4-H CLUB NEWS

PHOENIX 4-H DAIRY CLUB
The monthly meeting of the Phoenix 4-H Dairy club was held Thursday, Feb. 7 at 243 So. Stage rd. The major portion of the evening was spent rehearsing a skit as entertainment for the general meeting held the next night. The dairy members also set up their procedure for putting on a cake-walk at the general meeting.

Under new business it was decided to try to put on an act for the Friendship Follies, to be presented March 14. The Friendship Follies is a countywide entertainment program put on by all the 4-H clubs in an effort to raise money as an aid in the International Farm Youth Exchange program. The Phoenix Dairy club wants to present, if possible, a version of the TV program, "I've Got A Secret."

Friday, Feb. 8, the Dairy club presented the one-act play, "School Daze," for the general meeting at the Phoenix Grange hall. The cast included Jim Martin as teacher; Charles Martin, Gail Glidden, Norman Ditsworth, Mary Fowler, David Johnson and Jonathan Johnson as pupils.

The cake-walk netted $4.80 for the general club treasury. Gail Glidden, Reporter.

Applegate Cooking Club
The Applegate Cooking club was called to order by Vice President Mary Harriott.

The program of work was the main topic. The members chose the name "Kitchen Kids" for the club name.

A report on the March of Dimes program was given as $15. Both Applegate and Ruch clubs participated.

Mary Harriott gave a demonstration on preparing a white sauce.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Marthanne Goodwin, Feb. 12, at 7:30 p.m.
