Adenauer Plans To Step Down in 1959

Bonn, Germany —(U.P.)— West Germany's 81-year-old Chancellor Konrad Adenauer plans to step down in 1959 without trying to name any one successor, according to close associates.

The sources said Adenauer is confident of winning next September's general elections and hopes to remain at the head of the government until 1959 when he will be 83.

He will then stand for the office of federal president which becomes vacant that year at the end of President Theodor Heuss' second term.

WHAT, NO HORN?

Greenville, Mich.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Merle Gavitts may apply for an American Automobile Association membership for her expected baby. The baby has been sent a carriage by its grandparents in Western Germany. The carriage is equipped with red tail-lights, white sidewall tires and chrome fenders.
