Mobile Home Group Discontinues Here

Members of the Jackson county unit of Oregon Mobile Home Owners, Inc., unanimously agreed at a recent executive meeting to discontinue the local organization.

After necessary disbursements, the balance of the funds will be divided equally and donated to the March of Dimes and the United Medford Crusade, officials said.

Present at the meeting, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Distell, Linden Trailer court, were Mrs. M. C. Sager, Valley Center Trailer park, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Leavitt, Jacksonville.

Jim Barry Elected to West Side School Post

Jim Barry was elected president of the student body at the West Side school recently. Jerry Winetrot was elected vice president; Betsy Beck, secretary; and Marsha Watson, treasurer.

Other officers include Becky Gates, yell queen; Sandra Croucher, Betsy Beck, Bonnie Cheney, and Pat White, yell leaders; Mike Phillips, yell king, and Philip Humphreys and Jim Barry, yell leaders.

Nice, France — (U.P.) — Peroxide blonde Ava Gardner said today she is not going to marry Italian actor Walter Chiari or anyone else "for the one good reason that I am already married" (to estranged husband Frank Sinatra).

Broiler Association Schedules Meeting

The Oregon Broiler Growers association will hold a state-wide meeting for broiler growers and members of allied industries Wednesday, Feb. 13, from 1:30 to 4 p.m., in the Dairy Co-op association building at Salem.

Purpose of the meeting is to study possibilities of forming an Oregon Broiler commission to promote Oregon grown birds, according to Cornelius Bateson, association president.

The meeting will be open to all broiler growers, hatchery operators, processors, feed dealers, feed manufacturers and county agents, Bateson said.

OSC Poultry Specialist To Speak at Meeting

Noel L. Bennion, extension poultry specialist at Oregon State college, will discuss trends in the poultry enterprise and marketing problems with eggs at a meeting in Jackson county Feb. 19.

W. B. (Ben) Tucker, county agriculture agent, said the meeting will be open to the public.

GEISHA TAXES LOWERED

Tokyo — (U.P.) — The tax on the Geisha girl's entertainment fee was lowered from 30 percent to 15 percent today. The cabinet approved the reduction after revenue officials explained their object was to "standardize" taxes.

Field Trip, Dinner Slated by Foresters

The Siskiyou chapter of the Society of American Foresters will hold a field trip and dinner meeting in Grants Pass Friday, Feb. 8.

The field trip will start at 3:30 p.m. at the Bate Lumber company office, and will include a trip through the sawmill and peeler plant. The "children's" hour will start at 7 p.m., and dinner is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at Zottolas, formerly the Grants Pass Country club.

Program for the meeting is being arranged by personnel from the Roseburg Research center. It will emphasize research problems as they relate to southwest Oregon.

Basey Pleads Guilty To LA Robbery Charge

Los Angeles—Robert S. Basey, 21, former Medford resident, has pleaded guilty to second degree robbery charges here for robbing a market in the Los Angeles area after kidnapping its manager.

Basey, along with an accomplice, Eugene Sellers Jr., are charged with robbing a Safeway store in Inglewood, Calif., of $2,282 last November. The two will be sentenced March 7 in Los Angeles.

Basey is wanted by Coos county authorities on charges of jumping bail here. He was arrested last March by Medford police on assault and battery charges but was acquitted after a trial.

Basey was arrested in Yreka, Calif., by Ashland, Ore., police last year following an automobile chase with speeds ranging up to 100 miles per hour over the Siskiyou.

IT WASN'T FIREMEN

Garden Grove, Calif. — (U.P.) — Women passing the Garden Grove Firehouse complained that firemen have been sounding off with loud wolf whistles. Wednesday, the firemen were excoriated. The whistles were traced to a talking mynah in a pet shop next to the firehouse.
