As soon as an estimate can be made of persons interested, Sgt. Paulson of the U. S. Air Force, Medford, will be notified. At that time he will set a date to show them and answer questions at a public meeting.

Mrs. Tullis, who has muskrats in abundance in a pond on her place, has cooked them and finds the meat very good, only as she explained to the correspondent, she fried them in the same manner as one would cook a rabbit. The following recipe was taken by Mrs. Tullis from the Farm and Home Journal: Disjoint two muskrats and soak for one hour in one quart water to which one tbs. salt has been added. Drain muskrat and cover with fresh water. Boil five minutes. Drain. Put meat in heavy skillet; add three cups water, two tsp. salt, one eighth tsp. pepper, one cup chopped onions, and three tbs. bacon drippings. Cover and simmer one half hour, or until meat is tender. Remove cover. Add six sliced onions. Cook 10 minutes longer. Remove meat. Make gravy by adding two tbs. flour and one fourth cup water for each cup of broth. Cook, stirring until thick. Makes six servings.

Dunsmuir Homes in Path of Freeway

Yreka—The city of Dunsmuir is expected to receive additional revenues amounting to about $20,000,000 over the next 10 years, according to California Highway Official Herb Miles.

He told city officials that under the new federal highway program about 120 Dunsmuir homes will have to be moved to provide an adequate right of way.

The highway official pointed out, however, "people are buying and building new homes." He said he believes the city will suffer no appreciable loss in assessed valuation.

According to Miles, one additional contract for work south of the city will be let before work starts in Dunsmuir proper.

He explained need for additional right of way space in Dunsmuir is due to new federal requirements which specify an 84 foot right of way for freeway construction. 24 feet more than the state had previously planned to acquire.

In World War II the total casualties in the army and air force amounted to about 9 per cent of the total mobilization of 10.4 million.

cost for the course will be $10. For further information call Mrs. Stalker at the Cove Drug or Mrs. Reinning at Thelma's Dress Shop in Shady Cove.
