

Valentine Time

The small fry like to make their own valentines and they have fun with paint and paper, scissors and brushes. First graders in Mrs. Marjorie Shelton's room at Lincoln school made decorations for their room and also practiced making large red hearts on the painting easel. Here Jack Richey uses a big brush and poster paint while Terry Moore watches and waits his turn.

Mitchell Hunt. John and Kathy are in Mrs. Marion Rice's first grade room next door. "Sweethearts" in the two first grade rooms should receive many valentines, for there are only 13 girls out of the almost 50 pupils in the two rooms. Thursday the boys and girls will hold a St. Valentine's party.

Last Saturday downtown stores were filled with shoppers, young and old, looking for just the right valentine. Here Kerry O'Hara, 12, and Dennis O'Hara, 9, are shown at Newberry's store. They are son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hara, 305 Laurel street, and attend St. Mary's school.

Miss Linda Towle recently announced her engagement to Blake Maddox of Medford during a party at the Alpha Chi Omega house at the University of Oregon. Both are seniors in business administration and Mr. Maddox is affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. (Kennell-Ellis Photo)

Miss Sandra Caldwell, Eagle Point High school senior, is the betrothed of John Johnson, Medford, who is serving aboard the submarine USS Nereus. Her parents are the Jack and Mrs. Icel Johnson, Delta Waters road. (Classic Studio)
