

Southern Oregon Opposes Oregon College in Series

After Southern Oregon college's 62-59 conquest of the Oregon Tech Owls Wednesday night, the Red Raiders will carry a two game win streak into the Oregon college Wolves den tonight and Saturday night at Monmouth.

Coach Ted Schopf's Raiders own a six-win and five-loss conference record now, and are lodged in third place in the OCC. Oregon college Wolves are currently holding down the cellar door with a record of two wins against six setbacks.

The Ashlanders own a record of 14 straight triumphs over the OCE Wolves, coached by Dr. Bob Livingston. Earlier in the season at Ashland, SOC pinned the Wolves with their 13th and 14th straight triumphs.

Schopf's crew can't take the Wolves as an easy push over. Two weeks ago, Eastern Oregon limped out of Monmouth with two defeats, 71-56 and 50-49. SOC nipped EOC for its other two setbacks. The Wolves are a sharp and scrappy little ball club. What they lack in height, they make up in experience and speed.

Well-Balanced

Wayne Young, Doug Rogers, Barry Adams, Cecil Miller and Daryl Girod make up a well balanced starting five that earlier this season clipped Linfield, the Northwest conference leader 88-87.

Other players slated to see lots of action for the Wolves will be:

Chips Blue For Oregon Prep Cagers

By UNITED PRESS

The chips begin to get real blue from here on in for Oregon's high school basketball teams with berths in the three state tournaments up for grabs.

The big A-1 tourney of 16 teams is billed for Eugene, March 12-16 while the A-2 schools will send eight teams into their Salem playoff March 11-13. Class B schools get the jump on their big brothers with their tourney set for March 7-9 at Bend.

The class A-1 schedule for tonight has its top ranked Klamath Falls team idle and none of the teams making the top 10 this week forced to face another ranked team.

Eugene, second ranked, takes on Springfield with third ranked Central Catholic at Parkrose and fourth ranked Medford hosting Crater.

Astoria, No. 5, meets David Douglas at home; six ranked Benson hosts Wilson; seventh ranked Jefferson stays home to meet Cleveland; eighth ranked Pendleton plays at Baker and ninth ranked Hermiston journeys to The Dalles.

Lincoln, South Salem and Grant tied for 10th spot this week. Grant draws a bye but Lincoln hosts Washington and South Salem travels to Sweet Home.

Madras, pride of the A-2s again this week, hosts Lakeview tonight.

Hank Aaron Gets Raise

By UNITED PRESS

Hammering Hank Aaron of Milwaukee, who was asking for a 100 per cent raise, happily settled for a 50 per cent one today that will pay him about $27,000 for swinging his big bat this year.

A Thursday night telephone call from General Manager John Quinn in Milwaukee to Aaron at his home in Mobile, Ala., settled the whole business.

Aaron, who led the National League in batting with a .328 mark last year and hit 26 home runs, had been seeking double the estimated $18,000 he received last season. Quinn had been negotiating with the 23-year-old outfielder over the phone two weeks.

"I'm definitely not disappointed," Aaron said after his talk with Quinn. "How did I do? Fairly well. I wouldn't want to discuss the contract but I'm very happy about it. The Braves are a great bunch and I'm glad to be with them."
