finally found his niche as a starter.

When he checked in for practice in November he looked like the rawest of rookies in trying to fit into the Phil Woolpert style of play which puts the emphasis on defense.

Consequently while Woolpert tutored Day in the fine points of defense, the tall man from the midlands rode the bench the first half of the season.

He took over as a regular starter at the center post two weeks ago. Since then the Dons, still playing below their potential, have handily won three games and once again rate as the favorite to win the California Basketball association title and qualify for the NCAA regionals.

Lloyd Pope Links Victor

Lee Flink was third with 39-38-38-38 — 153. Knotted with 146 totals were Bill Catey, 38-37-37-34, and Ward Samuelson 38-37-36-35. Those with 144 points were Clayton Lewis, 39-35-35-35, and Frank Allen, 40-38-35-31. John Ulich had 36-36-36-33-141.

Jim Sheldon and Carl Schmidt with 75 cards tied for low gross in Saturday and Sunday March of Dimes sweepstakes at Rogue Valley. Pope was low net with 67. Blind bogey prizes went to Jerry Cottingham for an 85 and to Harold Homes for a 77. There were 31 entries.

Robert Devaney Gets Wyoming Position

Laramie, Wyo. — (U.P.) — Robert S. Devaney, 41, assistant coach at Michigan State, was appointed head football coach at the University of Wyoming Monday in a unanimous action by the university's board of trustees. Devaney was given a three-year contract but salary terms were not disclosed. Phil Dickens, who resigned earlier this month to take the head coaching position at Indiana, started at $10,000 in the first of his four years at Wyoming.

Big Ten Asks Looser TV Controls

Chicago — (U.P.) — The Big Ten wants looser controls on football television to forestall legislative pressure which could force the conference out of the National Collegiate Athletic association. Illinois Athletic Director Doug Mills speculated today.

The conference has proposed that the 1957 NCAA plan ought to have only one restriction: That no school may appear on video more than three times, regardless of the size of the network or area covered. "If that goes through," Mills said, "I think it would kill the bills which would force our schools to televise."

Legislation has been introduced in both Ohio and Indiana to force states schools to televise more games, and Mills said that in his opinion, should the schools be forced to get out of the NCAA, other Big Ten members would get out too.

Mills, Region Four representative on NCAA TV committee, will fight for the Big Ten plan today at the opening of a three-day committee session to revise the 1957 plan. Hearings for proposals from interested parties will be held today and the committee was expected to work the next two days devising the program.

Bulk of Yank Pitching Staff As Yet Unsigned

By UNITED PRESS

Now that their big gun — Mickey Mantle — has signed his 1957 contract, the New York Yankees today went after their flame-throwers in a drive to catch up with most of the other major league clubs in the "mountain pen derby."

Mantle was only the 14th member of the world champions to come to terms when he formally signed Monday for a reported $60,000. That left 27 Yankees still out of the fold, including the bulk of the pitching staff.

Don Larsen, among the pitchers, is expected to give the Yankee negotiators their biggest tussle on the basis of that unprecedented no-hit, no-run game he turned in against the Dodgers in last year's World Series. The no-windup right-hander reportedly hopes to double his 1956 salary of $12,000 this year but the first contract he returned assertedly carried only a $3,000 raise.

Although the terms of Mantle's contract were not revealed, Yankee General Manager George Weiss revealed that the switch-hitting center fielder received the greatest increase in the club's history. He received an estimated $32,000 in 1956, so Mickey's new contract represented almost a 100 per cent hike in pay.

Eisewhere around the baseball front, pitcher Humberto Robinson and outfielder Earl Hersh signed their contracts with the Milwaukee Braves, and White Sox Vice president Charles Comiskey said his team might make a deal with Washington later this week. The White Sox are looking for an outfielder and a catcher and it is known they have made overtures for Roy Sievers and Clint Courtney.

Meanwhile, the White Sox brought their list of satisfied players to 26 with the signing of outfielder Jim Landis and pitcher Dick Marlow.

More Than 100 Little Racing Midgets Set Mountain Race

By HAL WOOD

United Press Sports Writer San Francisco — (U.P.) — Nothing new in sports?

How about a slalom race for sports cars? More than 100 of the little racing midgets of all classes will compete in a zig-zag race through valleys of snow at Heavenly Valley, near Lake Tahoe on Sunday.

"This is the first event of this kind ever staged, as far as I know," said Roy Storey, race chairman of Sports Cars, Unlimited.

"And we don't know exactly what to expect in the way of results. 'We are having a snow plow dig a zig-zag road following a path that the people in the covered wagons used to take a century ago. It has a dirt base, but the snow may be piled high on both sides.'

Sub-Zero Weather

Storey says that the drivers all will be dressed in ski clothes to combat the cold—which has been reaching down around the 10 degrees below zero mark in that territory at night.

The elevation at Heavenly Valley is 6,500 feet.

The sports cars, which will include all the usual ones in this type of race—the MG, Porsche, Corvette, Jaguar, Mercedes-Benz, etc. — will be equipped with chains," explains Storey. "But I don't know just how this will work out as there is very little room between the tire of a sports car and its fender."

Storey figures that the winners—if anyone completes the trip over the treacherous 2-2 miles course — should average from 40 to 50 miles per hour.

For the uninitiated, a "slalom" race for skiers is one down the side of a mountain, in which the skier zig-zags through a series of set poles.

"We are putting a few extra turns in this run to make it a little tougher than our ancestors followed so long ago," said Storey.

Just what the boys are trying to prove hasn't been explained but it sounds like a lot of fun for the guys who are in the winterland anyway and are too tired to ski.

And just to add a little class to the whole show, Jackie Jensen, Boston Red Sox outfield star, will act as marshal of the race—and his pretty wife, former diving queen Zoe Ann Olsen Jensen, will be the "queen" who hands out the kisses to the winners.

Witte to Play In Canada

Corvallis — (U.P.) — John Witte, 232-pound all-American tackle at Oregon State, said today he had decided to play Canadian pro football instead of joining the Los Angeles Rams.

Witte said he has signed a contract with Saskatchewan of the Canadian League. Terms were not disclosed but Witte said he was "well satisfied" with the contract.

The Los Angeles team drafted Witte two years ago when his class would normally have graduated. Witte returned for the 1955 and 1956 seasons after two years in the Army.

The Rams were reported to have tried hard to sign Witte during the past several weeks.
